Education and Human Motivation Hermann Harry Giles,1957      Human Motivation and Emotion Ross Buck,1988-03-03
Examines basic biological and physiological systems underlying motivational and emotional responses arguing that in the course of human evolution increasingly complex social influences have liberated most human behavior from direct biological physiological control      Human Motivation and Learning Joseph A. Castellana,1972      Motivation and Momentum in Adult Online Education Lyn, Amy E.,Broderick, Maggie,2023-04-25 Online education has created an ever expanding number of programs Adult online learners are diverse and have varied talents challenges and motivations They choose online learning for its convenience and accessibility but the online learning environment can be flat and two dimensional Adult online learners can then become disengaged and disconnected especially if the online learning experience does not support their social emotional needs More research on supporting the whole learner in adult online classrooms is required Motivation and Momentum in Adult Online Education highlights unique and varied approaches to adult learners motivation and momentum in online education It provides examples of strategies tools and practices educators and educational institutions use to encourage and support adult learners motivation and momentum across a variety of online educational programs Covering topics such as academic coaching faculty student interaction and student engagement this premier reference source is an excellent resource for higher education leaders professors course instructors advisors curriculum developers instructional designers lifelong learning application developers professionals in student support services librarians researchers and academicians      The ^AOxford Handbook of Human Motivation Richard Ryan,2019-07-15 The Oxford Handbook of Human Motivation Second Edition contains contributions by the top psychologists and researchers within the field of motivation covering the most influential theories the cognitive emotional and biological underpinnings of motivation and applications to schools organizations health care sport psychotherapy and relationships These 28 chapters thus span the science of human motivation and offer an invaluable resource for both researchers and practitioners as well as any student of human nature      Evolutions of the Complex Relationship Between Education and Territories Angela Barthes,Pierre Champollion,Yves Alpe,2018-03-27 The book weaves the story of the complex links between education and its territories The aim here is to examine the education couple understood in the broadest sense school college high school universities and territory according to three main axes the history and the characterization of the different ties maintained And which the school and its territory always maintain That of the categorization and characterization of the territories in which the school is situated of the educational policies both explicit and grassroots connected with it and their effects on the school That of recent pedagogical didactic and organizational innovations The book is based on French specialists in territorial education issues      The Psychobiology of Human Motivation Hugh Wagner,2014-02-25 Why is one person motivated to create a business empire whilst another is inspired to produce a beautiful work of art Why do some people prefer a quiet life The

Psychobiology of Human Motivation explores what directs our behaviour from basic physiological needs like hunger and thirst to more complex aspects of social behaviour like altruism Hugh Wagner explores the limits of biological explanations and shows how humans can influence basic physiological drives in order to adapt to a complex social environment

Educational Psychology D. N. Tutoo,1998      Motivation, Educational Policy and Achievement Sam Carr,2015-12-14

Motivation Educational Policy and Achievement seeks to theorise and critique current trends in education through the lens of key ideas from motivational theory Its purpose is to argue that current educational trends on a macro level are a significant threat to the provision of classroom practices seeking to create an educational environment that motivational theorists would argue is best placed to develop motivational equality optimal motivation and wellbeing Linking major contemporary theories of motivation to wider educational and political debate this unique resource will bring about two major benefits it will vocalise and mobilise the substantial research evidence from motivational theory in order to ensure that it contributes more explicitly to a critique of current neoliberal trends and motivation researchers will be better positioned to move the theory forward in relation to what is happening in the real world of education Areas covered include developing a more critical space in relation to the field of motivational psychology and contemporary educational policy linking motivational theory to education policy and broader social and political structures the neoliberal educational landscape an overview of achievement goal theory and self determination theory Motivation Educational Policy and Achievement is a wake up call for educational practitioners and policy makers and essential reading for all advanced students and researchers in the fields of educational psychology and educational research      Motivational development in current educational contexts Manuel

Castro-Sánchez,Ramón Chacón-Cuberos,Lucia Herrera,Guillermo Felipe López Sánchez,2023-06-06

Motivation in Organisations Manuel Guillen,2020-11-10 Motivation in Organisations Searching for a Meaningful Work Life Balance extends the current motivation models in business education to include motives of human behaviour that have been neglected for decades It debunks some of the myths about human motivation self interest as the dominant factor amorality and non spirituality and explains why this approach to teaching business is erroneous and leads to wrong and harmful practices in many organisations In a very personal and engaging style the author presents a map of motivations based on a humanistic approach to management This includes the latest findings of Abraham H Maslow supported by sound philosophical reflections and modern research He also presents specific ways of putting the framework into practice sharing stories from students and professionals of how this framework has helped them better understand their own motivations and look at their daily work in a much more meaningful way The book is highly relevant to students and researchers in humanistic management people management organisational behaviour business ethics corporate social responsibility and sustainability In short this text will be truly inspiring to anyone who wants to reflect on motivations in organisations and how to achieve a better work life balance      International Insights: Equality in Education Vana Chiou,Oliver Holz,Nesrin

