Healing Wounded History Reconciling Peoples And Healing Places:

Healing Wounded History Russ Parker, 2002 Parker argues that in terms of pastoral care and healing it is crucial to approach persons not simply as individuals but as individuals in community He begins by reflecting on the biblical image of healing the land and the related concepts of the power of wounded stories and the witness of confession Parker then considers the roles that confession and apology play in bringing about reconciliation and the healing of relationships at a range of group and institutional levels including family congregation community and nation ThirdWay, 2001-11 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture

Reconciliation and Peace in South Sudan Levi Lukadi Noah, 2012-07-14 This work carried out prior to the creation of The Republic of South Sudan focuses on the Christian perspective of reconciliation and peace in South Sudan In a country gripped in what was set to be until recently Africa's longest running civil war the Sudanese state had been on many occasions inherently unjust repressive and extremely violent against sections of its own citizens resulting in long lasting conflict and war This conflict stretches deep into the history and geography of the region This study investigates people's views and trends to find out whether the end of hostilities would mark the end of interpersonal group tribal and interethnic conflict created by the war It asks are people ready to forgive those who have wronged them during the war without demanding justice What would constitute true peace in Sudan Do the church and the government in Sudan each have a role in bringing sustainable peace Findings of the research show an overwhelming desire for reconciliation and peace but with very different ways of reaching it It is however recognized that to constitute true peace in South Sudan there is need for equality and justice observation of the law democratic governance complete transformation equitable distribution of resources and services and freedom of worship For this to be achieved both the church and government must play critical roles Memories of the war are still fresh in people's minds The government must recognize the trauma people have suffered deal with the roots of the conflict and address the crimes committed so that wounds inflicted can be healed and people can then live harmoniously The church must teach people the biblical understanding of peace and reconciliation through repentance and forgiveness so that peace can have true meaning Mothering the Fatherland George

Faithful, 2014-04-03 How should one respond personally or theologically to genocide committed on one's behalf After the Allied bombing of Darmstadt Germany in 1944 some Lutheran young women perceived their city's destruction as an expression of God's wrath a punishment for Hitler's murder of six million Jews purportedly on behalf of the German people George Faithful tells the story of a number of these young women who formed the Ecumenical Sisterhood of Mary in 1947 in order to embrace lives of radical repentance for the sins of the German people against God and against the Jews Under Mother Basilea Schlink the sisters embraced an ideology of collective national guilt According to Schlink a handful of true Christians were called to lead their nation in repentance interceding and making spiritual sacrifices as priests on its behalf and saving it from looming destruction Schlink explained that these ideas were rooted in her reading of the Hebrew Bible in fact Faithful discovers they also bore the influence of German nationalism Schlink's vision resulted in penitential practices that dominated the life of her community While the women of the sisterhood were subject to each other they elevated themselves and their spiritual authority above that of any male leaders They offered female and gender neutral paradigms of self sacrifice as normative for all Christians Mothering the Fatherland shows how the sisters overturned German Protestant norms for gender roles communal life and nationalism in their pursuit of redemption ThirdWay, 2001-11 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture Roots Matter Paula Owens Parker, 2016-07-15 Roots Matter recognizes the impact of transgenerational trauma as a result of chattel slavery on the African American community It emphasizes the importance of discovering the silent stories those that were overlooked and ignored unearthing the secret stories those that were intentionally covered up and being attentive to the reverberations of the severed stories of slavery and how they influence family history and family members Interrupting the transference of generational trauma through mourning forgiveness and prayers for healing accelerates the transference of generational resilience Through celebration and blessing the fortitude courage and determination in the family narrative moves current and future generations toward healing and wholeness Roots Matter prunes the family tree of trauma the silent secret and severed stories that stunt the growth of the family and tends to family roots fertilizing them with the recognition of the resilience achievements gifts and talents of the ancestors thus creating a healthier environment for future generations to flourish Public administration, democracy and peacebuilding in the Democratic Republic of the Congo Jean Chrysostome K. Kiyala , 2025-08-01 The Democratic Republic of Congo DRC presents a striking paradox vast natural and mineral wealth coexist with persistent poverty weak infrastructure and fragile institutions Kiyala's four part scholarly book explores these tensions aiming to identify practical and effective strategies to address the country's complex challenges To meaningfully confront the DRC's enduring crises Kiyala argues that public administration must engage with key drivers of insecurity and instability These include 1 Employing the Dodd Frank Act's Section 1502 on conflict minerals particularly the impact of the de facto embargo on the 3Ts tin tungsten and tantalum 2 The question of Congolese citizenship for the Banyamulenge Tutsi communities of the DRC and the need for legislative clarity 3 Regional and international collaboration to address ongoing threats to peace such as the remnants of the FDLR and other armed groups 4 The complex integration of the M23 movement and other armed factions into the national army through effective screening vetting and identification processes 5 The revitalisation of transitional justice reconciliation and national healing efforts Without addressing these core issues with resolve and coherent strategies efforts toward lasting peace and sustainable development will remain elusive The book also introduces the peacebuilding evolution systems theory PBEST a novel framework that integrates peacebuilding theory with insights from neuroscience The PBEST emphasises the progressive development of peace from individual disposition to collective global action for domestic and international security Rich in empirical analysis this scholarly work offers significant insights not only for scholars and researchers but also for practitioners and policymakers in African studies political science public administration and conflict resolution Unmasking the Angel Stephen Langford,2025-05-01 This book explores the concept of an angel of the church It begins with the question that so intrigued Walter Wink Why would Jesus ask John to write to an angel in Revelation 2 3 This work develops critiques and expands Wink s answer It does so by taking the historical records of three churches in England s West Country and bringing them into conversation with Wink s understanding of the angel of the church It then goes further by introducing Wink s work to specialists in fields that include architecture demographics and church polity This scholarly conversation creates a matrix within which ministers with pastoral charge might be equipped to explore the spiritual identity or angel of their own congregations Fannie Lou

