Neibaur, 2014-04-04 Elvis Presley's stature as the King of Rock and Roll will never be challenged Between his first RCA hit single in 1956 the number one smash Heartbreak Hotel and his death in 1977 Elvis amassed more than 100 hits on the music charts Presley's dominance on the music chart was paralleled only by the singer's motion picture career Between 1956 and 1969 Elvis appeared in more than thirty films further cementing his place as one of the most popular entertainers of the twentieth century While there have been countless books that explore the real Elvis tucked beneath layers of showbiz mythology such volumes often dismiss his motion picture career as insignificant or overlook his onscreen work entirely In The Elvis Movies James L. Neibaur looks at the thirty-one features that Presley made from Love Me Tender in 1956 to Change of Habit in 1969 Most of these were star vehicles tailor made for his image As Neibaur points out Elvis had a real interest in being a good actor but his initial promise was soon thwarted by anti-creative decisions that sold a packaged version of the singer Despite lapsing into a predictable formula of lightweight musicals Elvis Presley's star power ensured that the films became box office successes Neibaur examines each film providing information about their production and offering assessments about their value in general as well as their place in the Presley canon Additional details include behind-the-scenes personnel costars DVD availability and featured hit songs An entertaining and informative look at an often underrated aspect of the singer's career The Elvis Movies offers readers insight into his films This volume will be a welcome resource to fans of the singer who want to know more about the King and his successful ventures on the big screen East Side Story Nick Marino, 2023-11-07 A sly sentimental and wickedly funny memoir about growing up at the local fair The PNE Pacific National Exhibition is a Vancouver tradition an annual fair started in 1910 that is famous for its farm animals dog trick shows and amusement park highlighted by Canada's oldest wooden roller coaster still in existence In 1980 when Nick Marino was twelve years old he started working at the PNE and quickly learned that there was more to the fair than winning stuffed animals and eating mini donuts He had to contend with belligerent bosses unhinged carnies and teenage hustlers In this funny charming memoir of fair life Marino revisits the wild west of the city's East Side home to the PNE sharing stories from his six summers working at the fair where arcade bouncers went on midnight roller coaster rides riots broke out at concerts and local kids helped themselves to everything With beguiling and at times poignant humor he pulls back the curtain on the culture of carnivals and fairs an unpredictable and eternally young world of players scammers and dreamers
