Movie Anecdotes Peter Hay,1991-12-12 Hollywood Walter Winchell quipped is where they shoot too many movies and not enough actors Always looking for an angle always scheming always the scene of clashing egos the movie industry is where they place you under contract instead of observation and if you don't have anything nice to say write it down In 1940 I had my choice between Hitler and Hollywood French director Ren Clair recalled and I preferred Hollywood just a little In Movie Anecdotes Peter Hay treats us to a delightful ride through the world that has captivated audiences for almost a century with stories that are often hilarious sometimes tragic and always entertaining He takes us from the rough and tumble early days when one studio paid Pancho Villa 25 000 to launch his attacks only in daylight after a film crew had set up to the studio era when Joan Crawford refused to cross the street on the MGM lot except in a chauffeured limousine to the shenanigans of today's global industry Here are stories about all the legends Charlie Chaplin Greta Garbo John Barrymore Mae West Lucille Ball Marilyn Monroe Errol Flynn Humphrey Bogart Bette Davis Judy Garland Sophia Loren John Wayne and of course Ronald Reagan There are the great directors from D W Griffith Hitchcock and Eisenstein to Kurosawa Bergman

Visconti Huston Ford and Woody Allen And Hay has selected tales of the writers the wits and the grand moguls including perhaps the largest collection of Goldwynisms both genuine and apocryphal Along with the laughter this volume recreates the conflicts that have torn the movie world from battles over money and contracts to discrimination divorces and scandals Colorful incredible bitter funny the stories about moviemaking are as fantastic as the pictures themselves Now they have been gathered together in an irresistible bouquet that is certain to delight every movie buff and provide fascinating insights for serious students of film King Vidor in Focus Kevin L. Stoehr, Cullen Gallagher, 2024-07-30 King Vidor 1894 1982 had the longest career of any Hollywood director and his works include some of the most dramatic sublime moments in the history of American cinema Regarded by many film historians as one of the greatest of silent era filmmakers especially for masterworks The Big Parade The Crowd and Show People Vidor is nonetheless one of the most underrated of Hollywood s old masters in terms of his overall career His sound era films include Hallelujah Street Scene The Champ The Stranger's Return Our Daily Bread Stella Dallas The Citadel Northwest Passage Duel in the Sun Beyond the Forest The Fountainhead Ruby Gentry and War and Peace He also helped to establish the Screen Directors Guild and served as its first president This book charts the ways in which Vidor's vast complex body of work ranges over diverse genres and styles while also expressing his recurring personal interests in spirituality especially Christian Science aesthetics metaphysics social realism and the myth of America The first book since 1988 to give a comprehensive view of Vidor's career it discusses his artistic evolution in a way that appeals to the general reader as well as to the film scholar Projecting Empire James Chapman, Nicholas J. Cull, 2009-06-17 Popular cinema is saturated with images and narratives of empire With Projecting Empire Chapman and Cull have written the first major study of imperialism and cinema for over thirty years This welcome text maps the history of empire cinema in both Hollywood and Britain through a serious of case studies of popular films including biopics adventures literary adaptations melodramas comedies and documentaries from the 1930s and The Four Feathers to the present with Indiana Jones and Three Kings The authors consider industry wide trends and place the films in their wider cultural and historical contexts Using primary sources that include private papers they look at the presence of particular auteurs in the cinema of Imperialism including Korda Lean Huston and Attenborough as well as the actors who brought the stories to life such as Elizabeth Taylor and George Clooney At a time when imperialism has a new significance in the world this book will fulfil the needs of students and interested filmgoers alike

Allan Dwan and the Rise and Decline of the Hollywood Studios Frederic Lombardi, 2013-03-05 It could be said that the career of Canadian born film director Allan Dwan 1885 1981 began at the dawn of the American motion picture industry Originally a scriptwriter Dwan became a director purely by accident Even so his creativity and problem solving skills propelled him to the top of his profession. He achieved success with numerous silent film performers most spectacularly with Douglas Fairbanks Sr and Gloria Swanson and later with such legendary stars as Shirley Temple and John Wayne Though his star waned in the sound era Dwan managed to survive through pluck and ingenuity Considering himself better off without the fame he enjoyed during the silent era he went on to do some of his best work for second echelon studios notably Republic Pictures Sands of Iwo Jima and such independent producers as Edward Small Along the way Dwan also found personal happiness in an unconventional manner Rich in detail with two columns of text in each of its nearly 400 pages and with more than 150 photographs this book presents a thorough examination of Allan Dwan and separates myth from truth in his life and films The Feature Film Distribution Deal John W. Cones, 1997 John W. Cones whose real goal is to stimulate a long term film industry reform movement shows how the financial control of the film industry in the hands of the major studios and distributors actually translates into creative control of the industry Cones discusses the pros and cons of the debate relating to the industry s so called net profit problem and the way in which the distribution deal plays an integral part in that problem He then breaks down five major film finance distribution scenarios explaining various distribution deals and suggesting ways of negotiating distribution Critically examining the specific terms of the distribution deal itself Cones covers gross receipts exclusions distributor fees and distribution expenses He also investigates the various forms of interest issues of production costs matters of creative control and general contractual provisions For handy reference Cones includes an extensive checklist for negotiating any feature film distribution deal The list deals with distribution fees distribution expenses interest production costs creative control issues general contractual provisions distributor commitments and the limits of negotiating His nine appendixes present a Motion Picture Industry Overview Profit Participation Audit Firms ADI Top 50 Market Rankings an AFMA Member List 1992 1993 a Production Financing Distribution Agreement a Negative Pickup Distribution Agreement a Distribution Rights Acquisition Agreement a Distribution Agreement Rent a Distributor Deal and a Foreign Distribution Agreement Cones wrote this book for independent producers executive and associate producers and their representatives directors actors screenwriters members of talent guilds distributors and entertainment antitrust and securities attorneys Securities issuers and dealers investment bankers and money finders investors and financiers of every sort also will be interested In addition Cones suggests and hopes that the book will interest Congress their research staff government regulators at the Internal Revenue Service the Securities and Exchange Commission the Federal Trade Commission and law enforcement officials such as the Los Angeles District Attorney and the U S Justice Department
