Henry Justin Smith,1923 Keeping the Faith Alf McCreary,2024-05-16 An award winning Belfast journalist reflects on reporting Northern Ireland s Troubles global conflicts and the complex interplay between religion and journalism In this book the award winning Belfast journalist and author reflects on a long career of reporting on the main events in Northern Ireland over the past sixty years and on the aftermath of conflicts in the developing world including Sri Lanka Cambodia Vietnam and Rwanda He covered the worst of the Troubles from the beginning in 1968 69 and reported on some of the most disturbing atrocities such as Bloody Sunday the Kingsmills Massacre and the no warning IRA explosion at the Enniskillen Cenotaph on Remembrance Sunday He has seen religion at its worst and its best and he observes how the Christian faith has sustained so many people in times of great suffering and distress and how the mis practice of this faith has led to division misunderstanding and hostility The author also reflects on his experience of reporting on well known figures in Northern Ireland ranging from Gordon and Joan Wilson whose daughter Marie died in the Enniskillen Cenotaph bomb to the Reverend Ian Paisley He also writes about the courageous and often unheralded bridge builders including the Reverend Dr Ray Davey the World War II veteran and a Presbyterian minister who founded Corrymeela the Christian inter church centre and who was light years ahead of his church and his society in seeing the urgent need for reconciliation The author offers telling insights into well known individuals in a society with no easy answers to challenging problems and asks why the Christian message has been so badly represented by all the main churches He questions the role of journalists over decades when balanced reporting was so important but at times very difficult and suggests that truth has never been more in danger than it is today His journey of faith through the unholy alliance between religion and politics does not make for easy reading but he still retains his personal faith in the best of human nature which can shine through inspiringly even in the worst of times
