Markham, Joshua Daniel, 2018-01-16 One of the most interesting voices in the Academy and the Church today is Martyn Percy Percy the Dean of Christ Church Oxford and a leading voice in the Anglican Communion is both theologically orthodox yet deeply unconventional While remaining engaged in the scholarly community Percy writes with clarity and passion on topics that range from ecclesiology to music from sexuality to the Trinity from advertising to ministerial training he is a polymath This book is two books in one The first half contains a series of articles written both by church leaders and academics that serve as substantial critical introductions to Percy's thought In the second half the reader gets to hear from Percy himself in a collection of wide ranging material from his corpus While producing a dialectical engagement of some depth as Percy offers written responses to his interlocutors this volume should prove useful for a variety of communities beyond academic circles especially ones engaged with contemporary issues facing ecclesiology churches and the wider Anglican Communion

Artisanal Theology Lisa M. Hess, 2009-01-15 Paradox and surprise face those who pursue deeper spiritual practice theological wisdom and even a religious calling into the ministry Unbeknownst to incoming students the pursuit of theological education in established institutions today furthers a faith that is recognizable in delight and compassion even as it may just as easily deform it into a moral duty and autonomous professionalism so divisive in today's religious ecology How may those drawn into ministry formation today receive its deep theological treasures and sustain a vibrant faith with a theologically expressive delight able to companion the suffering of self and others Artisanal Theology explores the paradoxes and surprises that await those walking in the worlds of theological education the local congregation the academy the tradition denomination Part handbook part witness it offers guidance for the path of intentional formation within contemporary institutions of theological education whose riches may be mined in a disciplined spiritual stewardship and grounded in radically covenantal companionship Just like artisanal bread blends the classical methods of bread baking with modern conveniences so an artisanal theology relies upon the personal and communal touch of human relationship amidst the contemporary forms of programmatic theological education An artisanal theology offers an articulate and traditionally rooted faith perspective grounded in covenantal companionships sustained in contexts of church tradition and most importantly practice Ultimately an artisanal theology witnesses beyond the anticipated political divides to the Triune God among us known in a theologically expressive delight able to companion the suffering of self and others
