

Instructions:

Please compose a 4-5-page essay responding to the essay prompt below, drawing on course themes, lectures, films, and readings. Be sure to cite specific concepts, ideas, quotations, and examples in building your arguments. The best essays will reference key course materials while demonstrating original thinking in answering the questions. Your grade will be based on:

1. (40 points) - The extent to which the response demonstrates an understanding of important concepts and thoughtfully and thoroughly answers the questions
2. (40 points) - The depth of the analysis, including reference to specific citations and examples and attention to the connections between cases
3. (20 points) - The overall quality of the work, including evidence of effort, logic and reasoning, and conformity to the formatting guidelines

Essay Prompt:

Comparing the cases of Japanese-Brazilian return migrants, Syrian refugees, Muslim women in France, and indigenous minorities in Ecuador, compose an essay that examines: 1) how governments attempt to balance the interests of majority ethnic groups with the interests of ethnic minorities (in these cases, immigrants, refugees, and indigenous minorities); and 2) the conditions that can cause tensions between majority and minority groups and inhibit the latter's social integration. Please include at least three of the four cases in your essay.

Formatting guidelines:

Please use 12 point, Times New Roman font, double spaced, with page numbers and one-inch margins all around. Please also include a title for your essay. You should be able to complete the essay in 4-5 pages. This assignment will be due on Friday, November 8th in discussion section, hard copy.

TESOL Guide for Critical Praxis in Teaching, Inquiry, and Advocacy Crawford, Jenifer, Filback, Robert A., 2021-09-17. The field of TESOL encompasses English teachers who teach English as an additional language in English-dominant countries and those teachers who teach English as a foreign language in countries where a language other than English is the official language. This range of educators teaches English to children, adolescents, and adults in primary, secondary, post-secondary, higher education, and language academies or tutoring centers. The diversity of learners and contexts within the TESOL field presents a unique opportunity for educators to address varied educational and societal needs. This opportunity calls for TESOL educators who can support the whole learner in a range of contexts for the greater social good. There is an urgent need for readily reproducible and step-by-step research-based practices and current standards in TESOL that bridge the gap between critical scholarship and equitable teaching practices. This book would serve as a critical addition to current literature in TESOL. TESOL Guide for Critical Praxis in Teaching, Inquiry, and Advocacy is an essential reference that provides practical and equitable step-by-step guides for TESOL educators through the current best practices and methods for effective and equity-minded teaching, critical inquiry, and transformative advocacy. This book is of particular value as it bridges theories to practices with a critical look at racial and social justice in English language teaching, which will lead to the integration of social justice-focused practice across the new curriculum. Covering topics such as integrated language instruction, equity and inclusivity, critical consciousness, and online learning, this text is essential for in-service and pre-service TESOL educators, education students, researchers, administrators, teacher educators, and academicians.
