Educate Agitate Organize One Hundred Years Of Fabian Socialism:

Educate, Agitate, Organize Library Editions: Political Science Volume 59 Patricia Pugh, 2013-04-15 This volume describes the way in which the Fabian Society works the distinctive contributions of individuals to that work the structure they have built and the methods they have evolved to facilitate their labours Some Fabians are dedicated to shaping economic and social policies speaking or writing about them and devising the political strategy by which they may be put into practice The author consulted original material which was available for the first time which has augmented former descriptions of the society and placed incidents in a new setting Educate, Agitate, Organize Patricia Pugh, 2010 The tide of democracy Alastair Reid, 2013-07-19 This comprehensive study examines British shipbuilding and industrial relations from 1870 to 1950 addressing economic social and political history to provide an holistic approach to industry trade unionism and the early history of the Labour Party Examining the impact of new machinery of independent rank and file movements and of craft and trade unions The Tide of Democracy provides an authoritative account of industrial action in shipyards in the period and their effect on the birth and development of the Labour Party This volume is clearly presented elegantly written and suffused with a distinctly human touch which brings the technical material to life Unique in the combined attention it gives to Scottish and English history and drawing upon an impressive range of primary sources this volume will be indispensable for specialist researchers undergraduates and postgraduate students Bernard Shaw and Beatrice Webb on Poverty and Equality in the Modern World, 1905-1914 Peter Gahan, 2017-02-23 This book investigates how alongside Beatrice Webb's ground breaking pre World War One anti poverty campaigns George Bernard Shaw helped launch the public debate about the relationship between equality redistribution and democracy in a developed economy The ten years following his great 1905 play on poverty Major Barbara present a puzzle to Shaw scholars who have hitherto failed to appreciate both the centrality of the idea of equality in major plays like Getting Married Misalliance and Pygmalion and to understand that his major political work 1928's The Intelligent Woman's Guide to Socialism and Capitalism had its roots in this period before the Great War As both the era's leading dramatist and leader of the Fabian Society Shaw proposed his radical postulate of equal incomes as a solution to those twin scourges of a modern industrial society poverty and inequality Set against the backdrop of Beatrice Webb's famous Minority Report of the Royal Commission on the Poor Law 1905-1909 a publication which led to grass roots campaigns against destitution and eventually the Welfare State this book considers how Shaw worked with Fabian colleagues Sidney and Beatrice Webb and H G Wells to explore through a series of major lectures prefaces and plays the social economic political and even religious implications of human equality as the basis for modern democracy Empire in Question Antoinette Burton, 2011-05-03 Essays written by Antoinette Burton since the mid 1990s trace her thinking about modern British history and engage debates about how to think about British imperialism in light of contemporary events Ideas and Think Tanks in Contemporary Britain Michael David Kandiah, Anthony

