Nichols, 1995-09 Identifies a small number of sources which will meet the basic needs of libraries of all sizes Designed specifically to help small libraries select a reference collection which will meet their essential needs Focuses on 105 annotated sources and 68 notes citing another 75 reference titles which may be substituted for those recommended in the text or purchased in addition to them Section II is designed to help small libraries in the acquisition process Also contains 9 exercises on using basic types of sources and is intended for new reference workers      Tapping State Government Information Sources Lori L. Smith, Daniel C. Barkley, Daniel D. Cornwall, Eric W. Johnson, J. Louise Malcomb, 2003-11-30 Each state government produces large varieties and quantities of useful information that are largely unknown outside their state of origin This book leads the public to the most useful information sources produced by each state as well as to depository libraries that will facilitate more effective research For each of the 50 states important publications are detailed along with information on how to obtain them The publications topics range from crime statistics to vital statistics business statistics health information statistical abstracts education directories state budgets economic indicators state laws and legal information and more Tapping State Government Information Sources has a broader focus than previously published books in this subject area most of which have focused solely on depository laws useful state publications or indexes to state publications This book covers all three The first chapter describes print and electronic sources that provide information about all 50 states Each state s resources are then described in individual chapters When possible information about how to order a copy of the source is given as are Web addresses for titles that are available online At the beginning of each state chapter the state s legal definition of public document or its equivalent is given which may be of interest to librarians in states that are reexamining their own depository laws

Handbook of Reference Sources and Services for Small and Medium-Sized Libraries Margaret I. Nicholas,1996-07 Lists over 750 sources focusing on the reference needs of adults The primary objective was to select quality reference tools which cover many different topics Topics include general works biography philosophy religion language literature visual arts applied sciences sports and recreation home life social customs and education Catalog of Copyright Entries.
