Gulf War Critical Perspectives:

The Gulf War Michael McKinley, 1994-01-01 Australia and the New World Order David Horner, 2011-02-07
Comprehensive study of Australia's role in the peace enforcement operations that developed at the end of the Cold War A Subject Index to Current Literature Australian Public Affairs Information Service, Studies in Trans-disciplinary Method Michael J. Shapiro, 2013 This groundbreaking and innovative text addresses the deep ontological and epistemological commitments that underpin conventional positivist methods and then demonstrates how method can be understood in much broader and more interesting ways Drawing on a broad range of philosophical and methodological theory as well as a wide variety of artistic sources from fine art to cinema and from literature to the blues leading contemporary thinker Michael Shapiro shows the reader how a more open understanding of the concept of method is rewarding and enlightening His notion of writing as method is enacted throughout the text and offers a stimulating alternative for students to positivist social science methods This is essential reading for all students and faculty with an interest in post positivist methods Canada Among Nations, 1995 Maxwell A. Cameron, Maureen Appel Molot, 1995-01-01 Forces for Good Graeme Cheeseman, 2004 Forces for good develops and explores the concept of cosmopolitan militaries It examines how governments militaries and institutions have responded politically doctrinally and operationally to claims that militaries have a new role in cosmopolitan law enforcement that allows and perhaps even requires the use of force to protect and defend those who are the victims of gross abuse of human rights The contributors include academics defence practitioners and serving military officers BOOK JACKET An Introduction to International Relations Richard Devetak, Anthony Burke, Jim George, 2007-11-13 Leading Australian scholars introduce a range of theories actors issues institutions and processes that animate international relations today Rethinking Geopolitics Simon Dalby, Gearoid O. Tuathail, 2002-01-22 Rethinking Geopolitics argues that the concept of geopolitics needs to be conceptualised anew as the twenty first century approaches Challenging conventional geopolitical assumptions contributors explore theories of post modern geopolitics historical formulations of states and cold wars the geopolitics of the Holocaust the gendered dimension of Kurdish insurgency the cold war world political cartoons concerning Bosnia Time magazine representations of the Persian Gulf the Zapatistas and the Chiapas revolt the new cyber politics conflict simulations in the US military the emergence of a new geopolitics of global security Exploring how popular cultural assumptions about geography and politics constitute the discourses of contemporary violence and political economy Rethinking Geopolitics shows that we must rethink the struggle for knowledge space and power Critical Security Studies Columba Peoples, Nick Vaughan-Williams, 2020-11-29 This textbook introduces students to the sub field of critical security studies through a detailed yet accessible survey of emerging theories and practices This third edition contains two new chapters on Ontological security and In Security and the everyday and has been fully revised and updated Written in an accessible and clear manner Critical Security Studies offers a comprehensive and up to date introduction to critical security studies locates critical security studies within the broader context of social and political theory evaluates fundamental theoretical positions in critical security studies against a backdrop of new security challenges The book is divided into two main parts Part I Approaches surveys the newly extended and contested theoretical terrain of critical security studies constructivist theories Critical Theory feminist and gender approaches postcolonial perspectives poststructuralism and International Political Sociology Ontological security and securitisation theory Part II Issues examines how these various theoretical approaches have been put to work in critical considerations of environmental and planetary security health human security and development information technology and warfare migration and border security in security and the everyday and terror risk and resilience The historical and geographical scope of the book is deliberately broad and each of the chapters in Part II concretely illustrates one or more of the approaches discussed in Part I with clear internal referencing allowing the text to act as a holistic learning tool for students This book is essential reading for upper level students of critical security studies and an important resource for students of international global security political theory and international relations

Representations of War, Migration, and Refugeehood Daniel H. Rellstab, Christiane Schlote, 2014-09-19 War migration and refugeehood are inextricably linked and the complex nature of all three phenomena offers profound opportunities for representation and misrepresentation This volume brings together international contributors and practitioners from a wide range of fields practices and backgrounds to explore and problematize textual and visual inscriptions of war and migration in the arts the media and in academic public and political discourses The essays in this collection address the academic and political interest in representations of the migrant and the refugee and examine the constructed nature of categories and concepts such as war refugee victim border home non place and displacement Contributing authors engage with some of the most pressing questions surrounding war migration and refugeehood as well as with the ways in which war and its multifarious effects and repercussions in society are being framed propagated glorified or contested This volume initiates an interdisciplinary debate which re evaluates the relationship between war migration and refugeehood and their representations

Cultural Diversity and the U.S. Media Yahya R. Kamalipour, Theresa Carilli, 1998-01-01 This book provides rich and detailed accounts of how the media filters racial ethnic identity through economic or sensationalized perspectives in newspapers films television and radio By exploring media descriptions of various racial ethnic groups Cultural Diversity and the U S Media provides opportunities to discover debate and discuss issues surrounding race ethnicity and the role of the media in American society

