Across the Curriculum into China Dan Wu, 2012-09-19 Dr Wu Dan's Introducing Writing Across the Curriculum into China is an important and provocative research study that is broadly international in scope. Of particular significance for education in China, this book provides a historical analysis of writing instruction in China and an original application of activity theory used to analyze problems and possibilities for Writing Across the Curriculum (WAC) in higher education. Through an examination of important aspects of WAC as it has developed in the United States, Dr Wu Dan brings together various perspectives in support of developing and sustaining WAC programs in China and by analogy throughout the world. Her work opens new avenues for research in writing and for the teaching of courses throughout the curriculum using a writing in the disciplines approach. A major contribution to international WAC scholarship. Introducing Writing Across the Curriculum into China will be invaluable to English faculty and to all readers interested in educational innovations in China. Books in Print, 1993-09 V 1 Authors A-D v 2 Authors E-K v 3 Authors L-R v 4 S-Z v 5 Titles A-D v 6 Titles E-K v 7 Titles L-Q v 8 Titles R-Z v 9 Out of print out of stock indefinitely v 10 Publishers CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric 1995 Gail Stygall, Kathleen Murphy, 1999-08 Published for the Conference on College Composition and Communication this bibliography provides an annual listing of scholarship on written English and teaching at the college level. Entries appear under six major categories: Bibliographies and Checklists; Theory and Research; Teacher Education Administration and Social Roles; Curriculum; Testing; Measurement and Evaluation; Listservs; Electronic Resources and WWW Sites. This volume lists and annotates nearly two thousand articles, books, dissertations, and papers that with few exceptions appeared in 1995. It includes an index of authors and editors, a subject index, and entries cross-referenced according to subject matter. As usual, the CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric draws on a large group of experts in the field. Annotations which accompany every entry in this volume describe a publication's contents and are intended to help users determine the entry's usefulness. Annotations are brief and are not meant to be descriptive or evaluative; they explain what an entry is about but leave readers free to judge for themselves the work's merits. Some of the main topics are self-explanatory while others require some explanation. Bibliographies and Checklists are clear enough but Theory and Research may not be. These entries discuss concepts or hypotheses, explain how people learn, describe fields or methodologies, examine historical developments, review previous explanations of a subject, or advance conclusions drawn from empirical evidence. Teacher Education Administration and Social Roles obviously covers the education of teachers and administrative and personnel policies; this topic also deals with services supporting classroom instruction and relations between educational institutions and the larger society. Listservs, Electronic Resources, and WWW Sites deals with the Internet's electronic discussion groups interested in theory and practice in composition and rhetoric. What the Writing Tutor Needs to Know Margot Soven, 2006 Master the essentials of peer tutoring with WHAT THE WRITING TUTOR NEEDS TO KNOW.
