Enchanted Hunters: The Power of Stories in Childhood Maria Tatar,2009-04-20 Tatar challenges the assumptions we make about childhood reading By exploring how beauty and horror operate in children s literature she examines how and what children read showing how literature transports and transforms children with its intoxicating captivating and occasionally terrifying energy Fairy Tales for Young Readers E. Nesbit,2015-01-14 A collection of nine fairy tales retold including such favorites as Cinderella and Puss in Boots as well as the less familiar stories of Dick Whittington and His Cat and Hop o my Thumb Getting Children Writing Simon Brownhill,2013-05-13 This is a fantastic book which provides creative and practical suggestions of how to engage all children in writing Sarah Martin Denham Senior Lecturer in Primary Education University of Sunderland

This book is a practical guide designed to stimulate story writing in the early years and primary classroom. It offers a collection of novel and effective ideas which can be used by educators to energise, excite and motivate children to willingly write stories across the 3-11 age phase. Each chapter offers creative and innovative ideas to get children writing stories, including how to help children see the point of story writing, how speaking and listening, reading and phonics can be utilised to enhance written stories, how technology can facilitate refreshing story writing, how story writing can be physically interactive. By combining theory with practice, this book is ideal for those training to teach the 3 to 11 age range, those beginning their teaching career and those who are established in their professional role. Simon Brownhill is Senior Teaching Associate at the University of Cambridge.
