Contemporary Issues in

International Law B.C. Nirmal,Rajnish Kumar Singh,2018-02-13 This book explores the changing nature of international law and its ability to respond to the contemporary issues related to international environment trade and information technology The evolution of international law has reached a stage where we are witnessing diminishing power of the state and its capacity to deal with the economic matters challenging the existing notions of territory and sovereignty Recent trends in international law and international relations show that states no longer have exclusive control over the decision making process at the global level Keeping this in mind the book brings together the perspectives of various international and national scholars The book considers diverse issues such as sustainable development climate change global warming Rio 20 technology transfer agro biodiversity and genetic resource authority for protection of environment human right to water globalization human rights sui generis options in IP laws impact of liberalization on higher education regulation of international trade intellectual property rights collective administration of copyright broadcast reproduction rights implementation of copyright law communication rights under copyright law arbitration for IP disputes doctrine of exhaustion of rights trans border reputation of trademark information as an asset cyber obscenity and pornography e governance taxation of e commerce computer crime information technology domain names research excellence in legal education ideological perspective on legal education challenges for law teachers and clinical legal education The topics though diverse are closely interrelated with the common concern throughout being that the global environment international trade information technology and legal education need appropriate national normative and institutional responses as well as the global cooperation of members of the international community Presenting reflections of a number of Asian African and European scholars on these varied facets the book is of great value to scholars practitioners teachers and students associated with contemporary international law     Domestic Violence, Family Law and School M. Eriksson,L. Bruno,E.

Näsman,2013-09-24 Domestic Violence Family Law and School discusses the ways in which family law disputes in cases of domestic violence can impact on children s lives at pre school and school In drawing on new research the book establishes a new framework for understanding how welfare systems tackle domestic violence     Environmental Law Dimensions of Human Rights Ben Boer,2015-03-12 How can we guarantee a right to life or a right to health without also guaranteeing a decent environment in which to exercise these rights It is becoming increasingly obvious that a high quality environment is key to the fundamental human rights of life and health and associated rights such as the right to clean water adequate housing and food This book canvasses a range of law and policy issues concerning human rights and the environment Each chapter examines an aspect of the links between environmental law and human rights in substantive and or procedural terms loosely falling into four themes human rights and the environment in the context of the private sector analysis of decisions of the European and Inter American courts in respect of substantive and procedural aspects human rights and the environment in the Asian region including the issue of human displacement and the future direction of human rights and environment law

Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug Administration, and Related Agencies Appropriations for 2017 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug Administration, and Related Agencies,2016      Law and Corporate Behaviour Christopher Hodges,2015-10-22 This book examines the theories and practice of how to control corporate behaviour through legal techniques The principal theories examined are deterrence economic rational acting responsive regulation and the findings of behavioural psychology Leading examples of the various approaches are given in order to illustrate the models private enforcement of law through litigation in the USA public enforcement of competition law by the European Commission and the recent reform of policies on public enforcement of regulatory law in the United Kingdom Noting that behavioural psychology has as yet had only limited application in legal and regulatory theory the book then analyses various European regulatory structures where behavioural techniques can be seen or could be applied Sectors examined include financial services civil aviation pharmaceuticals and workplace health safety Key findings are that enforcement has to focus on identifying the causes of non compliance so as to be able to support improved performance rather than be based on fear motivating complete compliance Systems in which reporting is essential for safety only function with a no blame culture The book concludes by proposing an holistic model for maximising compliance within large organisations combining public regulatory and criminal controls with internal corporate systems and external influences by stakeholders held together by a unified core of ethical principles Hence the book proposes a new theory of ethical regulation This title is included in Bloomsbury Professional s International Arbitration online service      Contemporary Issues and the 21st Century Child Andre Kurowski,Sandra Lyndon,2024-10-09 This book is essential reading for any Early Years or Early Childhood Studies student Bringing you up to date with latest developments and key issues this book helps you to understand the child in relation to society The book is divided into three parts which focus on the influence on childhood children s experiences and children s mind with topics including The Digital Child Childhood and Crime The refugee crisis Working therapeutically with Children Taking a fresh approach this book introduces the reader to interdisciplinary approaches to child development and extends thinking outside the traditional topics      Resettlement in Asian Countries Mohammad Zaman,Reshmy Nair,Shi Guoqing,2021-12-15 This book examines land acquisition and resettlement experience in Asian countries where nearly two thirds of the world s development induced displacement currently takes place Faced with the complexity of balancing legal frameworks and resettlement needs along with increasing demands for safeguarding displaced peoples in recent years many countries within Asia have adopted integrated land and resettlement laws This book presents a comparative review and assessment of the impact of the new land and resettlement laws and regulatory frameworks for expropriation compensation and resettlement Written by an international interdisciplinary team of experts from both practice and academia the book demonstrates the ongoing challenges and struggles associated with social and resettlement risk assessments the social and cultural exclusion of indigenous vulnerable groups in some countries and the lack of institutional capacity to adequately deal with resettlement management and administration The case studies and comparative analyses of laws and practices relating to expropriation compensation and resettlement make significant contributions to advancing resettlement knowledge and management practices The book will be useful as a reference for development practitioners and for researchers across the fields of global development political science Asian studies planning and law The book also has potential use as a resource for resettlement management training programs and graduate level courses seminars in development studies

