Edge of Taos Desert : an escape to reality Mabel Dodge Luhan,1991 Edge of Taos Desert Mabel Dodge Luhan,1987-04 Autobiographical account describing Luhan s first months in New Mexico Travel Narratives from New Mexico John Emory Dean,2009 The colonialist West has spoken for New Mexico since 1540 when Francisco Vasquez de Coronado traveled to Acoma Pueblo in his search for the legendary cities of gold With the Spanish incursion followed fifty six years later by the first English speaking colonists in New Mexico began the representation of New Mexico from an outsider s perspective The colonial West imagined itself to hold central claims to knowledge so it knew its peripheries only as it encountered and articulated their presence to itself This Western narrative based on an imagined Western privilege to foundational or platonic knowledge has become the dominant Euro American discourse through which New Mexico has come to be known The comparative study of this collection of travel and contact narratives traces the enforcement of and resistance to the Western myth of the Euro American and European as normative as well as the Hispanic and the native as Other The author ably introduces the platonic quest as a new unifying thread that links each of these travel narratives to his argument that identity and claims to knowledge may be tested recovered or created in movement within New Mexico The platonic journey has mostly been understood as an intellectual journey toward truth This study expands upon the platonic journey to show that it may also like the quest be played out in geographical space Travel Narratives from New Mexico will be a very valuable resource for students and scholars of literature especially of the American Southwest and travel theory

The Poetics and Politics of the Desert Catrin Gersdorf, 2009 This study explores the ways in which the desert as topographical space and cultural presence shaped and reshaped concepts and images of America Once a territory outside the geopolitical and cultural borders of the United States the deserts of the West and Southwest have since emerged as canonical American landscapes Drawing on the critical concepts of American studies and on questions and problems raised in recent debates on ecocriticism The Poetics and Politics of the Desert investigates the spatial rhetoric of America as it developed in view of arid landscapes since the mid nineteenth century Gersdorf argues that the integration of the desert into

America catered to the entire spectrum of ideological and political responses to the history and culture of the US maintaining that the Americanization of this landscape was and continues to be staged within the idiomatic parameters and in reaction to the discursive authority of four spatial metaphors garden wilderness Orient and heterotopia The Desert is No Lady
