Guildford The Changing Face:

Guildford Stanley Newman,2002 Cardinal Hume and the Changing Face of English Catholicism Peter Stanford,1999-01-01 After the persecutions that followed the Reformation the Catholic Church that re emerged in the 19th century was a defensive introspective one largely made up of working class immigrants and a handful of land owning families who kept the faith despite adversity It was viewed with some suspicion by the English Establishment as something foreign subversive to be held at arm s length But particularly after World War II a new generation of educated Catholics emerged outward looking questioning anxious to take their places in society Peter Standford argues that Basil Hume s appointment was a symbol of change His very Englishness has exorcised some of the nightmares in the national subconscious about the Catholic Church And in his struggles as a leader with a flock that is not as obedient as once it was the cardinal has redefined English Catholicism by blending its traditional theological conservatism with a liberal pastoral practice The Changing Face of Britain from the Air Leslie Gardiner,1989 Gender and Labour in New Times Lisa Adkins,Maryanne Dever,2018-02-02 This book is concerned with the gender order of post Fordism and especially the labour demanded from many women by post Fordist capitalism It maps and traces these demands as well their entanglement in complex processes of value creation In so doing the contributors elaborate how processes of financialization calls for work readiness new modes of economic calculation processes of economization and emergent regulatory strategies are reconfiguring labour and life in post Fordism and summoning new forms of women s work Contributors also map how these same processes are repositioning feminism especially feminism as a mode of critique Feminism here stands not in an external relation to the objects and matters it seeks to critique but as implicated in those very objects In mapping this terrain Gender and Labour in New Times opens out new feminist research agendas for the study of the post Fordist labour and the modes of regulation that post Fordism as a regime of capital accumulation entails This book was originally published as a special issue of Australian Feminist Studies Psychoanalysts, Psychologists and Psychiatrists Discuss Psychopathy and Human Evil Sheldon Itzkowitz,Elizabeth Howell,2019-11-04 Evil along with its incarnation in human form the psychopath remains underexamined in the psychological and psychoanalytic literature Given current societal issues ranging from increasingly violent cultural divides to climate change it is imperative that the topics of psychopathy and human evil be thoughtfully explored The book brings together social scientists psychologists and psychoanalysts to discuss the psychology of psychopaths and the personal societal and cultural destruction they leave as their legacy Chapters address such questions as Who are psychopaths How do they think and operate What causes someone to commit psychopathic acts And are psychopaths born or created Psychopaths leave us shocked and bewildered by behavior that violates the notions of common human trust and bonding but not all psychopaths commit crimes Because of their unique proclivities to deceive seduce and dissemble they can hide in plain sight especially when intelligent and highly educated This latter group comprise the successful or corporate psychopaths frequently found in boardrooms of corporations and among leaders of national movements or heads of state Addressing a wide range of topics including slavery genocide the Holocaust the individual as psychopath the mind of the terrorist sexual abuse the role of attachment and the neurobiology of psychopathy this book will appeal to researchers of human evil and psychopathy from a range of different disciplines and represents essential reading for psychotherapists and clinical psychologists