The Role of International Environmental Law in Disaster Risk Reduction Jacqueline Peel, David Fisher, 2016-09-23 In The Role of International Environmental Law in Disaster Risk Reduction edited by Jacqueline Peel and David Fisher expert authors from four continents offer perspectives on the growing intersection between environmental law and disaster risk management Chapters discuss the potential for retasking environmental law tools and principles for purposes of mitigating the harms of potential disasters including those exacerbated by climate change and approaches for linking institutions and approaches across the environmental climate adaptation and disaster risk management fields internationally This book illustrates the blurring distinction between natural and manmade disasters and the consequences for legal norms and practice in the formerly distinct areas of international environmental law and international disaster law

Particles and Health 2021: an International Conference Addressing Issues in Science and Regulation Robert McCunney, Nils Krueger, Len Levy, Kevin Driscoll, Paul Borm, 2023-01-30 Particles and Health is an international conference taking place in October 2021 addressing issues in science and regulation Regulatory initiatives in the European Union EU have suggested uniform hazard classifications for all poorly soluble low toxicity particles PSLTs Examples of PSLTs include carbon black titanium dioxide and iron oxide among others Approaches have also been proposed for setting workplace exposure limits for PSLTs such as those of the German MAK Commission The conference will include specific sections over a two day period of about 25 presentations associated with PSLTs regarding the following major topics 1 human studies 2 animal inhalation studies associated with lung cancer 3 animal and human studies associated with non pulmonary impacts including reproductive genetic and cardiac effects and 4 regulatory application of scientific studies This conference will include presentations regarding Definition of PSLT s with attention to both similarities and differences among these substances Address scientific studies regarding human health effects of PSLTs The value of human studies over animal studies when human exposed populations can be studied adequately will be emphasized Address translational toxicology challenges including the appropriateness of rats as models for human lung pathogenesis particularly lung cancer in light of lung overload phenomena and species differences Serve as a platform to present current scientific information about PSLTs important for regulatory action Publication of pertinent conference presentations in the peer reviewed scientific literature will allow the presentations to live beyond the conference and subsequently be reviewed part of regulatory deliberations Establish an interdisciplinary setting for industry academia and regulatory professionals to interact on an important topic Such interaction can facilitate enhanced understanding of the science and ideally more appropriate regulations appropriate classification and labeling as well as for setting exposure limits among others Recommend areas for further clarifying research regarding the significance of the rat as a model for translation toxicology The goal of this conference is to present current scientific evidence regarding the numerous dimensions of particles and health and to facilitate interaction and discussions among attendees with expertise in toxicology epidemiology occupational and pulmonary medicine and exposure assessment Interactions between these disciplines will aid in the sound and evidence based scientific underpinning of regulatory considerations regarding PSLTs Although regulatory concern regarding PSLTs has focused on lung cancer risk as a result of rat inhalation overload studies this conference will address all relevant health end points including genetic and reproductive issues as well consistent with ECHA guidelines Sample of Topics related to substances that may be characterized as PSLTs including carbon black coal titanium dioxide cerium oxide aluminum oxide barium sulfate and iron oxide among others Defining PSLTs Epidemiological studies of PSLTs Inhalation studies evaluating human cellular response to particles Basic research studies on inflammatory to malignancy pathways Animal studies PLSTs and human risk New Insights into old data New studies on PSLTs 2 year carcinogenicity assays Animal studies and gender specific responses to PSLTs How does the USA National Cancer Institute NCI and National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences NIEHS address this challenge of extrapolating rodent data to human risk assessment Role of the rodent model in human risk assessment of PSLTs and lung cancer risk Adverse Outcome Pathways AOPs and Modes of Action MOA identification and recommendations for closing gaps in knowledge for rodents and humans Are there lessons to be learned from how the pharmaceutical industry s approach to translational science safety and efficacy as evolved in recent years Setting exposure limits for PSLTs and Translational Toxicology Genotoxicity and Reproductive toxicity studies of PSLTs Advocacy Networks and the Responsibility to Protect Sarka Kolmasova, 2023-02-03 This book contributes to existing debates on the Responsibility to Protect R2P by demonstrating new advocacy strategies and the greater interconnectedness of various R2P proponents In 2021 the UN General Assembly adopted a new resolution on R2P which reaffirmed its commitment from the 2005 World Summit Outcome and put R2P on the annual agenda For many R2P proponents this was another manifestation of worldwide R2P relevance and of growing support among UN members to protect people from genocide war crimes ethnic cleansing and crimes against humanity Yet the existing crises in Myanmar Venezuela Belarus Syria and many others revealed the widening gap between the discourse and practice This book aims to find out what keeps the concept alive despite its indisputable pitfalls In contrast to existing studies that treat the R2P endorsement or contestation as intertwined processes of norm evolution it argues that the status of R2P has been accomplished by the conscious politics of its advocates operating in complex global networks As such the book puts emphasis on the agency of R2P champions and examines who keeps the idea resonating and how they manage to preserve its worldwide relevance Rather than proposing a new model of advocacy the book aims to pinpoint the politics of R2P s circulation the importance of individual R2P champions and their interconnectedness through innovative forms of cooperation within complex networks This book will be of much interest to students of the R2P diplomacy human rights foreign policy and International Relations
