Call You Right Back, Mum Wanda Beemsterboer, 2021-11-25 She did not call back Nor will she ever again How I started loathing those two little words never again In a heartbeat everything can change This is the gripping true story of how a young woman was murdered and a family lost a daughter Like most young girls her age Nadine lives a life filled with family friends and thoughts about the future At seventeen she meets Gerold and they fall in love But a darkness gradually falls upon their relationship and after almost three years Nadine calls the relationship off Gerold does not accept this decision and keeps contacting her despite her rejecting his advances Yet one day in December 2006 he manages to lure her to his house one more time A visit that turns out to be fatal With countless stabs he brutally ends her young life Not long after he is caught and sentenced to 12 years in prison and afterwards a treatment facility for mentally ill prisoners In 2009 Gerold sends a letter to Nadine's family where he apologizes and pleads for them to meet with him Call You Right Back Mum is the life story of Nadine written by her mother Wanda It deals with everything from pregnancy to that fatal moment where her life ended In the book she follows up on the reconstruction the trial and the sentencing Furthermore this revised 16th edition includes the killer's letter to the family and the family's recollection of what happened after receiving it Wanda Beemsterboer Avenarius published the book Call You Right Back Mum in 2010 and since then more than 23 000 copies have been sold now also in English This is the revised 16th edition The book serves as an ode to Nadine but can also help other young girls in abusive relationships Nadine's parents and sister founded the Nadine Foundation in 2007 against senseless violence and to promote animal welfare In 2014 Wanda and Jacques received the Right of Speaking Award from the Herstel Terugkeer Foundation for the book and for their work with the Nadine Foundation

The Complete Lyrics of Irving Berlin Robert Kimball, Linda Emmet, 2005-12 Applause Books Gathered together in one volume for the first time here are all of the incomparable song lyrics of Irving Berlin the lyrics of more than 1 200 songs 400 of which have never before appeared in print along with anecdotal historical and musicological commentary and dozens of photographs Berlin came from a poor immigrant family and began his career as a singing waiter but by the time he was nineteen he was publishing his songs and quickly found fame with Alexander's Ragtime Band in 1911 In the extraordinary six decades that followed Berlin wrote one popular hit after another Blue Skies Always Cheek to Cheek

White Christmas God Bless America There's No Business Like Show Business and many more He also wrote a number of the classics of musical theater's Golden Age climaxing with Annie Get Your Gun He penned three Astaire and Rogers films Top Hat Carefree and Follow the Fleet as well as the scores of Holiday Inn Easter Parade and other films The breadth of his accomplishment is staggering

Shameful Autobiographies Rosamund Dalziell, 2018-07-04 Writing autobiography is a risky business What is shameful can be inadvertently rather than deliberately revealed Yet reading autobiography can also be risky as it may lead to the confrontation of shame in ourselves Perhaps it is this element of risk together with the magnetism of another person's confession of shameful experience that make us such avid readers of autobiography Rosamund Dalziell proposes that shame is the driving force in many Australian autobiographies Indeed she suggests that the representation of shame is fundamental to the autobiographical process Shame seeks concealment and this she argues explains both why this fascinating link has not before been explored and why when it is pointed out we immediately know it to be authentic Shameful Autobiographies looks at pervasive patterns of shame in the autobiographies of such leading Australian writers as Germaine Greer Sally Morgan Bernard Smith Kathleen Fitzpatrick Morris Lurie Ruby Langford Ginibi and Robert Dessaix In so doing it establishes the centrality of shame to problems of Australian identity and to current political debate for instance it is shame that fuels angry repudiations of the so-called black armband view of history The calm clarity of Rosamund Dalziell's writing strengthens her powerful insights and arguments the most potent of which is that autobiographical confrontation with shame can heal deep wounds both for writers and for readers This mature and innovative book will enrich the experience of all readers of autobiography

Billy Duane Frances Aymar Mathews, 1905 Clio's Lives Doug Munro, John G. Reid, 2017-10-09 Including contributions from leading scholars in the field from both Australia and North America this collection explores diverse approaches to writing the lives of historians and ways of assessing the importance of doing so Beginning with the writing of autobiographies by historians the volume then turns to biographical studies both of historians whose writings were in some sense nation defining and those who may be regarded as having had a major influence on defining the discipline of history The final section explores elements of collective biography linking these to the formation of historical networks A concluding essay by Barbara Caine offers a critical appraisal of the study of historians' biographies and autobiographies to date and maps out likely new directions for future work Clio's Lives is a very good scholarly collection that advances the study of autobiography and biography within the writing of history itself taking theoretical questions in significant new directions The contributors are well known and highly respected in the history profession and write with an insight and intellectual energy that will ensure the book has considerable impact They examine cutting edge issues about the writing of history at the personal level through autobiography and biography in diverse and innovative ways Together the writers have provided reflective chapters that will be widely read for their impressive theoretical advances as well as being inspirational for new entrants to the disciplinary area Patricia Grimshaw University of Melbourne Clio's Lives brings together a most interesting and varied cast of contributors Its chapters contain sophisticated and well penned ruminations on the uses of biography and autobiography among historians These are clearly connected with the general themes of the volume This delightfully mixed bag makes very good reading and as well will serve as a substantial contribution to the study of the biography and autobiography Eric Richards Flinders University
