Healing The Earth A Theocentric Perspective On Environmental Problems And Their Solutions:

Healing the Earth Richard A. Young,1994 Christianity has been charged with being a key factor in the environmental crises experienced across the world Young considers these charges in the light of a biblical understanding of creation and humankind's place therein and argues that when Scripture is properly interpreted the God centered perspective that results actually provides the best foundation for confronting and solving environmental problems Christianity and Ecological

Theology E. M. Conradie,2006-10-01 There has been a proliferation of publications in the field of Christian ecological theology over the last three decades or so These include a number of recent edited volumes each covering a range of topics and consolidating many of the emerging insights in ecological theology The call for Christian churches to respond to the environmental crisis has been reiterated numerous times in this vast corpus of literature also in South Africa

Environmental Health Perspectives ,1994 Ecotheology and the Practice of Hope Anne Marie Dalton, Henry C. Simmons,2010-09-29 Is there any hope for a more sustainable world Can we reimagine a way of living in which the nonhuman world matters Anne Marie Dalton and Henry C Simmons claim that the ecotheology that arose during the mid twentieth century gives us reason for hope While ecotheologians acknowledge that Christianity played a significant role in creating societies in which the nonhuman world counted for very little these thinkers have refocused religion to include the natural world To borrow philosopher Charles Taylor's concept they have created a new social imaginary reimagining a better world and a different sense of what is and what should be A new mindset is emerging inspired by ecotheological texts and evident in the many diverse movements and activities that operate as if the hope imparted by ecotheology has already been realized While making this powerful argument Dalton and Simmons also provide an essential overview of key ecotheological thinkers and texts Nature and Altering It Allen Verhey,2010-11-09 In this penetrating book Allen Verhey deftly unpacks the underlying human narratives or myths through which Western culture perceives nature and he presents the biblical narrative as an alternative story that can help shape a very different ethos for nature and altering it Although Christian Scripture has often been accused of nurturing arrogance toward nature Verhey looks at the Bible in a way that moves beyond those accusations and demonstrates the value of the Christian narrative for contemporary ecological ethics Book jacket

Essays on the Land, Ecotheology, and Traditions in Africa Benjamin Abotchie Ntreh, Mark S. Aidoo, Daniel Nii Aboagye Aryeh,2019-08-21 The book explores how African Christians in Ghana can think eco theologically about the nexus of mining waste pollution water pollution and land degradation In 2017 the government of Ghana banned illegal mining and declared war against any activity that does not complement environmental protection and conservation of natural resources The Christian church needs academic resources to support the campaign against the destruction of the land water bodies and environment The papers presented generate theological imaginations in shaping the political campaign against the destruction of the land and the environment Reflection on areas related to the theme includes The Concept of Land in the

Gottlieb, 1996 This is the first comprehensive survey of the critical connections between religion nature and the environment It includes writings from sacred texts and a broad spectrum of new eco theological selections Historical and contemporary selections from key authors and a multicultural range of sources make This Sacred Earth an invaluable teaching resource and a unique introduction to the theory and practice of religious environmentalism For the Beauty of the Earth Steven Bouma-Prediger, 2010-04 This substantially revised and updated edition provides the most thorough evangelical treatment available on a theology of creation care Journal of Biblical and Theological Studies, Issue 2.1 Daniel S. Christianity struggles to show how living on Earth matters for living with God While people of faith increasingly seek practical ways to respond to the environmental crisis theology has had difficulty contextualizing the crisis and interpreting the responses In Ecologies of Grace Willis Jenkins presents a field shaping introduction to Christian environmental ethics that offers resources for renewing theology Observing how religious environmental practices often draw on concepts of grace Jenkins maps the way Christian environmental strategies draw from traditions of salvation as they engage the problems of environmental ethics By being particularly sensitive to the ways in which environmental problems are made intelligible to Christian moral experience Jenkins guides his readers toward a fuller understanding of Christianity and ecology He not only makes sense of the variety of Christian environmental ethics but by showing how environmental issues come to the heart of Christian experience prepares fertile ground for theological renewal The Greening of Theology Steven Bouma-Prediger,1995 This volume examines the contributions of three contemporary theologians Rosemary Radford Ruether Joseph Sittler and Jurgen Moltmann to the development of Christian ecological theology Against the charge that the Christian tradition is ecologically bankrupt the author demonstrates the intellectual and spiritual resources available within Christianity for addressing ecological issues Of particular interest are Ruether s doctrine of God and her emphasis on ecojustice Sittler s cosmic Christology and reconception of the relation between nature and grace and Moltmann s doctrine of the Holy Spirit and argument for social trinitarianism Beyond evaluating the issues raised by Ruether Sittler and Moltmann the author presents sixteen theses or desiderata for any adequate Christian ecological theology The Sacredness of Human Life David P.
