Good Bye To Old Peking The Wartime Letters Of Us Marine Captain John Seymour:

Good-bye to Old Peking John Seymour Letcher, Roger B. Jeans, 1998 But Captain Letcher also witnessed the trauma of the outbreak of the Sino Japanese War He saw Chinese troops who had been slaughtered by Japanese invaders and the imperial city occupied And he relates the stirring story of the Chinese guerrillas rebounding from devastating defeat to a position of control over much of the countryside in North China

The Letters and Diaries of Colonel John Hart Caughey, 1944-1945 Roger B. Jeans, 2018-06-18 Colonel John Hart Caughey a US Army war plans officer stationed in the Chinese Nationalist capital of Chungking was an eyewitness to the battle for China in the final months of the war 1944 45 and beyond when he rose to become head of the Theater Planning Section In frequent letters to his wife as well as in several diaries he chronicled the US military's role in wartime China especially his life as an American planner when he was subject to military censorship Previous accounts of the China Theater have largely neglected the role of the War Department planners stationed in Chungking many of whom were Caughey's colleagues and friends He also penned colorful descriptions of life in wartime China which vividly remind the reader how far China has come in a mere seventy odd years In addition his letters and diaries deepen our understanding of several of the American leaders in this Asian war including China Theater commander Albert C Wedemeyer Fourteenth Air Force chief Claire L Chennault former commander of the Flying Tigers US ambassador to wartime China Patrick J Hurley famed Time Life reporter Theodore White OSS director William Wild Bill Donovan Louis Mountbatten Supreme Commander of the Southeast Asia Command and Jonathan Wainwright who was in command when the American forces in the Philippines surrendered in 1942 and who stayed for a few days at Caughey's Chungking residence on his way home after several years as a Japanese POW in Manchuria In his writings Caughey also revealed a more appealing side of Wedemeyer whose extreme political opinions in the postwar era probably cost him the post of US Army chief of staff By making Caughey a member of his planning staff Wedemeyer made possible an extraordinary experience for the young colonel during the war Caughey also rubbed shoulders with Nationalist leader Chiang Kai shek and traveled to the battlefields in Southeast China with the commander in chief of the Nationalist Army He Yingqin along with a number of other Chinese and American soldiers Following the Japanese surrender Caughey chronicled the resumption of the power struggle between the Chinese Nationalists and the Chinese Communists largely postponed during the conflict Shortly after the war he had a brief encounter with the number two Communist leader Zhou Enlai whom he was to get to know much better during the Marshall Mission to China

The Last Days of Old Beijing Michael Meyer, 2010-07-23 Journalist Michael Meyer has spent his adult life in China first in a small village as a Peace Corps volunteer the last decade in Beijing where he has witnessed the extraordinary transformation the country has experienced in that time For the past two years he has been completely immersed in the ancient city living on one of its famed hutong in a century old courtyard home he shares with several families teaching English at a local elementary school while all around him progress closes in as the neighborhood is methodically destroyed to make way for high rise buildings shopping malls and other symbols of modern urban life The city he shows has been demolished many times before however he writes the epitaph for Beijing will read born 1280 died 2008 what emperors warlords Japanese invaders and Communist planners couldn't eradicate the market economy can The Last Days of Old Beijing tells the story of this historic city from the inside out through the eyes of those whose lives are in the balance the Widow who takes care of Meyer his students and fellow teachers the first ever description of what goes on in a Chinese public school the local historian who rallies against the government The tension of preservation vs modernization the question of what in an ancient civilization counts as heritage and what happens when a billion people want to live the way Americans do suffuse Meyer's story

Historical Dictionary of World War II Anne Sharp Wells, 2023-12-15 World War II was the largest and most costly conflict in history the first true global war Fought on land on sea and in the air it involved numerous countries and killed maimed or displaced millions of people both civilian and military around the world In spite of the alliances that bound many of the same participants the war was essentially two separate but simultaneous conflicts one involved Japan as the major antagonist and took place mostly in Asia and the Pacific and the other initiated by Germany and Italy was contested mainly in Europe North Africa the Mediterranean and the Atlantic This book focuses on the lesser known war the war with Japan It begins with Japan's seizure of Manchuria from China in 1931 and covers Japan's ambitious attacks on Pearl Harbor and other territories ten years later the use of atomic bombs on Japan's cities and the end of the Allied occupation of Japan in 1952 Although Japan renounced war in its 1947 constitution conflict continued across Asia as former colonies fought for independence and civil war engulfed other areas Historical Dictionary of World War II The War Against Japan Second Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 500 cross referenced entries on the military diplomatic political social economic and scientific aspects of the war in addition to the lives of the people who participated in and directed the war This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the war against Japan during World War II

Runaway Wives, Urban Crimes, and Survival Tactics in Wartime Beijing, 1937-1949 Ma Zhao, 2020-05-11 From 1937 to 1949 Beijing was in a state of crisis The combined forces of Japanese occupation civil war runaway inflation and reformist campaigns and revolutionary efforts wreaked havoc on the city's economy upset the political order and threatened the social and moral fabric as well Women especially lower class women living in Beijing's tenement neighborhoods were among those most affected by these upheavals Delving into testimonies from criminal case files Zhao Ma explores intimate accounts of lower class women's struggles with poverty deprivation and marital strife By uncovering the set of everyday tactics that women devised and utilized in their personal efforts to cope with predatory policies and crushing poverty this book reveals an urban underworld that was built on an informal economy and conducted primarily through neighborhood networks Where necessary women relied on customary practices hierarchical patterns of household authority illegitimate relationships and criminal entrepreneurship to get by Women s survival tactics embedded in and reproduced by their everyday experience opened possibilities for them to modify the male dominated city and more importantly allowed women to subtly deflect subvert and escape without leaving powerful forces such as the surveillance state reformist discourse and revolutionary politics during and beyond wartime Beijing

