The Works of Edgar Allan Poe: On novels, essays, and travels. Margonalia Edgar Allan Poe,1895 Faulkner's Hollywood Novels

Ben Robbins,2024-08-12 Tracing the influence of Faulkner s screenwriting on his literary craft and depictions of women William Faulkner s time as a Hollywood screenwriter has often been dismissed as little more than an intriguing interlude in the career of one of America s greatest novelists Consequently it has not received the wide ranging critical examination it deserves In Faulkner s Hollywood Novels Ben Robbins provides an overdue thematic analysis by systematically tracing a dialogue of influence between Faulkner s literary fiction and screenwriting over a period of two decades Among numerous insights Robbins s work sheds valuable new light on Faulkner s treatment of female characters both in his novels and in the films to which he contributed Drawing on extensive archival research Robbins finds that Hollywood genre conventions and archetypes significantly influenced and reshaped Faulkner s craft after his involvement in the studio system His work in the film industry also produced a deep exploration of the gendered dynamics of collaborative labor genre formulae and cultural hierarchies that materialized in both his Hollywood screenplays and his experimental fiction The 'I' of the Camera

William Rothman,2004 Originally published in 1988 The I of the Camera has become a classic in the literature of film Offering alternatives to the viewing and criticism of film William Rothman challenges readers to think about film in adventurous ways that are more open to movies and our experience of them In a series of eloquent essays examining particular films filmmakers genres and movements and the Americanness of American film Rothman argues compellingly that movies have inherited the philosophical perspective of American transcendentalism This second edition contains all of the essays that made the book a benchmark of film criticism It also includes fourteen essays written subsequent to the book s original publication as well as a new foreword The new chapters further broaden the scope of the volume fleshing out its vision of film history and illuminating the author s critical method and the philosophical perspective that informs it

Creatures of Darkness Gene D. Phillips, 2021-03-17 An exhaustively researched survey of Raymond Chandler's thorny relationship with Hollywood during the classic period of film noir Alain Silver film producer and author Raymond Chandler's seven novels including The Big Sleep 1939 and The Long Goodbye 1953 with their pessimism and grim realism had a direct influence on the emergence of film noir Chandler worked to give his crime novels the flavor of his adopted city Los Angeles which was still something of a frontier town rife with corruption and lawlessness In addition to novels Chandler wrote short stories and penned the screenplays for several films including Double Indemnity 1944 and Strangers on a Train 1951 His work with Billy Wilder and Alfred Hitchcock on these projects was fraught with the difficulties of collaboration between established directors and an author who disliked having to edit his writing on demand Creatures of Darkness is the first major biocritical study of Chandler in twenty years Gene Phillips explores Chandler's unpublished script for Lady in the Lake examines the process of adaptation of the novel Strangers on a Train discusses the merits of the unproduced screenplay for Playback and compares Howard Hawks's director's cut of The Big Sleep with the version shown in theaters Through interviews he conducted with Wilder Hitchcock Hawks and Edward Dmytryk over the past several decades Phillips provides deeper insight into Chandler's sometimes difficult personality Chandler's wisecracking private eye Philip Marlowe has spawned a thousand imitations Creatures of Darkness lucidly explains the author's dramatic impact on both the literary and cinematic worlds demonstrating the immeasurable debt that both detective fiction and the neo noir films of today owe to Chandler's stark vision

True to the Spirit Colin MacCabe, Rick Warner, Kathleen Murray, 2011 Spanning examples from Shakespeare to Ghost World and addressing such notable directors as Welles Kubrick Hawks Tarkovsky and Ophüls the contributors to this volume write against the grain of recent adaption studies by investigating the question of what fidelity might mean in its broadest and truest sense and what it might reveal of the adaptive process
