When your body brushed against me
When your body brushed against me
I remembered
How we used to catch butterflies in our hands
Down in the garden
We were such patient children
Following them from flower to flower
Waiting and hoping
With our cupped hands we used to catch them
And they answered us with a soft tickle
For they never stopped flying
In bed I remembered them and cried for
The touch of their fast wings the impatience
Of their bright colors
I am too old for such games
But even tonight now your body has reminded me of butterflies
I lie here awake pretending
