The Handbook of Interior Architecture and Design Graeme Brooker, Lois Weinthal, 2013-10-24 The Handbook of Interior Architecture and Design offers a compelling collection of original essays that seek to examine the shifting role of interior architecture and interior design and their importance and meaning within the contemporary world Interior architecture and interior design are disciplines that span a complexity of ideas ranging from human behaviour and anthropology to history and the technology of the future Approaches to designing the interior are in a constant state of flux reflecting and adapting to the changing systems of history culture and politics It is this process that allows interior design to be used as evidence for identifying patterns of consumption gender identity and social issues The Handbook of Interior Architecture and Design provides a pioneering overview of the ideas and arrangements within the two disciplines that make them such important platforms from which to study the way humans interact with the space around them Covering a wide range of thought and research the book enables the reader to investigate fully the changing face of interior architecture and interior design while offering questions about their future trajectory Lost City Lauraleigh O'Meara,2013-12-16 F Scott Fitzgerald left behind a substantial body of work on New York yet his city remains in our time terra incognita talked about but rarely well met Lost City takes on this important and under examined indeed misunderstood and misrepresented aspect of Fitzgerald s writing The author shows that Fitzgerald s geography amounts to more than the Plaza Hotel and a wasteland His writing depicts a variety of districts and neighborhoods His is not the New York of the Roaring Twenties Locating Fitzgerald s Literary Trauma Deborah M. Horvitz,2000-11-02 Examines representations of political psychological and sexual violence in seven novels by American women Literary Research and the American Realism and Naturalism Period Linda L. Stein,Peter J.
