Guide To The Social Services 20002001:

Adult social care Great Britain: Law Commission,2011-05-11 This report on Adult Social Care recommends the most far reaching reforms of adult social care law seen for over 60 years Under the proposals older people disabled people those with mental health problems and carers will for the first time be clear about their legal rights to care and support services And local councils across England and Wales will have clear and concise rules to govern when they must provide services Since the National Assistance Act 1948 adult social care law has been the subject of countless piecemeal reforms including new Acts of Parliament and a constant stream of regulations circulars directions approvals and guidance The proliferation of law has led to inefficiency in the system Complex law also has the effect of stifling innovation and make it difficult to promote flexibility and new policy approaches in practice The report is divided into twelve Parts Part 2 defines adult social care and Part 3 the structure of reform adopted Parts 4 through to 8 set out core recommendations Part 4 considers the role of statutory principles in providing an overall framework for decision making Part 5 covers the role of community care assessments in determining a person s needs Part 6 considers eligibility for services Part 7 explores the equivalent assessment and eligibility processes for carers and Part 8 considers the provision of services Part 9 considers local authority adult protection functions Finally Parts 10 to 12 consider other issues including ordinary residence and portability areas where adult social care overlaps with other areas of law and other outstanding issues Walford's Guide to Reference Material: Social and historical sciences, philosophy and religion Albert John Walford,Marilyn Mullay,Priscilla Schlicke,Library Association,1999 A revised and updated guide to reference material It contains selective and evaluative entries to guide the enquirer to the best source of reference in each subject area be it journal article CD ROM on line database bibliography encyclopaedia monograph or directory It features full critical annotations and reviewers comments and comprehensive author title and subject indexes The contents include philosophy and psychology religion social sciences sociology statistics politics economics labour and employment land and property business organizations finance and banking and economic surveys economic policies and controls trade and commerce business and management and law public administration social services and welfare education customs and traditions geography biography and history Immigration Controls, the Family and the Welfare State Steve Cohen,2001 For social and welfare workers the complexities of immigration law may at first appear daunting In this book Steve Cohen examines the law as it applies to the family and welfare giving pointers for good practice Guide to the Social Services 2000/2001 Guide,2000 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001

EBOOK: Working With Older People And Their Families Mike Nolan,Nolan Davies,Gordon Grant,2001-02-16 Addressing the needs of older people and their carers is an essential element of both policy and practice in the fields of health and social care Recent developments promote a partnership and empowerment model in which the notion of person centred care figures prominently However what person centred care means and how it can be achieved is far from clear

Working with Older People and their Families combines extensive reviews of specialist literatures with new empirical data in an attempt at a synthesis of themes about making a reality of person centred care. Uniquely it seeks to unite the perspectives of older people, family and professional carers in promoting a genuinely holistic approach to the challenges of an ageing society. Working with Older People and their Families is recommended reading for students on health related courses such as nursing, medicine and the therapies. It is also of relevance to students of social work and social gerontology, researchers, managers and policy makers.

Enhancing Social Work Management Jane Aldgate, Janet Seden, Wendy Rose, 2007-01-15
This book looks at the nature of management in the human services sector and examines the prevailing issues affecting both the UK and USA. In this book contributors present both the problems and opportunities associated with the growth of management in the social care sector. This will be essential reading for social workers.

Public Management in Britain David Farnham, Sylvia Horton, 2015-12-31
This wide ranging text analyses the key developments and changes in the management of the major public services in Britain during the 1990s. Designed as a successor to the editors' highly successful Managing the New Public Services, the book places public management and in particular the Third Way as adopted by New Labour in its economic, political and historical context, including the impact of globalization and European integration. Extended case studies illustrate and highlight key stages in the transformation of management and the book concludes with an evaluation and critique of two decades of managerial reform and a discussion of the way forward in the new millennium.

Collaboration in Social Work Practice Jenny Weinstein, Colin Whittington, Tony Leiba, 2003-07-15
New or experienced social workers who are developing their collaborative practice will find this book to be an essential source of knowledge, skills and issues for reflection. The authors explain how practitioners in social care, health and related sectors can work more effectively together in line with current developments in policy and practice.

Building Relationships and Communicating with Young Children Karen Winter, 2010-12-03
This book provides a timely, invaluable resource and practical guide for social work students specialising in family and child care and for practitioners who have young children on their caseloads. Packed with real life examples of in depth interviews conducted with young children known to social services, it outlines what can be done to improve practice in this challenging and demanding area.

Education and Care for Adolescents and Adults with Autism Kate Wall, 2007-09-18
Kate Wall shows a depth of knowledge in the subject area of autism and her experience as a practitioner shines through. For anyone working with or planning services for adolescents and adults with autism, this is definitely a useful book to have on the shelf. Support for Learning: This is the first book I have read which covers both education and care. There is some very useful information, some of which is very thought provoking. The book promotes the importance of everyone working together to achieve a better understanding. National Autistic Society: By providing case studies and examples that show the reader how to put theory into practice in multi disciplinary settings, this book clearly explains how changes in policy and provision have affected the ways in which young people and adults with autism are cared for and educated This book offers up to date accessible information on o the nature and effects of Autistic Spectrum Disorders ASDs o family issues surrounding caring for and educating those with ASDs o possible intervention programmes o how to support the family Based on years of experience gained in education and care settings this book offers strategies for all those working with adolescents and adults who are on the autistic spectrum 2000-2001 EDExpress ,2000 Institute of Healthcare Management Yearbook, 2000-2001 ,2000 Speaking for Patients and Carers Rob Baggott,Judith Allsop,Kathryn Jones,2017-03-16 Speaking for Patients and Carers draws on original research and is based on a theoretical framework taken from sociology and politics It examines health consumer groups in the context of specific conditions Arthritis and related conditions cancer heart and circulatory disease maternity and childbirth and mental health It also analyzes their interaction with government health professionals and the media and assesses their impact on policy Critical Practice in Social Work Robert Adams,Lena Dominelli,Malcolm Payne,2009-04-16 What do social workers need to know in order to practise skilfully and effectively Edited by three Social Work s leading scholars the second edition of this highly respected textbook helps bridge the gap between social work theory and the challenges of day to day practice Versatile and thoughtful the book s simultaneous accessibility and depth make it essential reading suited for both social work students at undergraduate and post qualifying level Practitioners too will learn and benefit from the insights collected together in this valuable addition to their bookshelf Multicultural Education 2000-2001 Fred Schultz,2000 This volume of public press readings offers samples from contemporary journal literature in which the knowledge bases for multicultural education are developed The Student's Guide to the Internet 2000-2001 Ian Winship,Alison McNab,2000 A guide to the Internet written specifically for university and college students this handbook explains procedures and lists major subject information sources to help readers explore the Net to further their studies For this revised edition URLs have been reviewed and updated Many of the resources listed are new and more sources are listed to help with multimedia student sites and searching the Internet Topics include electronic mail discussion lists and newsgroups essential network etiquette techniques for browsing the WWW electronic journals and bibliographic databases help with overseas study loans jobs counselling and support subject searching resource guides and gateways what s new keeping up with new resources and producing your own Web pages Children's Rights and the Developing Law Jane Fortin,2003-04 This text considers the developing law in England and Wales as it applies to the burgeoning and confusing subject of the rights of children It examines the extent to which the emerging legal principles can be harnessed to fulfil those rights Aid Activities in Africa 2000-2001 OECD,2002-11-21 This publication provides detailed information on individual commitments i e intended disbursements of Official Development Assistance ODA to African countries for the years 2000 and 2001 This yearly publication records the commitments reported The State of Working America, 2000-2001 Lawrence R.