Ford, 1992-10-06 Motivating Humans represents an excellent integration of different motivational constructs The main purpose of Ford s book and his theory motivational systems theory MST is to provide an integrative and coherent model of motivation that synthesizes the various constructs from the different theories into one comprehensive framework It represents an important addition to the knowledge base on motivation and will be generative of much future research Moreover the book presents the framework in a scholarly yet readable fashion that makes the book accessible to professional psychologists as well as graduate and undergraduate students Paul R Pintrich in Contemporary Psychology Why do people do the things they do In Motivating Humans Ford answers this age old question and offers the reader a precise and comprehensive description of the basic substance of human motivation what it is how it works and how it impacts what people do and how well they do it He also shows how classic and contemporary motivation theory in education management and psychology can be integrated into a coherent and unified framework called Motivational Systems Theory from which he derives 17 principles for motivating humans Different from any other motivation book Motivating Humans presents numerous unique features a variety of concrete examples to bridge the gap between abstract theory and the world of practical human affairs an applications chapter that explores such issues as ways to promote social responsibility in youth ways to increase work productivity and job satisfaction and ways to increase learning and school achievement the most up to date coverage of recent studies in motivation and pedagogical devices including summary tables to help the reader digest and remember key information Unique comprehensive and accessibly written Motivating Humans will inspire a wide readership including professors and students in psychology management education developmental psychology and clinical psychology Class Tested What the Students Say The chart on the history of motivational theory organized broadly by MST concepts was extremely helpful in providing the reader with a look at the field in a glance First and foremost the fact that this is a legitimate psychological theory and I can understand it having had very little other exposure to psychology is a very strong aspect of the book Is refers to and explains a variety of psychological theories and principles without losing me Also any theory that seems to unify a large volume of disparate work is always attractive to me especially if it does a good enough job surveying its predecessors as I think the book does Finally I think that the summary of the LSF in chapter two was integral to the largeness or wide view of the book It helped to tie in and explain the whole person approach to motivational theory I really liked how MST emphasized the role of emotions in motivation and human action where other theories had rationalized them Emotions are very powerful and I believe virtually impossible to explain away something that I think psychology does too readily Motivational Systems Theory is the most comprehensive and compelling theory of human motivation which I have seen to date Martin Ford has taken an impoverished and muddled field of psychological inquiry and transformed it into a coherent and useful tool for explaining human behavior Chapter 6 is especially brilliant It gives an overview of all the major and most of the not so major theories and capitalizes on their similarities rather than their differences Most practitioners in schools and business recognize the value of motivating people and do so operating from their gut it is good to know that there is a workable and logical theory to put behind the practice and help refine it Chapter 7 is particularly helpful one could read this chapter and none others and still benefit Finally a book which will help educators turn their students on to learning It should be required reading for all classroom teachers Praise for this volume Motivating Humans by Martin Ford presents one of the most complete and comprehensive theories of human motivation yet to be proposed This is a significant work that is essential reading for all interested both in understanding motivation and in applying motivational principles in the workplace Robert J Sternberg Yale University Motivating Humans is a well thought out and well organized book that focuses on issues of motivation Educators in particular will be interested in this volume It utilizes a combination of logic and existing literature to build its case Martin Ford s work is creative yet analytic Motivating Humans will certainly stimulate some serious class discussion Gerald R Adams College of Family and Consumer Studies University of Guelph Ontario Canada Using a broad systems perspective Ford has skillfully organized a wide and all too often confusing array of advances in motivation theory and research Students researchers and practitioners in education and psychology should find this book most helpful in providing a clear and thought provoking introduction to the field Ruth Kanfer Department of Psychology University of Minnesota Motivating Humans contains a wealth of information from theory to application to help educators increase school learning and achievement Twenty five pages of bibliography alone make this book attest to its thoroughness A chapter of theories of motivation can only be regarded as definitive some 31 theories of motivation are described and arranged in a table format Ford regards facilitation not control as the guiding idea for motivating people an idea that fits nicely with the growing role of teacher as facilitator Wisely he offers no ready formula for facilitating motivation for there are no magic motivational buttons that can be pushed to make people want to learn work hard and act in a responsible manner But Ford does offer a comprehensive glimpse into the mechanism of motivation for those who are trying to find their own paths toward inspiring it It deserves the highest praise and the widest reading for its treatment of such a complex subject in such an accessible and thorough manner Motivating Humans should serve long as the standard source and reference on motivation Educational Leadership      Encyclopedia of Educational Leadership and Administration Fenwick W.
