Rogers,2016-12-05 In 1956 Allison and Rogers published A Catalogue of Catholic Books in English Printed Abroad Secretly in England 1558 1640 Known simply as A R it is the standard listing of the clandestine vernacular output of English Catholics during that period Now after more than thirty years work Allison and Rogers have produced a substantially updated comprehensive catalogue to be published in two interlocking volumes This first volume describes books which are linked to specific English Catholic writers including translators and editors or to various English bodies and nearly two hundred other publications which concern English Catholic affairs It is a major reference tool for historians and bibliographers The one thing that has characterised the two editors in everything they have done is their careful and painstaking scholarship and that is evident throughout this work this monument will stand for a long time and serve students of the history religion and literature of early modern Europe for many years to come The Catholic Historical Review a remarkable achievement If there is such a thing as an absolute bibliography then this is it TLS A F Allison had special responsibility for early printed books at the British Museum Library while D M Rogers was head of Special Collections in the Department of Printed Books at the Bodleian Library Both have written widely and together founded in 1951 the periodical Biographical Studies later re named Recusant History

Secularisation and the Leiden Circle Mark Somos,2011-09-09 This book shows how a group of early seventeenth century writers excluded theologically grounded argument from a wide range of disciplines from the natural sciences to international relations Somos uses richly contextualised portraits of Scaliger Heinsius Cunaeus and Grotius to develop a new model of secularisation as a contingent cumulative and incomplete process with some unintended consequences Facing severe conflict the Leiden Circle realised that rival claims that staked their truth content and validity on religious belief were ultimately irreconcilable Gradually they removed such claims from acceptable discourse contributing to the comprehensive secularisation that defines modernity If blindness to religious claims has become definitive of modern politics Somos concludes recollecting its historical complexity and contingency is essential for overcoming some of its failures      A Catalogue of the Harsnett Library at Colchester Colchester (England).