Fortitudine ,2001 Old Breed General Amy Rupertus Peacock,Don Brown,2022-02-01 Marine general William H Rupertus is best known today for writing the Corps Rifleman s Creed which begins This is my rifle There are many like it but this one is mine which has been made famous by films such as Full Metal Jacket and Jarhead Rupertus was one of the outstanding Marines of the twentieth century standing alongside men such as Smedley Butler Chesty Puller and Arthur Vandegrift but he died in 1945 so his story has never been told Rupertus made his bones in the USMC s savage wars of peace before World War II Haiti for three years after World War I China in 1929 where he lost his wife and children to the scarlet fever epidemic and again in 1937 where he witnessed the beginning of Japan s war against China that turned into the Pacific War of World War II In World War II Rupertus commanded during four important battles Tulagi and Henderson Field during the Guadalcanal campaign the Battle of Cape Gloucester and Peleliu It was a series of blistering battles and ultimately victories that helped break the back of the Japanese and pave the way for American victory In the course of these battles Rupertus became the Patton of the Pacific ruthless in war always on the attack merciless against the enemy undefeated in battles even as he proved himself very much like Eisenhower suavely diplomatic and able to balance war with politics These skills allowed Rupertus to crush the enemy in the malaria infested jungles of the Pacific and personally escort Eleanor Roosevelt on her tour of the Pacific Old Breed General is the biography of Rupertus and the story of the Marines at war in the Pacific This is an American story of love loss shock horror tragedy and triumph that focuses on Rupertus and the 1st Marine Division in World War II but which resonates through the 1st to Chosin in Korea and James Mattis s command in Iraq

Armed Diplomacy: Two Centuries of American Campaigning , Treading Softly George B. Clark,2001-04-30 From the mid 19th century to the early Cold War the United States has a long history with China and that interaction has not always been positive or productive This brief history of foreign intervention in China viewed through the experiences of the United States Marines examines how the occupying powers dealt with a fellow sovereign nation In many cases this involved the partition or outright absorption of Chinese territory through naked aggression Clark contends that considering the past two centuries the Chinese have good reason to distrust all foreigners and he urges the pursuit of a badly needed rapprochement This is however also the story of the evolution of the Marine Corps as a separate service Although an occupying force the Marines did make considerable efforts to earn the friendship of the Chinese people Always on the brink of extinction due to budgetary cuts and the enmity of the army and navy the Marines managed to perform an onerous and difficult duty in a foreign land With a resurgent China constantly testing the United States a fellow Pacific Rim nation every policymaker should be well aware of the often difficult history that we share and the mistakes that have been made in the past The Tormented Alliance Zach Fredman,2022-08-01 After Japan s attack on Pearl Harbor leaders in China and the United States had high hopes of a lasting partnership between the two countries More than 120 000 U S servicemen deployed to China where Chiang Kai shek s government carried out massive programs to provide them with housing food and interpreters But as Zach Fredman uncovers in The Tormented Alliance a military alliance with the United States means a military occupation by the United States The first book to draw on archives from all of the areas in China where U S forces deployed during the 1940s it examines the formation evolution and undoing of the alliance between the United States and the Republic of China during World War II and the Chinese Civil War Fredman reveals how each side brought to the alliance expectations that the other side was simply unable to meet resulting in a tormented relationship across all levels of Sino American engagement Entangled in larger struggles over race gender and nation the U S military in China transformed itself into a widely loathed occupation force an aggressive resentful emasculating source of physical danger and compromised sovereignty After Japan s surrender and the spring 1946 withdrawal of Soviet forces from Manchuria the U S occupation became the chief obstacle to consigning foreign imperialism in China irrevocably to the past Chinese leader Chiang Kai shek lost his country in 1949 and the U S military presence contributed to his defeat The occupation of China also cast a long shadow establishing patterns that have followed the U S military elsewhere in Asia up to the present The Journal of Military History ,2005 Term Paper Resource Guide to Twentieth-Century World History Michael Richards,Philip F. Riley,2000-08-30 Organizes significant twentieth century political social economic and social events covered by world history curricula into chronological order and suggests six term paper ideas for each event

America Perceived Hong Zhang,2002-05-30 While American images of China have been characterized by a fluctuating love hate relationship many educated urban Chinese youths also retained ambivalent feelings toward the United States in the early decades of the 20th century The years between the end of the Second World War and the outbreak of the Korean War represented a significant period in Sino American relations This study places the shifting perceptions of the United States among an important political group young volatile and politically active urban Chinese into historical perspective through the examination of the origin development and eruption of their anti American sentiment These feelings would prove to be a liability to the Chinese Nationalist cause and would ultimately assist in easing the way of the Communists into urban China In the immediate post World War II period American influence and presence in China reached an unprecedented peak However American political military and economic activities largely failed to generate Chinese good will instead such actions produced political antipathy toward the United States The sojourn of American GIs in urban China for example would serve as a critical factor in arousing nationalist fervor The Chinese Communist Party would capitalize on this groundswell and push it to the foreground during open hostilities with the United States after the outbreak of the Korean War China Review International ,1999 Documentary Editing ,1999 China in the Anti-Japanese War, 1937-1945 David P.

Barrett, Lawrence N. Shyu, 2001 This book is a collection of eleven articles written by scholars of international repute that specializes in the history of China during her long war against Japan from 1937 to 1945 The topics addressed include political economic social and diplomatic issues related to wartime China based on materials newly opened for research They give strong evidence that the Sino Japanese War was of a complexity and magnitude that must be understood in terms that go far beyond those solely of its military dimensions