IBSS: Political Science: 1994 British Library of Political and Economic Science at the London School of Economics, 1995-12-08 The IBSS is the essential tool for librarians university departments research institutions and any public or private institution whose work requires access to up to date and comprehensive knowledge of the social sciences

Muslims In Australia Nahid Kabir, 2013-01-11 Muslims in Australia investigates the basis of Australian society's fear of Muslims by tracing their history since the Afghan settlement in 1860 The author investigates how events such as September 11 and Bali terrorist attacks reinforce suspicion and fear giving an insight into what it means to be a Muslim in contemporary Australia and how the actions of militant Islamic groups have impacted upon Muslims in general in Western society Money Talks Geoffrey D. Klinger, Jennifer Adams, Kevin Howley, 2022-07-20 This book explores the American freemarket economy espoused by Alan Greenspan the longtime chairman of the Federal Reserve through decoding the discourse of economics Combining an analysis of both economics and language the legacy of Reaganomics is examined in relation to economic inequality fiscal policy public discourse and the moral economy How notions of easy money conspicuous consumption and unlimited economic growth were harnessed to justify the Free Market revolution is also discussed This book aims to highlight the drivers of modern inequality and economic distress It will be relevant to students and researchers interested in the history of economic thought and economic discourse Rethinking Documentary: New Perspectives And Practices Austin, Thomas, de Jong, Wilma, 2008-05-01 Because of the huge boom in documentary making there s been a similar growth in the number of courses in documentary studies This book brings together some of the leading scholars and practitioners in this area to provide a textbook and research tool Concepts of Non-Provocative Defence G. Wiseman, 2001-12-18 This book examines the viability of non provocative defence the controversial idea that defensive military policies and practices reduce the risk of wars and provide a viable basis for defending a society should war break out Drawing on case studies from Europe the 1991 Persian Gulf War and Asia Pacific the author concludes that non provocative defence concepts remain relevant and that they can help in deterring conducting and settling wars Key Concepts in Political Geography Carolyn Gallaher, 2009-05-07 This is a new kind of textbook that forms part of an innovative set of companion texts for the human geography subdisciplines Organized around 20 short essays Key Concepts in Political Geography provides a cutting edge introduction to the central concepts that define contemporary research in the field Involving detailed yet expansive discussions the book includes an introductory chapter providing a succinct overview of the recent developments in the field over 20 key concept entries covering the expected staples of the sub discipline such as nationalism territoriality scale and political economy as well as relatively new arrivals to the field including the other anti statism gender and post conflict extensive pedagogic features that enhance understanding including a glossary figures diagrams and further reading Iran and the American Media Mehdi Semati, William P. Cassidy, Mehrnaz Khanjani, 2021-09-29 This book investigates the American media coverage of the historic nuclear accord between the Islamic Republic of Iran and the world powers commonly known as the Iran Deal The analysis examines the sources of news and opinion expressed about the Iran Deal in The New York Times The Washington Post and the national newscast of broadcast networks The empirical component uses media sociology and indexing theory to determine the extent to which the media covered the topic within a framework of institutional debates among congressional leaders the executive branch and other governmental sources The coverage is placed within a larger historical and interpretative framework that examines the construction of Iran in both the pre revolution news narratives and in the post revolution American media and popular culture The book endeavors to reveal the place Iran occupies in the American political and cultural imagination

Evil Arabs in American Popular Film Tim Jon Semmerling, 2009-06-23 2006 Runner up Arab American National Museum Book Awards The evil Arab has become a stock character in American popular films playing the villain opposite American good guys who fight for the American way It s not surprising that this stereotype has entered American popular culture given the real world conflicts between the United States and Middle Eastern countries particularly since the oil embargo of the 1970s and continuing through the Iranian hostage crisis the first and second Gulf Wars and the ongoing struggle against al Qaeda But when one compares the evil Arab of popular culture to real Arab people the stereotype falls apart In this thought provoking book Tim Jon Semmerling further dismantles the evil Arab stereotype by showing how American cultural fears which stem from challenges to our national ideologies and myths have driven us to create the evil Arab Other Semmerling bases his argument on close readings of six films The Exorcist Rollover Black Sunday Three Kings Rules of Engagement and South Park Bigger Longer Uncut as well as CNN s 9 11 documentary America Remembers Looking at their narrative structures and visual tropes he analyzes how the films portray Arabs as threatening to subvert American truths and mythic tales and how the insecurity this engenders causes Americans to project evil character and intentions on Arab peoples landscapes and cultures Semmerling also demonstrates how the evil Arab narrative has even crept into the documentary coverage of 9 11 Overall Semmerling s probing analysis of America s Orientalist fears exposes how the evil Arab of American popular film is actually an illusion that reveals more about Americans than Arabs
