Alvarez, Ana M. Franco, 2018-09-27 This edited volume examines the history of abstract art across Latin America after 1945 This form of art grew in popularity across the Americas in the postwar period often serving to affirm a sense of being modern and the right of Latin America to assume the leading role Europe had played before World War II Latin American artists practiced gestural and geometric abstraction though the history of art has favored the latter Recent scholarship for instance has focused on geometric abstraction from Argentina Brazil and Venezuela The book aims to expand the map and consider this phenomenon as it developed in neglected regions such as Central America and the Andes investigating how this style came to stand in for Latin American contemporary art Watercolours by Guillermo Wiedemann, 1962 The Politics of Taste Ana María Reyes, 2019-11-15 In The Politics of Taste Ana María Reyes examines the works of Colombian artist Beatriz González and Argentine born art critic Marta Traba who championed González's art during Colombia's National Front coalition government 1958-74 During this critical period in Latin American art artistic practice art criticism and institutional objectives came into strenuous yet productive tension While González's triumphant debut excited critics who wanted to cast Colombian art as modern sophisticated and universal her turn to urban lowbrow culture proved deeply unsettling Traba praised González's cursi tacky recycling aesthetic as daringly subversive and her strategic localism as resistant to U.S. cultural imperialism Reyes reads González's and Traba's complex visual and textual production and their intertwined careers against Cold War modernization programs that were deeply embedded in the elite's fear of the masses and designed to avert Cuban inspired revolution In so doing Reyes provides fresh insights into Colombia's social anxieties and frustrations while highlighting how interrogations of taste became vital expressions of the growing discontent with the Colombian state Violence and Resistance, Art and Politics in Colombia Stephen Zepke, Nicolás
