Goodbye To All That Uab:

New Lights in the Valley Tennant S. McWilliams, 2007-08-16 A scholarly narrative of The University of Alabama at Birmingham from its nascent beginnings through the mid 1990s

When God Works... Amy Rogers, 2023-05-22 It's just a normal afternoon when Amy's life takes a completely different turn when she is carjacked in broad daylight. A million thoughts race through her head as she is held at gunpoint in her own vehicle. But God is there in the midst and gives her peace, clarity, and a sound mind to survive. Things did not turn out like she wanted, but God was with her. He would continue to carry her throughout the difficult time to come. A few years later, she and her husband wanted to start a family. After many months of trying to conceive, Amy's dream of carrying a child was crushed. You will read how God carried her once again through another tragic time. God shows her again that He is in control and has a plan for her life. You'll see a perfect picture of the gospel as she shares the adoption stories of her two beautiful boys. Amy's story reminds us that God is always at work, even in the midst of our deepest pain.

Exploring English Lyrics Cheri Montgomery, Allen Henderson, 2024-05-13 Exploring English Lyrics is the most unified collection of English art texts with transcriptions available, containing 790 unique art song selections with pronunciation as defined by the International Phonetic Alphabet (IPA). It is an invaluable resource for both the native-speaking singer and singers with no previous exposure to the English language. These lyrics span nearly 500 years of art song history, with texts set by more than 129 composers. Diverse segments of British, American, African American, Canadian, Scottish, Irish, and Australian cultures are represented. The scope of the lyrics selected includes works appropriate for beginners as well as those being performed by the world's most prominent professional singers. Texts of frequently performed songs from the Royal Conservatory of Music Development Program, adjudications, new composers' collected works, as well as lyrics from major anthologies such as Joan Boytim's First Book series, are included. Detailed indications for selections that require a particular dialect or character voice pronunciation are provided. Helpful indices enable the reader to search by composer, song cycle, first line, or song title. References to settings of texts by multiple composers are indicated throughout the book. The book assists the teacher with repertoire selections while giving the student an accurate and elegant pronunciation that is ideal for intelligibility and optimal singing technique. Knowledge of the phonetic system and detailed pronunciation of new and standard repertoire are readily accessible with this text.

Hallmark Heartache and Humor Stella Hallmark, 2022-04-14 All the stories in this book are true. Our family has decreased with six gone to be with the Lord. The ones still living are Donnie Corsby, Carrie Thorpe, Clyde Hallmark, and his wife Jean Hallmark, and the twins Vera Vandiver and Vada Landers. We still have get-togethers when we can. All of the families live within driving distance of each other and remain very close.

Letters From The Suitcase Cal Finnigan, Rosheen Finnigan, 2017-06-15 THE LETTERS FROM THE SUITCASE by Rosheen and Cal Finnigan reveals the detailed and poignant wartime romance between David and Mary Francis. For readers of Sheila Hancock's MISS CARTER'S WAR or Helen Simonson's MAJOR PETTIGREW'S LAST STAND, I still have that recurring fear of something happening to me before I see you again and before I can tell you myself just how much and how often I've realised during the last few months that I love you completely and to the exclusion of all others Remember that because if there wasn't you my darling Mary the world would seem very empty and meaningless Mary and David Francis were only twenty one and nineteen when they met in 1938 They fell in love instantly and against the wishes of David's parents they lived together and married in secret These poignant letters reveal their intelligence and thoughtfulness their passion the everyday details of their lives working as a secretary at Bletchley Park and as a young officer in action on the other side of the world and Mary's experience of bringing up a small baby alone in London David was to die in India five years after their first encounter though his letters continued to reach Mary long after the event At heart this is the story of a young couple who were utterly devoted to one another It is also the story of a father that Rosheen Finnigan never knew but came to love

The Worst of Times Nigel Gray, 2017-07-05 First Published in 2017 This book was created as a result of the anger the author when he first encountered the arguments of a school of economic historians who claim that there was no Great Depression in Britain between the wars Broadly they suggest that while some traditional industries were badly affected new ones like man made fibres and electricity supply rose to prosperity The gross national product increased over the period and many people became steadily more affluent Radio sets seaside holidays even family cars became commonplace

