Plant Here The Standard Dennis Griffiths, 2016-07-27 Plant Here the Standard tells the story of the world's oldest evening newspaper the London Evening Standard Commencing in the time of Oliver Cromwell it traces the history of the Baldwin Family fearless Protestant publishers whose successors launched The Standard in 1827 Later owners of the paper were to include C Arthur Pearson founder of the Daily Express Lord Beaverbrook and now Lord Rothermere And throughout there are tales of the paper's scoops its famous journalists and cartoonists and its political involvements

Journalism Workbook Brendan Hennessy, F W Hodgson, 1995-05-04 Using practical assignments the authors take each area of journalism and demonstrate the world which awaits journalists in the early years of their careers Each of the assignments spins off a number of tasks which are presented to the reader in the form of briefings and can be used as a basis for further study Notes and references are provided with each of the tasks to guide the student and help them understand fully each area of practice There are also exercises on page planning and design Workshop projects and study programmes outline ways in which students and trainees in groups or singly can analyse newspaper content build up readership profiles and consider different methods of practice social and political attitudes to the media press regulations and press economics This book will also be an invaluable purchase for students using distance learning packs

Out of Print George Brock, 2013-09-03 News and journalism are in the midst of upheaval shifts such as declining print subscriptions and rising website visitor numbers are forcing assumptions and practices to be rethought from first principles The internet is not simply allowing faster wider distribution of material digital technology is demanding transformative change Out of Print analyzes the role and influence of newspapers in the digital age and explains how current theory and practice have to change to fully exploit developing opportunities In Out of Print George Brock guides readers through the history present state and future of journalism highlighting how and why journalism needs to be rethought on a global scale and remade to meet the demands and opportunities of new conditions He provides a unique examination of every key issue from the phone hacking scandal and Leveson Inquiry to the impact of social media on news and expectations He presents an incisive authoritative analysis of the role and influence of journalism in the digital age Online supporting resources for this book include downloadable lecture slides The Contemporary History Handbook Brian Brivati, Julia Buxton, Anthony Seldon, 1996 This guide should be useful to those studying and researching modern history International and up to date it covers sources and controversies in the subject area and includes a section of useful addresses The volume is divided into three main sections which together comprise a reference work for contemporary historians London: A Traveller's Reader Peter Ackroyd, Thomas Wright, 2018-05-24 Loved and hated in equal measure London was for centuries the world's greatest city Its streets teeming with history have always worn a variety of influences reflecting the diverse crowds who have walked them Its citizens have witnessed everything from pilgrimages celebrations acts of heroism and moments of religious contemplation to riots executions grisly murders and disastrous plagues and fires Drawing on letters diaries and memoirs of London's most interesting inhabitants and visitors this anthology compiled by acclaimed historian Thomas Wright and with an introduction by Peter Ackroyd tells the story of the city from its earliest years Here you will find John Evelyn's famous account of the Great Fire in 1666 Dickens's brilliant evocation of the Gordon Riots of 1780 an eyewitness description of the execution of Charles I and Churchill's recollections of the Blitz There are also less familiar though no less vivid excerpts which provide an entertaining sometimes risqué glimpse into the life customs and morals of this great city Abounding in the Work of the Lord. A farewell sermon, etc George BUTLER (Canon of Winchester.), 1858 A Pastor's Farewell. Twelve sermons, etc Samuel GARRATT, 1867 A Farewell to the Fairways Dermot Gilleece, 2025-08-16 A lifetime in sports journalism began for Dermot Gilleece as a 19 year old in 1960 That was when he reported for the Evening Press on a Monday morning play off for the Hospital Sweeps Tournament at Woodbrook won by Christy O Connor Snr A Farewell to the Fairways is essentially a reflection on 63 years of golf reporting for Ireland's national newspapers Gilleece's appointment as golf correspondent for the Irish Times in March 1981 coincided with a dramatic expansion in coverage of sport overseas especially golf It meant a trip to Cypress Point in California in August 1981 and later coverage of the Masters US Open and US PGA Championship where he met and interviewed the game's top players including Jack Nicklaus Arnold Palmer and Tiger Woods Meanwhile there was the opportunity to write about leading Irish exponents of the game like O Connor Senior and Junior Rory McIlroy Pádraig Harrington Darren Clarke Graeme McDowell Shane Lowry Leona Maguire and Paul McGinley along with our leading men and women amateurs during the latter part of the twentieth century There were Dunhill Cup and Ryder Cup team triumphs and many individual achievements which transformed the shape of the Irish game It was also a time of profound change in basic club activities From the mid 1980s equality for women golfers developed into a national issue in which Gilleece became deeply involved notably by promoting the so called three tier constitution This became a key element of change which led ultimately to the formation of Golf Ireland in 2020 A Farewell to the Fairways will appeal to everyone with an interest in sports writing and the development of golf in Ireland over the past 60 years A Farewell sermon [on Philippi.
