Bowker Company. Publications Systems Department, 1983 Shoe and Leather Reporter , 1889 Steady The Buffs! Mark Connelly, 2006-11-30 This book fully revises standard regimental history by establishing the framework and background to the regiment's role in the Great War It tests the current theories about the British army in the war and some of the conclusions of modern military historians In recent years a fascinating reassessment of the combat performance of the British Army in the Great War has stressed the fact that the British Army ascended a learning curve during the conflict resulting in a modern military machine of awesome power Research carried out thus far has been on a grand scale with very few examinations of smaller units This study of the battalion of the Buffs has tested these theoretical ideas The central questions addressed in this study are The factors that dominated the officer man relationship during the war How identity and combat efficiency was maintained in the light of heavy casualties The relative importance of individual characters to the efficiency of a battalion as opposed to the managerial structures of the BEF The importance of brigade and division to the performance of a battalion The effective understanding and deployment of new weapons The reactions of individual men to the trials of war The personal and private reactions of the soldiers communities in Kent Using previously uncovered material this book adds a significant new chapter to our understanding of the British army on the Western Front and the way its home community in East Kent reacted to experience It reveals the way in which the regiment adjusted to the shock of modern warfare and the bloody learning curve the Buffs ascended as they shared the British Expeditionary Force's march towards final victory Historical Records of The Buffs East Kent Regiment R. S. H. Moody, 2020-09-28 In the early hours of Tuesday morning the 5th August 1914 the British Foreign Office issued this statement Owing to the summary rejection by the German Government of the request made by His Majesty's Government for assurances that the neutrality of Belgium will be respected His Majesty's Ambassador at Berlin has received his passports and His Majesty's Government have declared to the German Government that a state of war exists between Great Britain and Germany as from 11 p m on the 4th August Thus was the British Empire officially informed that the Great War had at last come upon Europe Actually the Government had given orders for the mobilization of the Army some eight hours earlier at 4 p m on the 4th so that at that hour on that day this history properly begins The war took Great Britain by surprise This does not mean that England was totally unprepared for such an eventuality though comparatively small our land forces were in a condition of readiness and efficiency never before equalled Nor does it mean that the idea of a war with Germany was new through many years its likelihood had been canvassed and openly speculated upon both by soldiers headed by the veteran Earl Roberts and politicians But it does mean that the man in the street did not think it would come in our time and certainly no one could see any possible connection between the assassination of the Archduke Franz Ferdinand and his Consort at Serajevo on 28th June and an international war on a vast scale The British temperament is not in its nature warlike Englishmen do not soldier like some from a sheer love of soldiering That is why the mass of the nation has always been steadily averse to conscription In spite of warnings it was willing to take the risk preferring quality to quantity where its army was concerned It is perhaps well to give here in this introductory in order to link up the story that is to follow with the past history of the regiment a brief outline of the changes which went to the making of the British Army as it was at the beginning of hostilities and the situation which led to the war The South African War had brought it home to the Government that the system initiated in 1871 failed to meet modern needs in certain fundamental respects It was realized that drastic reforms were overdue that new methods were essential The work of reorganization was undertaken by Mr now Lord Haldane then Secretary of State for War it was made all the more imperative by the aggressive and openly ambitious imperialism of Germany Whilst still relying in the first instance on her naval supremacy England could no longer think in terms of small forces fighting in far flung corners of her mighty Empire The danger loomed nearer home and the possibility of a British force at grips with a foe across the narrow seas had to be faced nay more it had to be provided for and planned against An agreement was made with France our ancient enemy on many a bloody field and the General Staffs of the two countries explored the measures necessary for the defence of the frontiers from the sea to the Vosges The Poultry Item ,1920 Forest and Stream ,1899 The Dog Fancier Eugene Glass,1903 The Feathered World ,1908 How to Paint Your Car on a Budget Pat Ganahl,2006 If your car needs new paint or even just a touch up the cost involved in hiring a professional can be more than you bargained for Fortunately there are less expensive alternatives you can even paint your car at home In How to Paint Your Car On A Budget author and veteran DIY hot rodder Pat Ganahl unveils dozens of secrets that will help anyone paint their own car From simple scuff and squirt jobs to full on door jambs and everything paint jobs Ganahl covers everything you need to know to get a great looking coat of paint on your car and save lots of money in the process This book covers painting equipment the ins and outs of prep masking painting and sanding products and techniques and real world advice on how to budget wisely when painting your own car It s the most practical automotive painting book ever written The Scottish Farmer ,1926
