Not Peace But a Sword Stephen Baskerville,2018-08-21 Not Peace But a Sword provides a case study in religious radicalism as exemplified by the Puritanism of the English Revolution Based on sermons preached to the Long Parliament and other political bodies Stephen Baskerville demonstrates how Puritan religious and political ideas transformed the English Civil War into the world's first great modern revolution. To understand why Baskerville analyzes the underlying social changes that gave rise to Puritan radicalism. The Puritan intellectuals developed the sermon into a medium that conveyed not only popular political understanding but also a sophisticated political sociology that articulated a new social and political consciousness. In the process they challenged the traditional political order and created a new order by appealing to the needs and concerns of a people caught up in the problems of rapid social and economic change. The book explores the social psychology behind the rise of Puritanism as the Puritan ministers themselves presented it through textual criticism of their own words, placing them in the mental context of their time and offers a new understanding of the link between religious ideas and revolutionary politics. Great Debates in Equity and Trusts Alastair Hudson, 2014-08-26. This textbook is an ambitious and engaging introduction to the more advanced writings on equity and trusts, primarily designed to allow students to get under the skin of the topic and begin to build their critical thinking and analysis skills. Each chapter is structured around key questions and debates that provoke deeper thought and ultimately a clearer understanding. The aim of the book is therefore not to present a complete overview of theoretical issues in equity and trusts but rather to illustrate the current debates which are currently going on among those working in shaping the area. The text features summaries of the views of notable experts on key topics and each chapter ends with a list of guided further reading. A sketch of the life of John, second marquess of Bute. Repr. principally from 'The Cardiff & Merthyr guardian'. John Crichton-Stuart (2nd marq. of Bute.), 1848. Five Sermons Moses Mitchell, 1848.
