Basic Education and National Development Manzoor Ahmed,A. K. Jalaluddin,K. Ramachandran,1991 Education & National Development D. R. Kapoor,1984 Education and National Development Ingemar Faegerlind,Lawrence J. Saha,2016-06-03 Education and National Development A Comparative Perspective discusses the correlation between education and national development The book is comprised of nine chapters that cover several concerns regarding the subject matter such as the theoretical underpinning dimensions policies and practice The first chapter discusses the origins of modern development thought while the second chapter talks about how formal schooling can serve as an agent of change Chapters 3 4 and 5 cover the various dimension development which are economic growth employment quality of life and political system Chapter 6 discusses strategies for educational reform while Chapter 7 deals with the evaluation of development policy The eighth chapter provides a comparative discourse about education and development under capitalism and socialism Chapter 9 talks about education the state and development The book will be of great interest to readers concerned about how education correlates with national development Educational Aid and National Development Nancy Parkinson,1976-06-18 Education, Society, and Development Jandhyala B. G. Tilak,2003 Contributed articles

Education and National Development Donald K. Adams,2004 This booklet focuses on the broad role of education in national development in Asia It emphasizes trends issues and envisaged problems within education systems in the relations between education and the environment The foremost concerns are the implications for policy making and planning

Educational Planning and National Development M. R. Kolhatkar,1997 With reference to India National Development and the World System John W. Meyer,1979 Education, Science, and National Development D. S. Kothari,1970 Education and National Development Ingemar Fägerlind,Lawrence J. Saha,1989 In this second edition the authors have completely updated and expanded the original volume to produce a timely and important treatment of the relationship between education and national development Expanded discussions of literacy programs on the role of the state in educational and development planning and new material on the evaluation of educational reforms and development strategies complement the inclusion throughout of the most recent data and studies available A new chapter on women education and development directs attention to a dimension of development which until recently has been largely neglected The authors argue that the importance of education for national development strategies is as great as ever as the world enters the final decade of this century However decreasing economic resources for education in most countries have necessitated more informed yet constrained choices about policy and strategy which only a better understanding of the development processes can provide EDUCATION FOR NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT Philippines. Presidential Commission To Survey Philippine Education,1972 National Development and Local Reform Douglas Elliott Ashford,2015-12-08 Focusing on the problems of increased political participation as a vital aspect of the developmental process the author compares the ways three different political systems the monarchy of Morocco the single party state of Tunisia and the alliance of military and civil officials of the Pakistani regime have attempted to solve the problem at the local level Originally published in 1967 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Education and National Development in Asia Asian Development Bank, 2001 Assesses the status of education in Asia identifies major trends and issues and examines policies and practices that have successfully promoted equity and access strengthened management and efficiency improved quality and enhanced the education resource base Begins with an examination of demographic and economic trends that affect education then analyzes the relationship between education and economic and social development After reviewing the main issues in education development looks at some persistent issues and trends by subsector Finally examines policies and strategies that could be used to address some prevalent challenges facing education in developing Asian countries