Motivation Work-Life Balance: Essential or Ephemeral? Andreas Schwingshackl,Stephania A. Cormier,Kanwaljeet J. S. Anand,2017-09-28 Burn out and suicide rates among physicians and scientists in academic medicine are at an all time high and jeopardize the future of our entire profession In the last 4 years alone burn out rates among physicians have increased by 25% In a recent 2017 Medscape publication burn out rates in Critical Care physicians ranked in 9th place and Pediatricians ranked 13th among 27 subspecialties Astonishingly over 50% of the participants reported burn out symptoms with clear race and gender disparities While men generally report higher burn out rates than women it is important to emphasize that response rates from women in these surveys were notoriously low and may not represent the complete picture These numbers are even more dismal for tenured academic faculty at research extensive universities In this group emotional exhaustion i.e. high burn out is reported at 35% with a clear association with age and lower burn out levels in the older tenured faculty While no gender or racial ethnic differences were found in this particular group higher levels of burn out were identified in individuals with financial responsibilities beyond a spouse and child While it is comforting to note the increasing public interest and research activities in this field successful approaches to ameliorate the burden and consequences of physician burn out are still inadequately developed Academic centers increasingly offer some type of work life balance program to their employees but unfortunately these programs are frequently adopted from corporate business models and remain largely ineffective in the academic environment It should be evident to most administrators that the stressors of academic clinicians and scientists substantially differ from those of corporate employees Based on these observations and over 75 years of combined experience in academic medicine amongst the three editors of this Research Topic we collected 26 manuscripts from 22 authors at different career stages and different genders ethnicities marital status and subspecialties to identify and stratify common and specific stressors and therapeutic approaches to ameliorate burn out and achieve work life balance in academic medicine We are confident that each reader will identify with at least one if not several of the authors' opinions experiences and approaches to attain greater work life balance and thereby avoid the consequences of burn out in modern academic medicine

Recollections on a Road Between Edward J. Dupuy,2024-12-19 Autobiographers typically mine memory to write of a struggle for place For some that place is wealth fame or power For others it's overcoming the wounds of addiction or an abusive past to find a place of stability As compelling as those stories can be this autobiography is different Dupuy comes from a large intact Catholic family in which he was well cared for While he explores memory and writes of a struggle for place he finds place and person not necessarily within but between established boundaries He restlessly explores spaces between and among narratives of family nation career religion and culture And he finds glimpses of an elusive and wounded subject himself A strong sense of longing a sense of not quite being at home a type of woundedness pervades his story Such places reveal themselves to him not as deficits not something to be corrected and set straight instead he sees them as a sort of home despite their shaky between nature In these spaces new contours of self others and world have opened to him

Contesting Spain? The Dynamics of Nationalist Movements in Catalonia and the Basque Country Richard Gillespie, Caroline Gray, 2015-06-26 Contesting Spain The Dynamics of Nationalist Movements in Catalonia and the Basque Country offers an exploration of the dynamics behind contemporary shifts in the orientation of nationalist parties and movements with reference to Catalonia and the Basque country in Spain The chapters were originally papers presented at a workshop held at the Barcelona Centre for International Affairs CIDOB in September 2014 as part of a research project on The Dynamics of Nationalist Evolution in Contemporary Spain whose purpose was to gain a better understanding of why regionally based nationalist movements have experienced shifting relationships with the Spanish state over time in some periods appearing content with accommodation between central and regional government and at other times pushing to go beyond autonomist demands to seek sovereignty or even attain full independence The volume is one of the first to focus comparatively on the rise of pro sovereignty politics in mainstream nationalist parties whose evolution has also featured more traditional impulses towards territorial accommodation within the wider state Using the exceptionally rich laboratory provided by Spain the book explores the dynamics behind shifts in the orientation of nationalist parties and movements once they have established themselves as electorally successful at regional level Dimensions to the analysis include the interaction of nationalist parties with central government pressures from their support bases competition between parties within the home region and international influences This title is innovative in bringing together experts with a range of disciplinary approaches primarily political scientists but also historians and scholars located at the cusp between social sciences and humanities

What I Was Thinking Simon Gelman, 2020-10-08 Simon Gelman started to think about writing a book seventeen years ago at the end of his chairmanship Initially he saw quite a few obstacles His hesitations were related to his lack of knowledge of the English language lack of knowledge of American culture and lack rather a complete absence of experience in writing nonmedical text Over the years the conceived idea was maturing and the question of whether writing the book or not gradually converted into how to write it Gelman managed to overcome the uncertainties and decided just to tell the story The first chapter of the book is a memoir However it is written as a retrospective analysis of the thoughts Gelman had and actions he chose at different periods of his life The following chapters address certain subjects like how to be a chairman of an academic medical department relationships between doctors and patients socialism and capitalism and anti-Semitism These chapters describe Gelman's views and how they changed over time affected by his maturing and life in three different countries Soviet Union Israel and United States with very different social structures and cultures A few of Gelman's friends who read the first drafts of this book were saying that these chapters that describe his changing views on the subjects can be helpful to understand many different often not well justified actions in human lives The book does not suggest what should be done in one or another circumstance It rather tells the story of how and why the decisions right or wrong were made depending on the background and acquired knowledge
