Head Start Debates:

The Head Start Debates Edward Zigler, Sally J. Styfco, 2004 The first book to capture the debates surrounding Head Start in all their complexity and diversity this landmark volume will help readers understand the role of these controversies in the program's past and their influence on its future Two Head Start experts bring together the research and personal experience of leaders in a wide range of fields including education research medicine and social work This powerful compilation of voices mines Head Start's history for mistakes made and lessons learned presents a multifaceted view of where the program should be headed and offers contrasting viewpoints on three major issues Goals Explores different opinions about three ways of thinking about Head Start's goals cognitive development versus school readiness social competence short term versus long term progress and antipoverty tool versus child development program Effectiveness Presents views on the impact of Head Start on children's school readiness and success health and family functioning and discusses how research might be improved so outcomes in these areas can be more meaningfully assessed Future directions Explains positions on where Head Start should be headed as it approaches its fifth decade Opinions are offered on quality improvement the timing and duration of early intervention administrative changes and Head Start's capacity for meeting child care needs and expanding access to preschool services This comprehensive forward thinking book will help readers understand the complexity of Head Start clarify the multiple sides of the debates that have long surrounded it and shape effective social policy for America's most at risk children and their families Book jacket      A Vision for Universal Preschool Education Edward Zigler, Walter S.

Gilliam, Stephanie M. Jones, 2006-07-10 Decades of research point to the need for a universal preschool education program in the U S to help give our nation's children a sound cognitive and social foundation on which to build future educational and life successes In addition to enhanced school readiness and improved academic performance participation in high quality preschool programs has been linked with reductions in grade retentions and school drop out rates and cost savings associated with a diminished need for remedial educational services and justice services This 2006 book brings together nationally renowned experts from the fields of psychology education economics and political science to present a compelling case for expanded access to preschool services They describe the social educational and economic benefits for the nation as a whole that may result from the implementation of a universal preschool program in America and provide guiding principles upon which such a system can best be founded      Debate Over Child Care, 1969-1990 Abbie Gordon Klein, 1992-01-01

The Debate Over Child Care 1969-1990 offers a new perspective on the pervading problem of providing child care services in the United States The author traces the contemporary debate over the sponsorship of child care services and compares this to the past debate over the sponsorship of kindergartens during the Progressive Era Klein compares the function of child care across societal sectors and points out that turf fighting and imbedded ideological differences have prohibited the development of a proactive social policy for providing needed child care services She analyzes the advantages and disadvantages of five different sponsors the public schools the church private enterprise non profit organizations and corporations Past and present federal legislation is discussed in relation to the divisive issue of sponsorship

Early Childhood Education Moncrieff Cochran, Rebecca S. New, 2007-01-30 Early childhood education has reached a level of unprecedented national and international focus Parents policy makers and politicians have opinions as well as new questions about what how when and where young children should learn Teachers and program administrators now find curriculum discussions linked to dramatic new understandings about children s early learning and brain development Early childhood education is also a major topic of concern internationally as social policy analysts point to its role in a nation s future economic outlook As a groundbreaking contribution to its field this four volume handbook discusses key historical and contemporary issues research theoretical perspectives national policies and practices

The Great Curriculum Debate Tom Loveless, 2004-05-13 Since the early twentieth century American educators have been engaged in a heated debate over what schools should teach and how they should teach it The partisans education progressives and education traditionalists have usually kept their disagreements within the walls of the nation s schools of education Periodically however arguments have erupted which have generated headlines and attracted public attention making clear the potential for bitterness and rancor in education politics In the 1990s progressives and traditionalists squared off in a dispute over reading and mathematics Arguments over how best to teach these two subjects is detailed in The Great Curriculum Debate How Should We Teach Reading and Math This book includes contributions from distinguished scholars from both sides of the debate as well as influential nonpartisans The proponents of whole language and phonics present their opposing views on reading Advocates and opponents of NCTM math reform the agenda of the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics NCTM discuss their differing opinions about math Although the authors disagree on many of the most important aspects of learning they agree on one point the school curriculum matters Decisions made now about the content of reading and mathematics will have long term consequences not only for students and schools but for society as a whole Contributors include E D Hirsch Jr University of Virginia Gail Burrill Mathematical Sciences Education Board Michael T Battista Kent State University David C Geary University of Missouri Columbia Roger Shouse Penn State University Adam Gamoran University of Wisconsin Madison Richard Askey University of Wisconsin Madison Diane Ravitch New York University Catherine E Snow Harvard University Margaret Moustafa California State University LA Richard L Allington University of Florida William Lowe Boyd Penn State University a
