Gothenburg Area History Gothenburg Pony Express Historical Society,1992-01-01 Stories of Cosmopolitan Belonging Hannah Jones,Emma Jackson,2014-06-20 What does it mean to belong in a place or more than one place This exciting new volume brings together work from cutting edge interdisciplinary scholars researching home migration and belonging using their original research to argue for greater attention to how feeling and emotion is deeply embedded in social structures and power relations Stories of Cosmopolitan Belonging argues for a practical cosmopolitanism that recognises relations of power and struggle and that struggles over place are often played out through emotional attachment Taking the reader on a journey through research encounters spiralling out from the global city of London through English suburbs and European cities to homes and lives in Jamaica Puerto Rico and Mexico the contributors show ways in which international and intercontinental migrations and connections criss cross and constitute local places in each of their case studies With a reflection on the practice of writing cities from two leading urbanists and a focus throughout the volume on empirical work driving theoretical elaboration this book will be essential reading for those interested in the politics of social science method transnational urbanism affective practices and new perspectives on power relations in neoliberal times The international range of linked case studies presented here will be a valuable resource for students and scholars in sociology anthropology urban studies cultural studies and contemporary history and for urban policy makers interested in innovative perspectives on social relations and urban form The Cumulative Book Index ,1913 The Researcher ,1994

ARCHITECTURE, ARCHAEOLOGY AND CONTEMPORARY CITY PLANNING - Proceedings of the workshop
Giorgio Verdiani,Per Cornell,2015 Bright Lights, Dark Shadows: The Real Story of ABBA Carl Magnus Palm,2009-10-28 Revel in the bright lights of ABBA s show stopping musical career and hear the whispers from the shadows that lurked behind Bright Lights Dark Shadows The Real Story of Abba is the first true full scale biography ever written about the band With lucid prose and an inquisitive eye author Carl Palm covers all aspects of the band s lives and careers The period before the group formed their global domination throughout the 1970s their marriages and divorces their business empire and their eventual inevitable split Chronicles of Care: A Design History of the COVID-19 Virus Paul A. Rodgers,Fernando Galdon,Craig Bremner,2024-04-16 The Covid 19 crisis and the designed interventions that the authors have catalogued in this book prove definitively that design does care The authors documented this as it evolved every day from the 1st January 2020 to 31st May 2020 inclusive Then they looked at all of this care and caring from the point of view of design and by the sheer volume of design interventions they have documented illustrate that design is good in a crisis What the Covid 19 pandemic illustrated is that for the first time in modern history capital was totally irrelevant Money could not save your life Only design could Rapidly designed masks shelters hospitals instructional posters infographics dashboards respirators sanitisers virtual and local communities emerged to save us From January 2020 design became king The Covid 19

global pandemic presented an ontological reality design is more than margins or profit In fact design became extremely valuable when it stopped concentrating on those things and started to care about peoples lives This brief episode in history is still repositioning the status of design and reconfiguring its signifier from consumption to care The contents of this book cover the outbreak lockdown and the beginning of the reopening in the UK In between the book functions as a history of pandemic crisis design interventions As such it is a research in the moment project where we have illustrated our thoughts and insights in tables charts and diagrams We have accepted all design interventions as valid and given them the same role and status by presenting each of them in a standard format No curation No selection No position The task of critical analysis must follow perhaps by us certainly by others

Ancient Marriage in Myth and Reality Lena Larsson Lovén,Agneta Strömberg,2010-06-09 The papers in this volume were among the contributions presented at an international symposium Ancient Marriage in Myth and Reality which was held at the Swedish Institute in Rome in October 2006 The symposium was held under the aegis of ARACHNE the Nordic network for women s history and gender studies in Antiquity The study of ancient marriage has been largely the province of historians working with texts and the result of this was an emphasis on elite marriages discussed by the male writers of the upper classes and on laws pertaining to marriage Neither area has been exhausted as several essays in this new international collection indicate but the balance among the papers reveals the shift in focus Along with innovative readings of authors from Livy to Porphyry we find examinations of demographic and contractual evidence as well as inscriptions and visual imagery Among the contributors to the volume are Pauline Schmitt Pantel Judith Evans Grubbs Ray Laurence Marjatta Nielsen and Mary Harlow

