Army. 2d Division, 1924 Essex Units in the War, 1914-1919: Essex Territorial Infantry Brigade John William Burrows, 1923 The History of the Second Division 1914-1918 - Volume 2 Everard Wyrall, 2013-01-02 Of the six pre war regular divisions only two 2nd and 5th published a detailed history of their part in the Great War. The 2nd Division landed in France with the original BEF as part of I Corps Haig between 11 and 16 August 1914. It was not directly engaged at Mons and such casualties as were sustained 10 killed 80 wounded were from artillery fire. During the retreat it was engaged at Landrecies 4th Guards Brigade and Villers Cotterets but its first major battles were at the Marne and the Aisne and subsequently it fought in all the battles of First Ypres. During the three months September to the end of November 1914 it suffered some 8 500 casualties. At the end of 1914 the division moved south to the

Bethune sector where it remained throughout 1915 still in I Corps It was at Festubert Loos and the Hohenzollern Redoubt which in all cost almost 9 000 casualties In February 1916 it moved down to the Vimy sector in IV Corps where it stayed till July the next move was to the Somme Here the division had a protracted spell till March 1917 during which time it was in action at Delville Wood Guillemont and the Ancre incurring nearly 8 000 casualties The 2nd was one of the few divisions not involved Third Ypres July November 1917 but it had earlier taken part in the April May Arras offensive and later in November December in the Battle of Cambrai Throughout 1918 the division was in the line for much of the time in the German offensive and in the Advance to Victory its final action was the Battle of the Selle 23 25 October The final casualty figure was around 45 000 Seventeen VCs were won and two of the commanders went on to greater things Monro to Commander in Chief India and Horne to command of First Army The division took part in the march to the Rhine occupying the area around Cologne In March 1919 the division ceased to exist as such when it was redesignated The Light Division The history is a very good one by probably the most prolific of all the authors of formation and regimental histories of the Great War The detailed account is easy to follow and the Wyrall has taken care to name many individuals in the actions and events he is describing Casualty details are given in appendices and in the text and there is a nominal roll of divisional staff with all the changes throughout the war

The Australian Imperial Force first raised in 1914 for overseas war service became better known by its initials the AIF There was a distinct character to those who enlisted in the earliest months and who were destined to fight on Gallipoli During the war the AIF took its place among the great armies of the world on some of history s oldest battlefields The Australians would attack at the Dardanelles enter Jerusalem and Damascus defend Amiens and Ypres and swagger through the streets of Cairo Paris and London with their distinctive slouch hats and comparative wealth of six shillings per day However the legend of the AIF is shrouded in myth and mystery Was Beersheba the last great cavalry charge in history Did the AIF storm the red light district of Cairo and burn it to ground while fighting running battles with the military police Was the AIF the only all volunteer army of World War I Graham Wilson s Bully Beef and Balderdash shines an unforgiving light on these and other well known myths of the AIF in World War I arguing that these spectacular legends simply serve to diminish the hard won reputation of the AIF as a fighting force Graham Wilson mounts his own campaign to rehabilitate the historical reputation of the force and to demonstrate that misleading and inaccurate embellishment does nothing but hide the true story of Australia s World War I fighting army Bully Beef and Balderdash deliberately tilts at some well loved windmills and for those who cherish the mythical story of the AIF this will not be comfortable reading Yet given the extraordinary truth of the AIF s history it is certainly compelling reading The Fourth Marine Brigade in World War I George B. Clark,2015-05-12

During World War I the American Expeditionary Force Second Division saw more action and captured more ground and enemy combatants than any other including the vaunted First Division The 4th Marine Brigade especially earned a reputation as a steadfast unit of superb fighting men Drawing on battle reports and other official documents this volume follows those Marines through their service in France in 1917 and 1918 their postwar occupation of Germany and their arrival in New York City in August 1919 Chapters covering each of the brigade s seven battalions recount their role in some of the most intense battles of the war including Belleau Wood Soissons St Mihiel Blanc Mont and the Meuse River Descriptions of the Armistice homecoming parades and the brigade s inactivation at Quantico complete this comprehensive chronicle of one of the American military s most distinguished units
