Dores,2020-01-03 This open access edited volume offers an analysis of the entangled histories of education and development in twentieth century Africa It deals with the plurality of actors that competed and collaborated to formulate educational and developmental paradigms and projects debating their utility and purpose pondering their necessity and risk and evaluating their intended and unintended consequences in colonial and postcolonial moments Since the late nineteenth century the educability of the native was the subject of several debates and experiments numerous voices arguments and agendas emerged involving multiple institutions and experts governmental and non governmental religious and laic operating from the corridors of international organizations to the towns and rural villages of Africa This plurality of expressions of political social cultural and economic imagination of education and development is at the core of this collective work Nordic

Voices ,2009-01-01 This volume represents the work of sixteen authors who all work at different universities and other academic institutions in the Nordic countries It provides insight into the diversity of research being conducted in the northernmost parts of Europe Although it would be incorrect to assert that research in this far away part of Europe represents something drastically different than that done in other parts of the world it would be equally incorrect to maintain that being at the outskirts on the cusp or on the periphery _ whichever way one wishes to describe the position of the Nordic countries in relation to the rest of the world does not influence the ways in which educational processes phenomena and their consequences are viewed These sixteen Nordic Voices discuss with readers different issues regarding teaching and researching Comparative and International Education in the Nordic countries The editors began their collaboration in 2006 working together to revitalize the Nordic Comparative and International Education Society NOCIES was officially re established in May 2008 Halla B Holmarsdottir who is from Iceland lives and works in Norway where she is Associate Professor in Multicultural and International Education at Oslo University College Mina O Dowd whose father is from the USA and mother is Norwegian lives and works in Sweden Nordic Voices Teaching and Researching Comparative and International Education in the Nordic Countries is a result of the collaboration that began over three years ago Political Sociology of

Adult Education Carlos Alberto Torres,2013-09-03 Critical Theorist Carlos Alberto Torres offers a political sociology of adult learning and education based on Critical Social Theory and the always inspiring work of Paulo Freire Empirically grounded and theoretically sophisticated this new book follows the footsteps of his classic book published in the early nineties The Politics of Nonformal Education in Latin America Torres book offers comparative and international sociological analyses of adult learning and education an area in which there is an obsession with practice and an aversion to theory with some notable and laudable exceptions but which has the potential to provide avenues for social justice education in ways that no other systems and policies can This book revitalizes social theory in education and provides ample evidence of the power of adult learning and education examining a variety of policy documents connected with the various adult education congresses promoted by the UNESCO which are thoroughly scrutinized for what they bring to or omit from the policy agenda In the context of new developments in adult learning and education particularly the impact of multiple globalizations neoliberalism and the new role of international organizations in reconceptualizing lifelong learning new evidence based research new narratives and the vibrancy of social movements striving for a new and possible world it is clear that new theoretical designs were needed making this is a must read book Policy-making for Education Reform in Developing Countries James H. Williams, William K. Cummings, 2005-03-31 The first book in a two volume series designed to help those working or preparing to work as education change agents in developing countries this volume will help change agents acquire a deeper more comprehensive understanding of the policy process and how it can be influenced Education and Development Simon McGrath, 2018-05-08 This title explores the place of education in development debates and provides a systematic as well as a theoretical overview of the main approaches to education and development It emphasises the fact that education is profoundly shaped by national and local cultures even if many issues are shared across institutions in different locations Education and Development discusses different theoretical accounts from different disciplinary traditions to help students understand the complexity of the overall debate The text does not shy away from discussions of education's negative impacts and insists that an account of education must include consideration of early childhood development adult vocational and higher education as well as the growing range of informal and distance forms It includes chapters on human capital human rights and human development and on education gender and development and draws on examples from a wide range of countries and regions such as India Hong Kong Kenya and South Africa The book has a well developed pedagogy including text boxes chapter summaries key questions links to websites and videos and annotated further reading sections Particular attention is paid to ensuring that a plurality of voices contexts and educational sub sectors are represented in the boxes weblinks and references Education and Development provides an introductory overview to the field aimed at the undergraduate level while critically engaging with key themes and questions The book will also be of interest to development practitioners policymakers entrepreneurs and corporate employees engaged in aspects of education and development work

Hegemony and Education Under Neoliberalism Peter Mayo, 2015-03-12 Based in a holistic exposition and appraisal of Gramsci's writings that are of relevance to education in neoliberal times this book rather than simply applying Gramsci's theories to issues in education argues that education constitutes the leitmotif of his entire oeuvre and lies at the heart of his conceptualization of the ancient Greek term hegemony that was used by other political theorists before him Starting from this understanding the book goes on to compare Gramsci's theories with those of later thinkers in the development of a critical pedagogy that can confront neoliberalism in all its forms Echoes from Freire for a Critically Engaged

