Africa's Future, Africa's

Challenge Marito H. Garcia, Alan Pence, Judith Evans, 2008-01-18 Early childhood from birth through school entry was largely invisible worldwide as a policy concern for much of the twentieth century. Children in the eyes of most countries were appendages of their parents or simply embedded in the larger family structure. The child did not emerge as a separate social entity until school age, typically six or seven. Africa's Future: Africa's Challenge: Early Childhood Care and Development in Sub-Saharan Africa focuses on the 130 million children south of the Sahel in this 0-6 age group. This book, the first of its kind, presents a balanced collection of articles written by African and non-African authors ranging from field practitioners to academicians and from members of government organizations to those of nongovernmental and local organizations. Africa's Future: Africa's Challenge compiles the latest data and viewpoints on the state of Sub-Saharan Africa's children. Topics covered include the rationale for investing in young children, policy trends in early childhood development, ECD historical perspectives of ECD in Sub-Saharan Africa, including indigenous approaches, new threats from HIV/AIDS, and the importance of fathers in children's lives. The book also addresses policy development and ECD implementation issues, presents the ECD programming experience in several countries, highlighting best practices and challenges, and evaluates the impact of ECD programs in a number of countries.

Educational Assessment and Inclusive Education Christian Ydesen, Alison L. Milner, Tali Aderet-German, Ezequiel Gomez Caride, Youjin Ruan, 2023-01-18 This book brings together policymaker and practitioner knowledge, experiences, and perspectives on the interaction between the assessment and inclusion agenda to the fore. The book's analysis is built on comparative qualitative data from five different countries on four continents: Argentina, China, Denmark, England, and Israel. These countries have been chosen for their distinctive and even contrasting education policies, sociocultural and economic circumstances, and variations in performance across supranational and national standardised student assessments. In addressing these specific contexts, the book provides insights into the pitfalls and synergies which emerge as key stakeholders attempt to mediate these two educational concerns in both policy and practice.

Education, Equality and Human Rights Mike Cole, 2022-08-12 The fifth edition of the market leading Education, Equality and Human Rights has been fully updated to reflect economic, political, and cultural changes in the UK, including the impacts of Brexit and Covid-19. It considers the great changes we are witnessing in recent years, such as climate change, emergency pandemics, the Fourth Industrial Revolution, and their interrelationships. Written by world experts in their respective fields, each of the five equality issues of gender, race, sexuality, disability, and social class is covered in their own right as well as in relation to education. Key issues explored include human rights, equality and education, women and equality, historically and now, gender education and social change, race and racism through history and today, racism and education from Empire to Johnson, sexualities, identities, and equality challenges in teaching and learning about sexuality and homo and trans phobia in schools, disability, equality as the last Civil Right, developing inclusive education, and governments' resistance, social class, neoliberal capitalism, and the Marxist alternative, selective schooling, mystifying social class, neoliberalism, and alternatives With an uncompromising and rigorous analysis of equality issues and a foreword from Peter McLaren addressing challenges to democracy in the US this new edition of Education Equality and Human Rights is an essential and contemporary resource across a wide range of disciplines and for all those interested in education social policy and human rights The Journey for Inclusive Education in the Indian Sub-Continent Mithu Alur, Michael Bach, 2009-09-11

Despite national and international commitments to Education for All and the Millennium Development Goals to assure universal primary education by 2015 over 90% of children with disabilities remain excluded from regular education in countries of the south This book describes a three decade long change initiative in India to enable children with disabilities to move from segregation and exclusion to inclusive education and draws lessons for confronting global exclusion It examines the barriers to inclusion of children with disabilities in the Indian sub continent estimated at 4% of the population or 40 50 million children and implications of the systemic failure within a human rights framework The book concludes with setting this initiative in a broader context of inclusive education development efforts and identifies lessons it provides for a global development agenda for inclusive education including the importance of ensuring strategies that are culturally appropriate and context specific Inclusive Education Zeta Brown, 2016-04-28 Inclusive education is complex multi faceted and ever changing and to date there has been no fixed definition of what is meant by the term inclusion leading to confusion about what inclusive education actually means in practice This key text introduces readers to the underlying knowledge and wider complexities of inclusion and explores how this can relate to practice Considering inclusion as referring to all learners it surveys the concept of inclusive practice in its broadest sense and examines its implementation in a variety of educational institutions Throughout the book international contributors consider this broader concept to critically evaluate the realities of practically implementing inclusive objectives Each chapter assesses key theories and concepts alongside a range of examples to encourage students to think critically and reappraise their own experience as learners Key topics covered include studying the definition of inclusion the relevance of pedagogy in inclusive practice how to lead and manage for inclusion the issue of inclusion in early years primary secondary and post 16 settings inclusive practice for families international perspectives on inclusive practice Fully illustrated with tasks case studies discussion questions and recommended reading Inclusive Education is essential reading for second and third year students looking to extend their research and writing and to develop their critical and reflective thinking Inclusive Education at Work Students with Disabilities in Mainstream Schools OECD, 2000-02-02 Based on in depth analysis of inclusive practice in eight countries this book addresses the issues that arise when students with disabilities are educated in local schools