Seldon, 2013-10-23 This study looks at the influence of ideas and think tanks in Britain contemplating how ideas have shaped politics and society The purveyors of ideas for change the think tanks are examined and academics and participants views are recorded in a number of interviews Ideas and Think Tanks in Contemporary Britain Michael Kandiah, Anthony Seldon, 1996 This study looks at the influence of ideas and think tanks in Britain contemplating how ideas have shaped politics and society The purveyors of ideas for change the think tanks are examined and academics and participants views are recorded in a number of interviews 1992, Shaw and the Last Hundred Years Bernard Frank Dukore, 1994 In 1892 the first production of Bernard Shaw's first play Widowers Houses heralded the birth of modern drama in the English language One hundred years later a group of Shavians gathered to examine the significance and influence of Shaw's drama in the English speaking world The conference sponsored by Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University brought together theater scholars critics and artists from Canada England Ireland and the United States The conference also featured productions of The Shewing up of Blanco Posnet The Man of Destiny and Farfetched Tales each followed by a symposium The centennial conference not only marked the importance of the event but also stimulated new ways of regarding that historic moment reexaminations of the significance of Shaw's plays and explorations of their consequences Some speakers reevaluated the genesis of the first production of Widowers Houses and its social cultural and theatrical context Some brought to bear on the subject of Shavian drama recent critical perspectives such as feminism deconstructionism and the type of close textual and intertextual scrutiny seldom accorded Shaw Others explored his impact in England America Ireland and the Antipodes Still others examined the relationship of comedy and ideas subtext and how this Victorian dramatist remains pertinent today The conference concluded with a symposium that aimed to assess what might lie ahead for Shaw on page and stage in the next hundred years This volume records the proceedings of the conference as well as reviews and the continuing checklist of Shaviana Contributors are Peter Barnes Charles A Berst Montgomery Davis Bernard F Dukore Martin Esslin Joanne E Gates Nicholas Grene Christopher Innes Katherine E Kelly Frederick P W McDowell Rhoda Nathan Christopher Newton Michael O Hara Jean Reynolds Irving Wardle Stanley Weintraub and J L Wisenthal Mrs Brown is a Man and a Brother Krista Cowman, 2004-01-01 This book offers the first detailed regional study of women's politics in the United Kingdom in the period before the First World War Its purpose is to investigate how women's politics functioned at the grass roots away from the schisms and personality clashes of the national political scene The book investigates the membership activities and campaigning methodologies of a variety of formal political organizations ranging from branches of national auxiliary bodies such as the Women's Liberal Federation through women's involvement in local branches of the Independent Labor Party and on to the autonomous suffrage organizations The impact of the all female suffrage campaigns on older political groups in which women still competed with men for positions and policies is also considered The book extends into the First World War and investigates the new alliance that were formed when earlier societies contracted or closed Edwardian Shaw Leon Hugo,1999-01-28 Edwardian Shaw covers Shaw s campaigns and crusades in the crucial first ten years of the century when his career hung in the balance By going to contemporary documents and highlighting aspects of Shaw s career at this time particularly his emergence as a moral revolutionary and playwright of original and disquieting power Leon Hugo depicts a man who confronted a highly conservative world and managed by the force of his genius to stamp his personality on the age Eugene A. Forsey Frank Milligan,2004 In this unusual biography of one of Canada s most well known public figures author Frank Milligan traces the intellectual foundations on which Eugene Forsey s world view was constructed By studying Forsey s beliefs both religious and political Milligan unearths the philosophical underpinnings of many of Canada s early twentieth century political economic religious and social reform movements Educate, Agitate, Organize Patricia Pugh,1984 Three American Radicals Sender Garlin,2019-08-22 Sender Garlin is a veteran journalist and pamphleteer who has interviewed such figures as Theodore Dreiser Clarence Darrow and Emma Goldman and was present at all the Moscow purge trials of the 1930s Here he writes on three Americans involved in forging a new political force before and just after the turn of the century Ideas and Policies Under Labour, 1945-1951 Martin Francis,1997 Francis examines the relationship between socialist ideas and the policies of the 1945-51 Labour government insisting that Labour ministers applied specifically socialist precepts to the exercise of power during this period Encyclopedia of Political Thought Garrett Ward Sheldon,2001 Presents articles on concepts issues and notable persons related to politics and political science throughout history Reader's Guide to the Social Sciences Jonathan Michie,2014-02-03 This 2 volume work includes approximately 1 200 entries in A Z order critically reviewing the literature on specific topics from abortion to world systems theory In addition nine major entries cover each of the major disciplines political economy management and business human geography politics sociology law psychology organizational behavior and the history and development of the social sciences in a broader sense The International Theory of Leonard Woolf P. Wilson,2005-10-29 Colonial civil servant Fabian socialist and eminence grise of the Bloombury Circle Leonard Woolf was one of the most prolific writers on international relations of the early to mid Twentieth Century His report for the Fabian Society International Government was influential on the creation of the League of Nations He was co founder of the popular pressure group the League of Nations Society He was a leading critic of empire He helped to educate the British Labour Party on global issues constructing in 1929 its first credible foreign policy With his wife Virginia he founded the celebrated Hogarth Press He pioneered functionalist and transnationalist theory He pioneered documentary journalism He wrote towards the end of his long life one of the most insightful autobiographies of the Twentieth Century This book examines the thought of this fascinating and relatively unknown political thinker It thoroughly reassesses his ideas for decades condemned as utopian in the context of the much more fluid international scene of theTwenty First century In particular it asks have his ideas about international government gained new pertinence in the post Cold War world The SAGE Encyclopedia of World Poverty

Mehmet Odekon, 2015-06-15 The SAGE Encyclopedia of World Poverty Second Edition addresses the persistence of poverty across the globe while updating and expanding the landmark work Encyclopedia of World Poverty originally published in 2006 prior to the economic calamities of 2008 For instance while continued high rates of income inequality might be unsurprising in developing countries such as Mexico the Organization of Economic Co operation and Development OECD reported in May 2013 even countries with historically low levels of income inequality have experienced significant increases over the past decade including Denmark Sweden and Germany The U N and the World Bank also emphasize the persistent nature of the problem It is not all bad news In March 2013 the Guardian newspaper reported Some of the poorest people in the world are becoming significantly less poor according to a groundbreaking academic study which has taken a new approach to measuring deprivation The report by Oxford University s poverty and human development initiative predicts that countries among the most impoverished in the world could see acute poverty eradicated within 20 years if they continue at present rates On the other hand the U N says environmental threats from climate change could push billions more into extreme poverty in coming decades All of these points lead to the need for a revised updated and expanded edition of the Encyclopedia of World Poverty Key Features 775 evaluated and updated and 175 entirely new entries New Reader s Guide categories Signed articles with cross references Further Readings will be accompanied by pedagogical elements Updated Chronology Resource Guide Glossary and thorough new Index The SAGE Encyclopedia of World Poverty Second Edition is a dependable source for students and researchers who are researching world poverty making it a must have reference for all academic libraries

At Home with the Empire Catherine Hall, Sonya O. Rose, 2006-12-21 This pioneering 2006 volume addresses the question of how Britain s empire was lived through everyday practices in church and chapel by readers at home as embodied in sexualities or forms of citizenship as narrated in histories from the eighteenth century to the present Leading historians explore the imperial experience and legacy for those located physically or imaginatively at home from the impact of empire on constructions of womanhood masculinity and class to its influence in shaping literature sexuality visual culture consumption and history writing They assess how people thought imperially not in the sense of political affiliations for or against empire but simply assuming it was there part of the given world that had made them who they were They also show how empire became a contentious focus of attention at certain moments and in particular ways This will be essential reading for scholars and students of modern Britain and its empire

The Age of Urban Democracy Donald Read, 2014-06-17 This ambitious survey covers all aspects of the period in which English society acquired its modern shape industrial rather than agricultural urban rather than rural democratic in its institutions and middle class rather than aristocratic in the control of political power For this revised edition the footnotes and bibliography have been fully updated and the entire text has been reset in a larger and more attractive format An ideal introduction to the subject it masters a huge amount of material through its clear structure sensible judgements and approachable style
