Karl Widerquist,2018-12-29 At least six different Universal Basic Income UBI experiments are underway or planned right

experiments Yet there seems to be more interest simply in having UBI experiments than in exactly what we want to learn from them Although experiments can produce a lot of relevant data about UBI they are crucially limited in their ability to enlighten our understanding of the big questions that bear on the discussion of whether to implement UBI as a national or regional policy And past experience shows that results of UBI experiments are particularly vulnerable misunderstanding sensationalism and spin This book examines the difficulties of conducting a UBI experiment and reporting the results in ways that successfully improve public understanding of the probable effects of a national UBI The book makes recommendations how researchers reporters citizens and policymakers can avoid these problems and get the most out of UBI experiments

Critical Essays on Hawthorne's Short Stories Albert J. Von Frank,1991 The Half-vanished Structure Magnus Ullén,2004 This book takes issue with the tendency in twentieth century Hawthorne criticism to blur the distinction between symbolism and allegory Rejecting the long standing notion that Hawthorne is a symbolist in allegorical disguise Ullén argues that allegory is the key to understanding how religion sexuality aesthetics and politics are interwoven in Hawthorne's writings The study presents a model for allegorical interpretation of general applicability which is brought to bear on each of Hawthorne's mature romances and on the oft neglected Wonder Books written for children An unparalleled analysis of the formal intricacies of Hawthorne's writings this book is an eloquent plea for the necessity of grounding ideological analysis in aesthetical considerations Hawthorne's Histories, Hawthorne's World Michael J. Colacurcio,2022-05-17 Hawthorne's Histories Hawthorne's World picks up Hawthorne where The Province of Piety left him extending the historical and theological reading there developed of the early Puritan and revolutionary tales Hawthorne wrote in birthplace Salem on to the contemporary tales sketches essays and finally four published romances based on his stays in Brook Farm Boston Concord Lenox Salem Liverpool and Rome A collection of essays rather than a single continuously argued monograph Hawthorne's Histories Hawthorne's World collects together the essays Professor Colacurcio has written on Hawthorne since the publication of his ground breaking Province of Piety elaborating and refining his analyses of how Hawthorne's most memorable early tales do history but proceeding then to explore the later productions of that author's distinguished career The result in Colacurcio's patient analysis is something like Hawthorne's history of his own times Hawthorne's the Marble Faun Richard E. Mezo,1999-05 Since its publication in 1860 critics have questioned the artistic value of Hawthorne's The Marble Faun A revival of critical interest during the 1950's and 1960's has done little to change a generally unfavorable opinion of the work With a few notable exceptions most recent critics believe The Marble Faun to be inferior to Hawthorne's other completed romances Such opinions however usually seem to be based upon the personal taste of the individual critic rather than upon any sort of objective artistic standards The purpose of this study is to examine and evaluate the various critical approaches to The Marble Faun These interpretations provide the basis for a re-appraisal of the work A study of the structure the main themes and the characters of The Marble Faun reveals that it is not an inferior work of art In many respects The Marble Faun reflects the maturity of Hawthorne's artistic and philosophical beliefs The Marble Faun is a work capable of standing on its own merits Some critics have misunderstood Hawthorne's aesthetic principles Hawthorne thought that art should be used to suggest moral values The power of art he believed was in its suggestiveness The creation of an ideal beauty which has no exact counterpart in the material world suggests the reality of an unknowable divine providence However the value of a work of art depends upon the mood of the viewer The viewer must assist the artist with his sympathy and imagination in an act of continual creation The work of art will reflect back only those qualities which are brought to it by the viewer Hawthorne's view of life is similar to the philosophy expressed by modern Christian existentialists Throughout his writings Hawthorne's concern for humanity is evident In The Marble Faun Hawthorne explores a problem which has become almost an obsession of modern man This problem is the question of man's moral position in what seems to be a meaningless if not hostile universe The most important theme of The Marble Faun is a consideration of the consequences of man's alienation from other men from God and from nature The structure and the themes of The Marble Faun are developed through the actions of the major characters Hilda Miriam Donatello and Kenyon are each transformed by a fall from relative innocence into a world of suffering humanity Donatello's transformation from faun to man is more striking than the transformations of the other three characters and it is his fall which leads to the question of the felix culpa Although Hilda and Kenyon are ultimately less mature characters than Donatello and Miriam they also benefit from their experiences in Rome Hawthorne's belief in the brotherhood of all men is demonstrated by the experiences of the major characters in The Marble Faun Whether or not it is their wish each of these characters must accept the responsibility for his own actions and each must become involved with humanity It is Hawthorne's deep concern for the human condition profoundly expressed in his art which makes The Marble Faun a work of enduring importance to our civilization
