The Guilty Secret Margaret Pemberton,1996-02-01      The Psychology of Secrets Anita E. Kelly,2002-01-31 The public revelation of what were once considered extremely private matters is becoming a new social norm Has this movement toward openness gone too far Are there negative consequences to revealing secrets When and why is it helpful to reveal secrets What can be done to alleviate the burden of secrecy Will the anguish of keeping a secret pass in time What factors should enter into deciding to reveal a secret This book addresses these questions      Secrets She Left Behind Diane Chamberlain,2013-05-28 Abandoned by his mother teenaged Keith struggles with physical and emotional scars from an arson fire and harbors hatred for his half sister Maggie who has been released from prison for her role in setting the fire

Scanlon and Contractualism Matt Matravers,2004-08-02 This collection brings together essays by distinguished political philosophers which reflect on the detailed arguments of What We Owe to Each Other and comment critically both on Scanlon s contractualism and his revised understandings of motivation and morality The essays illustrate the uses of Scanlon s contractualism by applying it to moral and political problems and in so doing they provide an assessment of the ability of Scanlon s contractualism by applying it to other forms of ethical theory The resulting volume makes an important and original contribution to the literature on Scanlon on contractualism and on contemporary political philosophy      The Australian Temperance Magazine ,1838      Guarding Life's Dark Secrets ,2007-11-08 This book investigates the elements that have developed as part of the definition of propriety and good behavior and how the law has acted to protect respectable people and their reputations      Monsieur Pamplemousse on Probation Michael Bond,2013-03-25 Monsieur Pamplemousse finds himself in deep water when an unfortunate collision with a Mother Superior is caught on camera by the French tabloids To avoid media attention he is sent to report on chef Andr Dulac currently in line for Le Guide s top award of the Golden Stock Pot Lid and opens a can of worms which threatens the very sanctity of France s premier gastronomic bible Being on the verge of haute cuisine takes on a whole new meaning and his attempt to get at the truth by harnessing a state of the art TV camera to his ever faithful hound Pommes Frites ensures that outside broadcasting will never be quite the same again      Hating God Bernard Schweizer,2010-11-04 Bernard Schweizer explores a hitherto neglected strain of religious rebellion Misotheism or hatred of God is more radical than atheism God haters do not question God s existence but instead deny his competence and goodness Sifting through centuries of evidence and uncovering fascinating networks of influences among writers and thinkers as diverse as Friedrich Nietzsche Zora Neale Hurston and Philip Pullman Schweizer reveals deep undercurrents of misotheism in many acclaimed works of literature and philosophy      Requiem Mass Elizabeth Corley,2024-06-04 The first deaths are just a warm up A Buried Past When Deborah Fearnside a young wife and mother goes missing police interest is minimal She would hardly be the first woman to abandon a tired marriage Four weeks later it is Detective Chief Inspector Andrew Fenwick back from compassionate leave who notices the set of coincidences that should have transformed a routine missing person's case into a suspected abduction. But by then it is too late for Debbie. A Dark Secret Twenty years ago a young woman fell tragically to her death. The only people with her were four schoolfriends. One or maybe all of them is responsible. Now there's someone intent on letting them have their just deserts. A Bloody Revenge Fenwick is soon caught in a desperate race against time to find the murderer before he completes his brutal vendetta. As the death toll mounts Fenwick stares failure in the face unless he can draw the predator out of the shadows and into an unconventional and highly dangerous trap with the ultimate bait in Requiem Mass, a chilling Sussex mystery from Elizabeth Corley. Praise for Requiem Mass: These characters are well drawn, especially Fenwick, and even the killer avoids cliché. Boasting a very tense, superb ending, this second in a gritty new series following Fatal Legacy (2001) shows tremendous promise and is sure to appeal to fans of Tana French, Benjamin Black, and Tess Gerritsen. Mrs. Christie at the Mystery Guild Library Amanda Chapman, 2025-08-26 Book conservator Tory Van Dyne and a woman claiming to be Agatha Christie on holiday from the Great Beyond join forces to catch a killer in this spirited mystery from Amanda Chapman. Tory Van Dyne is the most down-to-earth member of a decidedly eccentric old-money New York family. For one thing, as book conservator at Manhattan's Mystery Guild Library, she actually has a job. Plus she's left up-town society behind for a quiet life downtown. So she's not thrilled when she discovers a woman in the library's Christie Room who calmly introduces herself as Agatha Christie, politely requests a cocktail, and announces she's there to help solve a murder that has not yet happened. But as soon as Tory determines that this is just a fairly nutty Christie fangirl, her socialite actress cousin Nicola gets caught up in the suspicious death of her less-than-lovable talent agent. Nic, as always, looks to Tory for help. Tory in turn looks to Mrs. Christie. The woman, whoever or whatever she is, clearly knows her stuff when it comes to crime. Aided by an unlikely band of fellow sleuths, including a snarky librarian, an eleven-year-old computer whiz, and an NYPD detective with terrible taste in suits, Tory and the woman claiming to be her very much deceased literary idol begin to unravel the twists and turns of a murderer's devious mind. Because in the immortal words of Miss Jane Marple, murder is never simple. Promise Me Jill

