characters of Aboriginal Protectors William Thomas and his Chief George Robinson form the backbone of this compilation. With this ethnographic material we learn something of the Kulin worldview into this mostly white fella history. Sounding 1 Before 1840 describes the initial British and European experiences, events, observations, intentions, self-serving judgements, ignorance, naivete, treachery and so on when they found Oz and proclaimed the continent theirs by the now obvious fiction of terra nullius, Latin legalese for land belonging to no people. The reader may enjoy separating the grains of truth from the chaff, propaganda of Empire, capitalism or racist sectarian Christian bible dogma that was the self-serving mindset of the white land takers. Batman and Fawkner's land hunting deals with local Kooris along with the re-emergence of the remarkable wild white castaway Buckley made their mark on the first settlement at Melbourne. The focus widens in 1836 with Surveyor General Major Mitchell's and his Wuradjuri guides conquering the interior from the Murray near Mildura to the Western District at Portland and then back north-east across the state to the Murray upstream at Albury. His wheel tracks opened up Victoria from the north. First contact, race interactions at Port Phillip and the notion of cultural coexistence during the first five years leads to the role of successful battler and publican Fawkner in the colonial invasion process from Kulin country to sheep run to city. Sounding 1 then winds up with Melbourne's first executions and descriptions of Port Phillip as the money melting pot forming the Melbourne hub of world capitalism. Twentieth century academic studies now identify native religion, language zones, tribal locations and clan heads at the time of dispossession by pirate capitalism. In describing the Australian land rush, the chapter echoes, oscillates between history, sociology, race theory, trade and class wars, whaling and sealing, imperialism and the monopoly East India Company, army mates all pitted against the vanishing race of hunter-gathering savages. The dispossession was virtually complete in Victoria before the 1850's gold rushes transformed the sheep runs into banker's dividend wealth for the winners. Sounding 2 DISPOSSESSION AT MELBOURNE. Sounding 2 unfolds gently with a wistful early Melbourne memoir involving Batman's lost lawyer Gellibrand in 1836 but then we confront the frontier kill or be killed point of necessity. The violent life times and fate of mass murderer Fred Taylor who was first employed as overseer for banker Swanston's Bellarine peninsula land grab sets the local dispossession tone. Taylor's repeated atrocities today exposes a credibility gap in Oz between civilized progress and slaughter that now looms over all else in Victoria's birth as an independent state in 1851. The winter of 1837 saw the first violent death of a white squatter and his servant by savage natives north-west of Williamstown at Mt Cottrell. Town leaders such as Fawkner and police chief Henry Batman formed a posse that also included clan heads from both the Melbourne and Geelong tribal areas. Buckley refused to take part in the vigilante party and its punitive actions belied the humanitarian standards expressed in Batman's treaty deed. This revenge slaughter and destruction of villages by the white invaders forced the Sydney government to investigate and so began administering law and order at Port Phillip. By 1838 Sydney trumped Batman's land grab and the penal government of NSW on the one hand executing eight whites for killing what the newspapers called savages while on the other hand providing sufficient speedy cavalry to tackle black resistance in Victoria at places such as west of Colac and near Benalla after the Faithfull massacre The arrival in 1839 of first governor La Trobe and the Aboriginal Protectorate plan then unfolds the development of town civic structures while tribal life disintegrates Government and private measures to tame the naked Melbourne natives culminated with the dawn Merri Creek round up in October 1840 of hundreds of Kulin by Major Lettsom s redcoats and townsmen This appears as the death blow to tribal life and with the first shiploads of migrating British colonists arriving in 1841 near genocide for the Kulin Mara Kurnai and Murray River first peoples Ghostly Parallels Randolph Runyon,2006 America s most eminent man of letters in his later years and certainly one of the greatest Southern writers Robert Penn Warren has increasingly come to be known for his poetry Ghostly Parallels is a close examination of the heart of his poetic corpus the eight collections published between 1935 and 1976 Thirty Six Poems Eleven Poems on the Same Theme Promises You Emperors and Others Tale of Time Incarnations Or Else and Can I See Arcturus from Where I Stand Ghostly Parallels shows how Warren constructed collections of poems based on common subjects and contexts and also contends that while the poems are distinctive taken together they reveal intricate patterns of theme imagery and diction within explicit sequences Runyon demonstrates that Warren s collections are integrated well crafted wholes and each poem references its predecessor sometimes in intriguingly self referential ways Runyon shows that despite the many changes in diction tone and subject that Warren underwent in his long career his concern for writing his poems in such a way that they could reach out beyond themselves to other poems remained remarkably constant In the arrangement Warren gave them his poems form ghostly parallels an expression that appears in The Return An Elegy where they refer to the railroad tracks that bring the poet home to his dying mother This return to the mother is a persistent leitmotif in the poems and forms the other major theme of this study Warren s personal poetic myth in which such images as golden light and mirror images are signs of the mother s presence as both Danae mother of Perseus and Medusa whom Perseus confronted Through pursuing sequential patterns as well as echoes and myth GhostlyParallels brings a wealth of insights to the work of this prolific novelist critic and essayist An important guide for undergraduate and graduate students alike Ghostly Parallels will also appeal to anyone with an interest in Robert Penn Warren and southern literature Ravenstone M.S. who employed them on this precarious quest and as the Priagent marches toward his goal a second Cataclysm is imminent Yet even he is driven by another a darker force that has yet to reveal itself The Ravenstone s ominous Shadow obscures the fate of Secramore and unless the threat is vanquished none will be spared the curse of its darkness The Poetic Vision of Robert Penn Warren Victor H. Strandberg,2021-12-14 Though it has won the Pulitzer Prize the National Book Award and the Bollingen Prize the poetry of Robert Penn Warren still is not widely or well understood In this study Victor H Strandberg redresses this imbalance by providing a comprehensive survey of the poetic canon of this gifted complex and much neglected poet Warren writes in the tradition of Western poets concerned with the painful experience of a forced one way passage from innocence into the world s stew of time and loss This passage Strandberg explains results for Warren in bifurcation of the self into warring segments a clean idealistic surface ego and a polluted undiscovered self in the unconscious Revelation of the dirty part of human personality is tellingly evoked in many of Warren s major works As the poet s vision expands however these conflicting elements are unified in a mystic osmosis of being whereby the world which once provoked fear and disgust may now be totally loved In addition to close analysis both of individual poems and of the poet s overall development Strandberg reviews critical opinion of Warren s poetry over the last three decades and assesses his place among fellow poets Both as prophecy and as art he concludes Robert Penn Warren s poetry is so significant versatile and excellent as to rank him among the finest and most fertile talents of his age Our Irish Song Birds Charles William Benson,1901 Curse of the Ravenstone M.S.