Hamer's Revolutionary Practical Theology Karen D. Crozier,2020-10-12 In Fannie Lou Hamer s Revolutionary Practical Theology Crozier acknowledges analyses and constructs the civil and human rights leader s Christian thought and practice Commonly known for her political activism Hamer is presented as a religious thought leader whose embodiment of ideas and ideals helped to disrupt and transform the Jim Crow of the South within and beyond electoral politics Through primary source documents of Hamer s oral history interviews autobiographical writings speeches and multimedia publications on or about her life and legacy Crozier allows Hamer to have her say on racial and environmental justice concerns Crozier introduces Hamer as a revolutionary practical theologian who resided on the margins of the church academy and society

Rediscovering the Ministry of Blessing Russ Parker,2014-02-20 The Bible teaches us Russ Parker writes that blessing is a unique ministry resource gifted to believers to effect the purposes of God in peoples lives In this enthralling book the author tells of situations of family estrangement depression and chronic illness of times of hopelessness and helplessness where miraculous transformation has been wrought through calling on God to bless someone with the richest blessing they are able to receive As he has travelled the country teaching on the ministry of blessing Russ has seen an enthusiastic response and uptake especially amongst those involved in prayer ministry He believes it is time for all who want to be part of God s renewal both in church and through reaching out to the wider community Child Soldiers and Restorative Justice Jean

Chrysostome K. Kiyala,2018-07-18 This book investigates how while children used as soldiers are primarily perceived as victims of offences against international law they also commit war atrocities In the aftermath of armed conflict the mainstream justice system targets warlords internationally armed groups and militias commanders who abduct and enrol children as combatants leaving child perpetrators not being held accountable for their alleged gross human rights violations Attempts to prosecute child soldiers through the mainstream justice system have resulted in child rights abuses Where no accountability measures have been taken demobilised young soldiers have experienced rejection and eventually some have returned to soldiering This research provides evidence of the potential of restorative justice peacemaking circles and locally based jurisprudence specifically the Baraza to hold former child soldiers accountable and facilitate their reintegration into society      Rewilding the Church Steve Aisthorpe,2020-07-30 Following on from his bestselling The Invisible Church Steve Aisthorpe finds inspiration for his new book in the ecological concept of rewilding an approach to the environment that allows nature to break free from the dulling effects of strategic control and bring wonder back into our lives Applying this thinking to the Church Steve Aisthorpe imagines what might happen if we put less faith in our strategies and plans which inevitably depend on our own capabilities and resources and allow the Spirit to lead us beyond our capacity to imagine Rewilding the Church explores afresh the compelling invitation of Jesus to Follow me and the call to throw off everything that hinders and entangles It poses provocative questions and issues a call to contribute to the great rewilding of the Church and to be rewilded ourselves The same human instincts that have disrupted our natural environment have also constrained and domesticated the Church and Rewilding the Church commends a rediscovery of the adventure of faith Steve Aisthorpe is one the freshest and most original voices in the church today      Resources for Preaching and Worship-Year A Hannah

Ward,Jennifer Wild,2004-01-01 This is the third volume published in a three volume set of lectionary resources providing preachers and worship leaders of all denominations a host of written material for worship and reflection Designed to complement the three volumes in WJK s acclaimed Texts for Preaching this book weaves together a rich tapestry of quotations meditations poems and prayers With material from both classic and contemporary spiritual writings Resources for Preaching and Worship complements the lectionary readings for Sundays and important festival days in the church s year Biblical and thematic indexes are included      The Church Militant Graham R. Smith,2016-11-08 A worldview of spiritual warfare is widely held among charismatics and Pentecostals but it has been criticized for producing paranoia and denying personal responsibility It is less well known that the term was first used in print around 1970 by Anglican charismatics What did it mean to them then and what are the practical effects of their worldview Should we now be adopting a more sophisticated ontology of evil such as Nigel Wright s non ontological realist view or Amos Yong s apophatic theology of the demonic rather than the traditional one that Satan and demons are real ontological entities This practical theological study begins with a study of Anglican charismatic pioneers and an in depth case study of a charismatic Anglican congregation before grappling with the ontological question in dialogue with Wright together with Barth and Walter Wink Yong and Gregory Boyd A fresh engagement with the biblical texts then argues for a positive realist ontology for rebellious demonic powers and presents a Trinitarian model of spiritual warfare praxis that emphasizes personal responsibility and promotes freedom from fear

