Ross MacDonald Tom Nolan, 2015-07-07 When he died in 1983 Ross Macdonald was the best known and most highly regarded crime fiction writer in America Long considered the rightful successor to the mantles of Dashiell Hammett and Raymond Chandler Ross Macdonald and his Lew Archer novels were hailed by The New York Times as the finest series of detective novels ever written by an American Now in the first full length biography of this extraordinary and influential writer a much fuller picture emerges of a man to whom hiding things came as second nature While it was no secret that Ross Macdonald was the pseudonym of Kenneth Millar a Santa Barbara man married to another good mystery writer Margaret Millar his official biography was sparse Drawing on unrestricted access to the Kenneth and Margaret Millar Archives on more than forty years of correspondence and on hundreds of interviews with those who knew Millar well author Tom Nolan has done a masterful job of filling in the blanks between the psychologically complex novels and the author's life both secret and overt Ross Macdonald came to crime writing honestly Born in northern California to Canadian parents Kenneth Millar grew up in Ontario virtually fatherless poor and with a mother whose mental stability was very much in question From the age of twelve young Millar was fighting stealing and breaking social and moral laws by his own admission he barely escaped being a criminal Years later Millar would come to see himself in his tales wrongdoers I don't have to be violent he said My books are How this troubled young man came to be one of the most brilliant graduate students in the history of the University of Michigan and how this writer who excelled in a genre all too often looked down upon by literary critics came to have a lifelong friendship with Eudora Welty are all examined in the pages of Tom Nolan's meticulous biography We come to a sympathetic understanding of the Millars long and sometimes rancorous marriage and of their life in Santa Barbara California with their only daughter Linda whose legal and emotional traumas lie at the very heart of the story But we also follow the trajectory of a literary career that began in the pages of Manhunt and ended with the great respect of such fellow writers as Marshall McLuhan Hugh Kenner Nelson Algren and Reynolds Price and the longtime distinguished publisher Alfred A Knopf As Ross Macdonald A Biography makes abundantly clear Ross Macdonald's greatest character above and beyond his famous Lew Archer was none other than his creator Kenneth Millar The Cambridge Companion to Crime Fiction Martin Priestman, 2003-11-06 The Cambridge Companion to Crime Fiction covers British and American crime fiction from the eighteenth century to the end of the twentieth As well as discussing the detective fiction of writers like Arthur Conan Doyle Agatha Christie and Raymond Chandler it considers other kinds of fiction where crime plays a substantial part such as the thriller and spy fiction It also includes chapters on the treatment of crime in eighteenth century literature French and Victorian fiction women and black detectives crime on film and TV police fiction and postmodernist uses of the detective form The collection by an international team of established specialists offers students invaluable reference material including a chronology and guides to further reading The volume aims to ensure that its readers will be grounded in the history of crime fiction and its critical reception The Essential Mystery Lists Roger M Sobin, 2011-09-30 For the first time in one place Roger M Sobin has compiled a list of nominees and award winners of virtually every mystery award ever presented He has also included many of the best of lists by more than fifty of the most important contributors to the genre Mr Sobin spent more than two decades gathering the data and lists in this volume much of that time he used to recheck the accuracy of the material he had collected Several of the best of lists appear here for the first time in book form Several others have been unavailable for a number of years Of special note are Anthony Boucher's Best Picks for the Year Boucher one of the major mystery reviewers of all time reviewed for The San Francisco Chronicle Ellery Queen Mystery Magazine and The New York Times From these resources Mr Sobin created Boucher's Best and Important Lists to Consider lists that provide insight into important writing in the field from 1942 through Boucher's death in 1968 This is a great resource for all mystery readers and collectors Winner of the 2008 Macavity Awards for Best Mystery Nonfiction The Michigan Alumnus, 2000 In v 1 8 the final number consists of the Commencement annual Mystery Index Steven Olderr, 1987 Provides indexes to American and British mystery novels by author title subject setting and characters Time Briton Hadden, Henry Robinson Luce, 1929 Varieties of Crime Fiction S.T. Blouin,2025-04-15 Over the past thirty years Stephen King has received enormous attention from both the popular press as well as academics seeking to explain the unique phenomenon of his success Books on King explore his canon in religious contexts in political and historical contexts in mythic specifically Jungian contexts in Gothic horror especially American literary contexts and in a wide variety of other contexts appropriate to a writer who over the past half century has become America s Storyteller Beginning with a never published chapter authored by Stephen King himself on the influence of the genre on his own writing King Noir makes an invaluable contribution to King scholarship by placing King s works in conversation with American crime fiction This is the third book that Tony Magistrale and Michael J Blouin have coauthored on the work of Stephen King and the first to consider King s canon through the lens of crime fiction King Noir examines not only King s own efforts at writing in the detective genre but also how the detective genre finds its way into work typically regarded as horror fiction In interviews King has acknowledged his debt to earlier writers in the genre such as Ed McBain and Raymond Chandler and he much more often references hard boiled writers than he does horror writers One could speculate that King became a writer because of his love of pulpy crime fiction which he continues to hold in high esteem From The Dead Zone to Mr Mercedes from the crime fiction of his pseudonym Richard Bachman to his most recent novel Holly King returns obsessively to patterns established by American sleuths of every stripe paying homage to them at the same time as he innovates on the formulas he has inherited To focus upon a hard boiled Stephen King is to discover exciting new avenues for inquiry into one of America s most enduring and adaptable storytellers American Literature on Stage and Screen Thomas S.
