Educational Interpreting For Deaf Studen:

Best Practices in Educational Interpreting Brenda Chafin Seal,1998 Over 22 000 deaf and hard of hearing students are currently enrolled in local school programs where their access to the language of learning is dependent on an interpreter As a discipline educational interpreting has developed quickly without precedent The need for a practical guide to the many issues and practices required to provide optimum access is finally met with this book This book is a comprehensive overview of the process of interpreting in educational settings Readers will understand the changing needs of the hearing impaired person as s he moves from primary school through college It is applicable to interpreters who use sign language cued speech and oral interpreting An excellent resource for anyone working with deaf and hearing impaired students including interpreters regular teachers parents speech language pathologists and deaf educators A Longwood Professional Book

Educational Interpreting Elizabeth A. Winston,2004 This incisive book explores the current state of educational interpreting and how it is failing deaf students The contributors all renowned experts in their field include former educational interpreters teachers of deaf students interpreter trainers and deaf recipients of interpreted educations Educational Interpreting presents the salient issues in three distinct sections Part 1 focuses on deaf students their perspectives on having interpreters in the classroom the language myths that surround them the accessibility of language to them and their cognition Part 2 raises questions about the support and training that interpreters receive from the school systems the qualifications that many interpreters bring to an interpreted education and the accessibility of everyday classrooms for deaf students placed in such environments Part 3 presents a few of the possible suggestions for addressing the concerns of interpreted educations and focuses primarily on the interpreter The contributors discuss the need to 1 define the core knowledge and skills interpreters must have and 2 develop standards of practice and assessment They also stress that interpreters cannot effect the necessary changes alone unless and until administrators parents teachers and students recognize the inherent issues of access to education through mediation little will change for deaf students Sign
