Healerprophet In Afrochristian Churches:

The Healer-Prophet in Afro-Christian Churches Gerhardus C. Oosthuizen, 2016-05-18 Apart from the mainline Pentecostal and Zionist churches there are different types of African Independent Indigenous Churches AIC The greater part of the more than four thousand denominations and eight million adherents came into the AIC during the past three decades mainly from the traditional African religious background The important role of the diviner in the traditional society has been replaced by the prophet in the AIC the prophet understands the worldview of his her people especially the cultural diseases In some churches the office of prophet cum diviner is represented by one person The AIC movement is the most dynamic church movement in many parts of Africa especially Southern Africa The consistent growth of these churches can largely be accounted for by the healing procedures they use which are highlighted in this study Dr Oosthuizen approaches healing from various angles as sickness is not only determined by physical and psychological factors but also by disturbed human relationships and socio political and economic tensions An African Challenge to the Church in the Twenty-first Century Mongezi Guma, A. Leslie Milton, 1997 Healing and Wholeness in African Traditional Religion, African Islam and Christianity Blaise Emebo, 2006 The International Journal of African Historical Studies, 1996 African Indigenous Churches Deji Ayegboyin, S. Ademola Ishola, 1997 African Christianity Ogbu Kalu, 2007 It is ideologically driven to build a group of church historians who will tell the story of African Christianity not Christianity in Africa as an African story by intentionally privileging the patterns of African agency without neglecting the noble roles played by missionaries The effort has been to identify the major themes or story lines in African encounters and in the appropriation of the gospel from publisher description African Christians in Europe Gerrie ter Haar, 2001 Journal of Southern African Studies 20th Anniversary Conference, 1994 Journal of Dharma, 1998 Celestial Church of Christ Afeosemimo Unuose Adogame, 1999 One of the most popular widespread indigenous religious initiative in West Africa is the Celestial Church of Christ This study examines the incipience contemporary growth and development of the church especially the period following the demise of the founder Journal of Religion in Africa, 1999 Study of Religion in Southern Africa Johannes A. experiences of women in leadership roles within the church These organisations are still more or less divided along racial lines The aim of the fieldwork carried out from 1995 to 1997 and in 2000 was to find out if these racial boundaries would begin to dissolve and if women would find more empowerment in their congregations after the democratisation of the country Further topics are the renaissance of African traditions and religious practices that came about with the end of apartheid The methodology follows an ethnographic approach that relies heavily on interviews and participant observation with the analysis bringing South African women s voices to bear on these issues rather than providing an external and analytical analysis of the issues Missionalia ,2005 Contains abstracts of missiological contributions book reviews and articles International African Bibliography ,1993