MANSELL S IRRESISTIBLE NEW NOVEL AN ALMOST PERFECT SUMMER OUT NOW Thought and Feeling Richard E. Nisbett,2017-07-05 Recently there has been growing awareness and acceptance of the proposition that people do not exist in a world of physically defined forces and events but in a world defined by their own perceptions cognitions conclusions and imaginations We respond and react not to some objectively defined set of stimuli but to our own apperceptions of stimuli that we define subjectively The original essays in this volume center on one aspect of this process of attribution The extent to which the perception of events and causes results in the determination modification or alteration of emotions feelings and affective states This book is divided into five sections each of which elucidates and extends these theoretical conceptions Part 1 provides a historical background and analytical framework for the rest of the book Part 2 presents chapters dealing with the sorts of internal cues which may give rise to a feeling state Part 3 presents a chapter discussing the evaluative needs aroused by the internal cues Part 4 is concerned with the process of explanation triggered by the evaluative needs Part 5 deals with various external cues and how they are used to label the internal feeling state There is a concluding discussion of the cognitive alteration of feeling states The authors deal with aggression boredom obesity the control of pain and delusional systems This volume is of continuing importance to clinical and experimental psychologists as well as social psychologists Each of the authors takes the theoretical concept of cognition and relates it to research in biofeedback physiology social psychology altered states of consciousness etc Thus the book bridges the gap between cognitive theory and the use of that theory in applied research Going Ape Nicholas J. Crank,2015-12-14 Since its publication in 1936 Gone with the Wind has held a unique position in American cultural memory both for its particular vision of the American South in the age of the Civil War and for its often controversial portrayals of race gender and class New Approaches to Gone with the Wind offers neither apology nor rehabilitation for the novel and its Oscar winning film adaptation Instead the nine essays provide distinct compelling insights that challenge and complicate conventional associations Racial and sexual identity form a cornerstone of the collection Mark C Jerng and Charlene Register each examine Margaret Mitchell s reframing of traditional racial identities and the impact on audience sympathy and engagement Jessica Sims mines Mitchell s depiction of childbirth for what it reveals about changing ideas of femininity in a postplantation economy while Deborah Barker explores transgressive sexuality in the film version by comparing it to the depiction of rape in D W Griffith s earlier silent classic Birth of a Nation Other essays position the novel and film within the context of their legacy and their impact on national and international audiences Amy Clukey and James Crank inspect the reception of Gone with the Wind by Irish critics and gay communities respectively Daniel Cross Turner Keaghan Turner and Rich Richardson consider its aesthetic impact and mythology and the ways that contemporary writers and artists such as Natasha Trethewey and Kara Walker have engaged with the work Finally Helen Taylor sums up the pervading influence that Gone with the Wind continues to exert on audiences in both America and Britain Through an emphasis on intertextuality sexuality and questions of audience and identity these essayists deepen the ongoing conversation about the cultural impact and influence of this monumental work Flawed in many ways yet successful beyond its time Gone with the Wind remains a touchstone in southern studies

Legal and Ethical Retributivism Halil Cesur, 2025-07-31 This book explores a foundational philosophical tension in contemporary retributivism revealing ambiguities in its approach to punishment between two conflicting conceptions of restoration legal justice and ethical love Through an analysis of the three parties involved in a crime the victim the offender and the state it argues that neo retributivism has not sufficiently incorporated the ethical face of punishment into its theoretical framework The pull of legal justice is often so strong that the voice of ethical love is silenced neo retributivism is at an impasse To navigate this the book engages with contemporary critical criminal justice scholarship introducing the ideal of loving justice while highlighting an unresolved tension between penal reformism and abolitionism The book will be of interest to academicians and researchers working in the areas of philosophy of punishment criminal law theory criminal justice restorative justice philosophy of law political philosophy and Hegel scholarship