The Bicentennial of the United States of America American Revolution Bicentennial Administration,1977 The Searcher ,2000 The regional travel guide for Västra Götaland (Sweden) ,2025-09-25 Swedish Architecture of the Twentieth Century Hakon Ahlberg,1925 Heritage, Gentrification and Resistance in the Neoliberal City Feras Hammami,Daniel Jewesbury,Chiara Valli,2022-07-08 What happens when versions of the past become silenced suppressed or privileged due to urban restructuring In what ways are the interpretations and performances of the past linked to urban gentrification marginalization displacement and social responses Authors explore a variety of attempts to interrupt and interrogate urban restructuring and to imagine alternative forms of urban organization produced by diverse coalitions of resisting groups and individuals Armed with historical narratives oral histories objects physical built environment memorials and intangible aspects of heritage that include traditions local knowledge and experiences memories authors challenge the devaluation of their neighborhoods in official heritage and development narratives

Co-producing Knowledge for Sustainable Cities
Merritt Polk, 2015-01-09 At the current time many issues and problems within sustainable urban development are managed within traditional disciplinary and organizational structures However problems such as climate change resource constraints poverty and social tensions all exceed current compartmentalization of policy making administration and knowledge production This book provides a better understanding of how researchers and practitioners together can co produce knowledge to better contribute to solving the complex challenges of reaching sustainable urban futures It is written for academic and professional audiences working with urban planning and sustainable cities around the world Co producing Knowledge is presented by way of introduction as a non linear collaborative approach to knowledge production which combines interdisciplinary transdisciplinary cross sector and policy approaches to societal problem solving Examples are taken from Cape Town Gothenburg Kisumu Manchester Melbourne and a selection of cities in Southeast Asia Each city chapter discusses the drivers and motivations behind knowledge co production and gives concrete examples of activities and approaches that have been used to promote sustainable urban futures Each chapter is written to promote mutual learning from the approaches that are already in use Building upon these city cases the conclusions outline an international practice and research agenda aimed at strengthening the promotion and implementation of the knowledge co production for sustainability across diverse urban development contexts This book provides an overview of the diverse driving forces behind co production and their specific contexts and constraints in a variety of cosmopolitan urban contexts Some of these include institutional and cross sector barriers to co production the need for learning across diverse levels and contexts and strategies for balancing scientific excellence with the needs of societal change This book offers valuable lessons regarding the concrete implications and potential impact that co production processes can have for different user groups such as planners politicians researchers business interests and NGOs in different urban development contexts

Ethnologia Europaea Vol. 42:1 Orvar Löfgren, Regina F. Bendix, 2012-10-29 How did an African elephant reach a North European museum What makes fashion displayed in museums such a hot topic today Two of the articles in this issue of Ethnologia Europaea deal with museum ideologies Liv Emma Thorsen's essay follows the story of a museum elephant What lessons can be drawn from its death transport and exhibition in a postcolonial world Marie Riegels Melchior looks at the intersection of the fashion industry and nation branding as an arena for developing new museums These two articles tie in with Alexandra Schwell's reflections on ideological shifts in Austrian state officials' concept of the nation's place on the political landscape past and present Patrick Laviolette explores metaphors of emplacement to understand regional character through its linguistic idiom Relying on extensive fieldwork Vihra Barova employs classical kinship scholarship to understand present day Bulgarian village ties as they are expressed in the festivities of extended families Board of Trade Journal of Tariff and Trade Notices ,1923 Directory of Services and Resources for Survivors of Torture ,2003

Co-curating the City Clare Melhuish, Henric Benesch, Dean Sully, Ingrid Martins Holmberg, 2022-05-24 Co curating the City explores the role of universities in the construction and mobilisation of heritage discourses in urban development and regeneration processes with a focus on six case study sites University of Gothenburg Sweden UCL East London University of Lund Sweden Roma Tre university Rome American University of Beirut and Federal University of S o Paulo Brazil The aim of the book is to expand the field of critical heritage studies in the urban domain by examining the role of institutional actors both in the construction of urban heritage discourses and in how those discourses influence urban planning decisions or become instrumentalised as mechanisms for urban regeneration It proposes that universities engage in these processes in a number of ways as producers of urban knowledge that is mobilised to intervene in planning processes as producers of heritage practices that are implemented in development contexts in the urban realm and as developers engaged in campus construction projects that both reference heritage discourses as a mechanism for promoting support and approval by planners and the public and capitalise on heritage assets as a resource The book highlights the participatory processes through which universities are positioning themselves as significant institutions in the development of urban heritage narratives The case studies investigate how universities as mixed communities of interest dispersed across buildings and urban sites engage in strategies of engagement with local people and neighbourhoods and ask how this may be contributing to a re shaping of ideas narratives and lived experience of urban heritage in which universities have a distinctive agency The authors cross disciplinary and cultural boundaries and bridge academia and practice
