Defining Features Ludmilla Jordanova, 2012-12-24 Portraiture as a genre is receiving increased attention at the same time that public curiosity about science is reaching unprecedented levels Published to coincide with a major exhibition at the National Portrait Gallery London from 14 April 17 September 2000 and the Sainsbury Centre for Visual Arts University of East Anglia from 27 September 10 December 2000 Defining Features brings portraiture and science together Ludmilla Jordanova's lucid text reflects on the nature of the relationship between art science medicine and technology by focusing on a selection of portraits that spans more than three centuries Illustrated with likenesses of such notable personalities as Edward Jenner Marie Curie Charles Darwin Albert Einstein and Dorothy Hodgkin and encompassing a variety of media from paintings and medals to bookmarks and key rings Defining Features charts changing attitudes towards medical practice and scientific investigation as well as exploring how notions of gender heroism popularization and celebrity have affected the public's understanding of how researchers do their work The Guardian Index, 1999 The British Journal of

Photography, 1999 Making Space Vanessa Sheard, Peggy A. Sissel, 2001-06-30 Representative of a wide range of adult education and lifelong learning frameworks and experiences this book gives voice to emerging perspectives and offers thought provoking critiques of established practices and accepted theories Those in the adult education academy as well as other voices often excluded from the discourse in adult education offer critiques of the social political economic and historical forms of hegemony in the discipline They analyze the ways in which these hegemonic norms and practices have affected adult learning environments and the participation rates of varying groups and shed light on how adult education as a field of practice can marginalize individuals based on their ethnicity race gender class language age or sexual orientation These critiques provide a powerful statement about silence invisibility and the marginalization of the other and suggest that adult educators may complicitly if not implicitly marginalize adult learners This book will provide professors and students adult literacy teachers corporate trainers community based organizers and others with alternative ways to think about adult education practice adult learners and the multiple intersecting realities that influence the teaching learning transaction In so doing this book provides practitioners and academicians with a forum to dialog about emerging theories and practices and through the discourse they can begin to merge theories and practices through language that is accessible and inclusive

Women, States and Nationalism Sita Ranchod-Nilsson, Mary Ann Tetreault, 2003-09-02 Women States and Nationalism counters this attitude and examines the many and contradictory ways in which women negotiate their places in the nation The volume includes theoretical essays that explore the multiple ways in which the very concept of nation is based upon notions of family sexuality and gender power which are often overlooked or downplayed by male stream scholarship It gathers together an outstanding panel of feminist scholars and area studies specialists who through a series of focused case studies analyse diverse issues which include gender and sectarian conflict in Northern Ireland the paradox of Israeli women soldiers women civic duty and the military in the USA the Hindu Right in India power agency and representation in Zimbabwe political identity and heterosexism This timely volume is a highly valuable resource for students and scholars of Nationalism Internationalism Studies and Women s Studies From Eve to Dawn: A History of Women in the World Volume II Marilyn French,2008-04-01 Filled with fascinating detail this second volume of French s massive and valuable work is an example of scholarship and clear vision Publishers Weekly This volume of New York Times bestselling author Marilyn French s monumental history analyzes and evaluates the lives of women in societies around the world between feudal times and the French Revolution Drawing upon fifteen years of collaboration with a team of researchers and prominent historians the volume opens with fascinating chapters comparing medieval Europe and Japan disparate cultures which nevertheless shared traditions of male dominated aggression and competitiveness French then shows how in Europe this tradition led to colonialism and imperialism and the horrific subjugation of indigenous societies just as women were subjugated in the conquerors home countries As French makes clear in this impassioned women s history only with the French Revolution did the political force women exerted powerfully change the course of history French gives us grand theory at its best wading through copious amounts of scholarly data on the histories of civilizations and offering up in readable prose an important synthesis Library Journal The Welfare State Generation Eve Worth,2021-12-16 Women born in mid twentieth century Britain were the welfare state generation not only were their lives fundamentally shaped by the welfare state they helped to transform it In this ground breaking work Eve Worth examines the impact of the welfare state on the life course of women whose opportunities and social experiences were formed by it in the post 1945 period Centred around an oral history study this book argues that the welfare state was so central to the lives of women born in Britain between the late 1930s and early 1950s that they should be considered the welfare state generation The post war expansion of the welfare state was one of the most transformative political changes of the twentieth century yet we know little about its development in practice nor its long term impact on those who grew up within it Using a ground breaking life history methodology to examine women from their birth in the long 1940s to retirement in the mid 2010s it includes thirty six original life history interviews alongside social surveys and the Census for wider context By deploying a cross class approach this book moves the discussion on from just looking at university educated women to include women often overlooked in gender and social studies Re conceptualising the causes of social mobility in post war Britain exploring a new understanding of work and an updated periodisation of welfare state development The Welfare State Generation offers a new approach to the history of class and gender arguing that we need to move beyond the focus on women s emotions and personal identity to consider their experiences and relationships with the state as employer educator and provider Women & Aging Helen Rippier Wheeler,1997 Guide with more than two thousand bibliographic entries and cross references It includes journal articles book chapters essays and doctoral dissertations as well as complete books A London Bibliography of the Social Sciences ,1931

in Nineteenth Century Britain Laurence Brockliss,Harry Smith,2024-07-12 Male Professionals in Nineteenth Century Britain is the first statistically based social cultural and familial history of a fast growing and socially prominent section of the Victorian propertied classes It is built around a representative cohort of 750 men who were recorded in the 1851 census as practising a profession in eight British provincial towns with distinctive economic and social profiles Brighton Bristol Dundee Greenock Leeds Merthyr Tydfil Winchester and the twin county town of Northumberland Alnwick Morpeth The book provides a collective account of the cohort's lives and the lives of their families across four generations starting with their parents and ending with their grandchildren It touches on the history of 16 000 individuals The book aims to throw light on the extent to which nineteenth century professionals had a distinctive socio cultural profile as sociologists and some historians have claimed or were largely indistinguishable from other members of propertied society as most historians today assume without further investigation In exploring this question particular attention is paid to the cohort families wealth household size education occupational history geographical mobility and broader involvement in society measured by their members choice of marriage partner their kinship and friendship circles their political allegiance and their leisure activities The book demonstrates that male professionals in the Victorian era were far from being a homogenous group but were divided in many ways The most important was wealth which played a key role in the social and occupational fortunes of their descendants These divisions largely explain why some professionals and some individual professions were much more likely to display endogenous characteristics than others The book also demonstrates that even the most successful professional families got poorer over time and reveals how easily in the age of industrialisation branches of families and sometimes complete families could drop out of the elite

Reading Claude Cahun's Disavowals Jennifer L. Shaw, 2017-07-05 The first monograph on a Surrealist cult classic Reading Claude Cahun's Disavowals offers a comprehensive account of Cahun's most important published work Aveux non avenues Disavowals 1930 Jennifer L Shaw provides an encompassing interpretation of this groundbreaking work paying careful attention to the complex interrelationship between the photomontages and writings of Aveux non avenues This study argues that the texts and images of Aveux non avenues not only explore Cahun s own subjectivity they formulate a trenchant social and cultural critique Shaw explores how Cahun s work both calls into question the dominant culture of interwar France with its traditional gender roles religious conservatism and pronatalism and takes to task the era s artistic avant garde and in particular its models of desire This volume cuts across the disciplinary boundaries of interwar art studies demonstrating how one artist s personal exploration intervened in wider contemporary debates about the purpose of art the role of women in French culture and the status of homosexuality in the aftermath of World War I
