Richard Sheffield

He Is Risen He Is Risen Indeed:

The Lord Is Risen He Is Risen Indeed! He Really Is Richard Sheffield, 1998 Richard Sheffield's preaching is stimulating and unique. Whenever I am burdened or under pressure his pithy insights into the Gospel of our Lord refresh my spirit. They sometimes also sting my soul to pay attention to more significant things in life than preoccupying problems. He is also a courageous preacher when he says things we all think or doubt and dare not to express. He handles life's misgivings kindly and cleanly so that listening to him is a religious experience. This comes about because he came to the temple of religion through the corridors of commerce and knows the real world of his laymen. Under his gentle manner there is the fire of Peter Thomas and St Paul, all of whom also preached with integrity and conviction. Bryant Kirkland, Minister Emeritus, Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York, New York. At first glance the Easter title may seem out of place for a book half full of sermons for Lent. But Richard Sheffield argues and preaches that the sermon for Easter Day is really the sermon for every day in the life of a Christian. The Lord Is Risen is really the only sermon we have or need to have. How we live out our lives in response to that central fact of our faith fills the sermons in Lent as well as Easter with hope. Hope in the here and now as well as in the hereafter. Rev Sheffield has little patience with those who would turn the good news about God into the bad news about us, and it shows. He writes: Belief is more than just ascertaining the facts and figures of faith. Or figuring out the best way to keep God happy long enough to get into heaven. Belief is living life now, certain of the love of God in Jesus Christ for you and me. Living life unafraid even of death itself. Richard L. Sheffield is senior pastor of Market Street Presbyterian Church, Lima, Ohio. He holds a Master of Divinity degree from Princeton Theological Seminary and an M.B.A. degree from the University of Chicago. He is a candidate for the Doctor of Ministry degree at Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary.

Religious Dramas, 1924-1926 Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America. Committee on Religious Drama, 1926. Hey Joseph! Arley K. Fadness, 2005. Create stimulating family-oriented Lenten worship that captivates the imagination with this engaging dramatic series. Six humorous sketches interwoven with brief homilies highlighting key points update the familiar Old Testament story of Joseph and his brothers for contemporary audiences, providing an instructive and entertaining resource for midweek programs. Additional messages and dramas for Holy Week and Easter Sunday shift the focus to Jesus suffering, death, and resurrection. By touching on such universal experiences as family squabbles, sibling rivalry, parental favoritism, jealousy, hatred, false accusations, reconciliation, trust, and healing, Hey Joseph! is certain to resonate with the people in the pews. It offers pastors, worship leaders, and drama groups a thematically unified total package that's flexible and easy to adapt for any size church. A complete list of simple props is included along with helpful illustrations for constructing Joseph's Granary, which may be stocked with food donations for local pantries. Even as the congregation chuckled at Joseph in disguise and related to the siblings' rivalry, they were already looking forward to the next week's drama. Arley Fadness's characters give life to Old Testament stories through humor and innovation and always with a message of