Civil Society and Peacebuilding in Sub-Saharan Africa in the Anthropocene Jean Chrysostome K. Kiyala,Geoff Thomas Harris,2022-04-22 This book examines civil society s peacebuilding role in sub Saharan Africa in the context of climate change and the pursuit of environmental peace and justice in the Anthropocene Five main research themes emerge from its 20 chapters The roles of environmental peacemaking environmental justice ecological education and eco ethics in helping to mitigate the impacts of climate change Peacebuilding by CSOs after violent conflicts with particular reference to accountability reconciliation and healing CSO involvement in democratic processes and political transition after violent conflicts Relationships between local CSOs and their foreign funders and the interactions between CSOs and the African Union's peace and security architecture The particular role of faith based CSOs The book underlines the centrality of dialogue to African peacebuilding and the indigenous wisdom and philosophies on which it is based Such wisdom will be a key resource in confronting the existential challenges of the Anthropocene The book will be a significant resource for researchers academics and policymakers concerned with the challenge of climate change its interactions with armed conflict and the peacebuilding role of CSOs This pathbreaking book shows why peacebuilding analysis and efforts need to be urgently re-oriented towards the existential challenges of environmental peace and justice It explains the emerging conceptual frameworks which are needed for this new role It explains the critical role that CSOs local and international will play in implementing this new peacebuilding approach with particular reference to sub-Saharan Africa

Liberating the Will of Australia Geoffrey Burn, 2020-08-03 Why do many First People in Australia find themselves continually under siege Why do many interventions fail to produce what was hoped for Why is it that when there have been many positive developments at some deep level nothing seems to have changed Will the Uluru Statement from the Heart ensure the future security of the First Peoples in Australia By developing strands from Christian theology Liberating the Will of Australia answers these questions in a way that gets to the heart of the problem It is shown that the way that the First Peoples were treated by the first European incomers became an indelible part of what Australia currently is This explains why harm is often done even when good is intended and why some problems are too complex to solve But that does not mean that we need to be stuck in the past through deep repentance by the Subsequent Peoples much more than an apology we can take hold of the work of God to bring new things out of what is broken Ultimately this is profoundly hopeful Although focusing on Australia the theological tools developed can be applied in other colonial and post colonial contexts

Confronting Technology

Matthew T. Prior, 2020-03-16 We are living through a digital revolution which already touches every area of life and will continue to shape the future in as yet unforeseen ways Digital technologies are an ordinary part of daily life and yet they also present an unprecedented challenge to Christians to articulate a biblical theological framework to navigate times of rapid change The work of the French theologian Jacques Ellul is a theological time bomb primed for times like these Accounts of Ellul's career often divide off his sociology and theology but this book argues that Ellul conceived a single project of bringing technology into confrontation with the Word of God tackling the phenomenon he named technique the pursuit of maximal power and efficiency implicit in the technological enterprise with a profound depth of biblical and ethical insight Centering himself on the apocalypse or revelation of Jesus Christ in history Ellul offers a monumental timely though far from flawless contribution to contemporary ethical debates about the uses and abuses of technologies His work blazes a trail that

Christians and all concerned for the future would do well to follow as we avoid both the naivety of technological neutrality and the dread of technological determinism      Bridgebuilding Alastair McKay, 2019-06-30 There is a prevailing culture of niceness within churches which can lead to conflict avoidance suppression and denial Consequently ministers and church leaders often struggle to handle tensions difference and competing demands within their congregations Drawing on practical theology conflict theory family systems theory and experience Bridgebuilding will help church ministers and church members find more fruitful ways of engaging with tensions and conflicts in the life of the Church It offers numerous practical tools for transforming conflict into opportunities for personal and corporate growth It complements the Growing Bridgebuilders training course developed by Bridge Builders with CPAS      Transforming Renewal Andy Lord, 2015-01-12 Pentecostal and charismatic renewal movements have seen great growth over the last century and have engaged with many Christian traditions Yet there are signs that all is not well and there is a need to develop theologies of renewal that engage with practice and across the traditions if the movements are to continue to grow In particular this book seeks an ecumenical engagement between David Watson and Thomas Merton leaders in the charismatic and monastic renewal movements The aim is to reflect on the theological roots of these renewal movements through a study of particular people who lived them in practice and sought to help others understand how the triune God was at work This is done against the wider background of contemporary renewalist theology to develop constructive proposals for renewal theology in the future Receptive ecumenism provides the method for bringing the different voices into conversation in ways that also point forward in approaches to ecumenical dialogue It is thus a study relevant to those seeking new ways in theology those involved in renewal and ecumenical movements students of Thomas Merton and all who seek to better understand the Christian renewal movements that have swept the world      Christian Anthropology ,