Pedagogy Peter Mayo, 2012-12-20 In this concise and accessible text Peter Mayo outlines some of the major concepts in Freire's praxis In pursuit of a critically engaging pedagogy Mayo compares Freire's work with a range of other thinkers and educators including Lorenzo Milani Antonia Darder John Dewey Margaret Ledwith Antonio Gramsci and Henry Giroux Chapters in the book include discussions of the State's role in education specifically higher education a critical analysis of the dominant discourse in education centering on competences and the type of slant this discourse takes a study of adult education through a Freirean lens an historical view of Nicaragua's Freire inspired literacy and popular education campaigns of 1980 a fresh perspective on the role of social movements in the contexts of social transformation a new analysis of the relevance of Freirean concepts for transformative research and an exploration of educators as intellectuals and social actors The result is a compelling study of how Paulo Freire's writings continue to resonate around the world and of how we must continue to apply and interpret them anew Sociology of Education: Theories and methods Stephen J. Ball, 2000

Learning from Comparing: new directions in comparative education research Robin Alexander, Patricia Broadfoot, David Phillips, 1999-01-01 Learning from Comparing is a major two volume study which reassesses the contribution of comparative educational research and theory to our understanding of contemporary educational problems and to our capacity to solve them At a time when educational research is under attack on the grounds of bias and irrelevance and under pressure to address only those questions which are acceptable politically as good a definition of bias as any this is a serious attempt to bridge the worlds of research policy and practice The editors have put together a collection in terms of both perspective and nationality which ensures contrasting viewpoints on each topic Leaders in the Sociology of Education Alan R. Sadovnik, Ryan W. Coughlan, 2016-10-26 Leaders in the Sociology of Education Intellectual Self Portraits contains eighteen self portraits written by some of the leading sociologists of education in the world Representing the United States the United Kingdom and Hong Kong the authors discuss a variety of factors that have affected their lifetime of scholarship including their childhoods their education and mentors the state of the field during their coming of age the institutions where they have worked the major sociologists during their lifetimes the political and economic conditions during their lifetimes and the social and political movements during their lifetimes These autobiographical essays reveal a great deal not only about their work and their influences but also about themselves Taken as a whole the book provides sociology of knowledge about the creation of sociology of education research since the 1960s It reveals a number of important themes central to all of the authors work including educational inequality the influence of the classical sociological theorists Karl Marx Max Weber and Emile Durkheim and the influence of more recent classical sociologists of education Basil Bernstein Pierre Bourdieu and James Coleman The authors research represents a variety of theoretical and methodological orientations including functionalism conflict and critical theory interactionist theory and feminist theory as well as quantitative qualitative and mixed methods research Finally the editors discuss a number of lessons to be learned from the lives and works of these sociologists of education Globalization of an Educational Idea Ingrid Miethe, Tim Kaiser, Tobias Kriele, Alexandra

Piepiorka,2019-07-22 In this book authors showcase the worldwide spread of Workers Faculties as an example of both cooperation between socialist countries in education and globalization processes in the field of education Based on extensive research carried out in Cuban German Mozambican and Vietnamese archives as well as expert interviews it combines detailed case studies of educational transfers and policy implementation with a discussion of theoretical approaches to the study of globalization in and of education Research on Workers Faculties provides an especially interesting example for the study of educational transfer between socialist countries as well as for the interplay of such transfers with processes of globalisation for two reasons On one hand the first Workers Faculties were established already shortly after the October Revolution in Russia and Workers Faculties continue to exist in Cuba until today A study of these institutions therefore provides a dynamic perspective covering the whole period of the existence of the socialist camp On the other hand the spread of the Workers Faculty idea to four continents allows for an analysis that takes into account widely differing local contexts This book offers an analysis of general trends and particularities in the history of the global spread of the Workers Faculty idea and its implementation in local contexts Finally it discusses the results with a view towards theories of globalization in the field of education as well as of specificities of processes of socialist globalization Who's Afraid of Children? Helen Brocklehurst,2006 Brocklehurst's impressive work breaks new ground in normative international political theory The author develops a new theoretical framework which exposes how children are present in international relations and security practices Education, Modern Development, and Indigenous Knowledge Seana McGovern,2013-06-17 This book reconceptualizes the field of international and comparative education by utilizing indigenous knowledge as a central component for altering the dominant eurocentric social science research paradigm Examples from indigenous sources of knowledge are juxtaposed to the dominant discourses on education and modern development in subaltern societies in order to provide scholars with alternative ways of viewing education and development and to shape how subaltern peoples are understood and represented in academic research Bibliography Index Education and Development in Central America and the Latin Caribbean D. Brent Edwards Jr.,Mauro C. Moschetti,Pauline Martin,Ricardo Morales-Ulloa,2025-03-18 Rooted in an international political economy theoretical framework this book provides unique insights into the global forces and local responses that are shaping education systems in Central America and the Latin Caribbean CALC The book covers all Spanish speaking countries of the CALC region and examines the effects of macro economic pressures geopolitical intervention neo colonial relationships global pandemics transnational gang networks and the influence of international organizations Chapters analyse the challenges and opportunities these global forces present to education systems in the region as well as highlighting the local efforts to address mitigate and counteract them In doing so the book illuminates how education can contribute to either maintaining or challenging inequalities and exclusion in the face of pressures from the global to local levels
