Educational Rights Of Children With Disabilities A Primer For Advocates:

Educational Rights of Children with Disabilities Eileen L. Ordovery, Kathleen B. Boundy, 1991 Intended for child advocates this book analyzes children's educational rights under two federal statutes the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act IDEA and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 The nine chapters address the following topics 1 the statutory framework of the two laws including eligibility age ranges operation and reach 2 content quality and the meaning of free appropriate public education e.g. meanings of special education related services and least restrictive environment 3 special issues regarding related services e.g. the medical exclusion in school assistance with health related needs and children with substance abuse problems or psychiatric disorders 4 educational evaluations rights procedures and safeguards 5 individualized education programs placement decisions and parent participation 6 procedural safeguards and dispute resolution e.g. surrogate parents administrative complaints due process civil action 7 discrimination against children who have AIDS acquired immune deficiency syndrome are positive for HIV human immunodeficiency virus or are carriers of hepatitis B 8 discipline of students with disabilities statutory entitlements and unresolved issues and 9 early intervention services for infants and toddlers Appended are a guide to legal notations and references and a listing of regional offices of the U.S. Department of Education Office for Civil Rights DB Education Rights of Children with Disabilities Eileen L.

Ordovery, 2001-01-01 Children with Special Needs, 1999 Over the years many Navy families have used the 1987 edition of Children with Special Needs A Navy Parent Handbook Parents have referred to it as the peach book because of the color of its cover This new Handbook has been written to update the peach book with changes in the laws and regulations governing special education and with new program and opportunities for Navy families It is written with the hope that you will find help for your very special family navigating through both the Navy world and the civilian world Whether your Navy family is one that moves from base to base or is one that is homesteaded and stays for a long time in a given place you will find that the more you work to develop a good support system the better life will be for yourself and your child The Navy Family Service Center and the Exceptional Family Member Program in most places offer classes and groups in which you can often find other families facing some of the same challenges you are working on In addition when you work as a partner with the people who are providing services to you and your child you will add to your support group Clearinghouse Review, 2002
