The Critical Turn in Education Isaac Gottesman, 2016-03-17 The Critical Turn in Education traces the historical emergence and development of critical theories in the field of education from the introduction of Marxist and other radical social theories in the 1960s to the contemporary critical landscape The book begins by tracing the first waves of critical scholarship in the field through a close contextual study of the intellectual and political projects of several core figures including Paulo Freire Samuel Bowles and Herbert Gintis Michael Apple and Henry Giroux Later chapters offer a discussion of feminist critiques the influx of postmodernist and poststructuralist ideas in education and critical theories of race While grounded in U S scholarship The Critical Turn in Education contextualizes the development of critical ideas and political projects within a larger international history and charts the ongoing theoretical debates that seek to explain the relationship between school and society Today much of the language of this critical turn has now become commonplace words such as hegemony ideology and the term critical itself but by providing a historical analysis The Critical Turn in Education illuminates the complexity and nuance of these theoretical tools which offer ways of understanding the intersections between individual identities and structural forces in an attempt to engage and overturn social injustice Education and

Educating About Social Issues in the 20th and 21st

Centuries - Vol 4 Samuel Totten, Jon Pedersen, 2014-05-01 This volume is the fourth and last volume in the series entitled Educating About Social Issues in the 20th and 21st Centuries An Annotated Bibliography Volumes I and Volume 2 focused on 1 the lives and work of notable scholars dedicated to addressing why and how social issues should become an integral component of the public school curriculum and 2 various topics approaches vis vis addressing social issues in the classroom Volume 3 addressed approaches to incorporating social issues into the extant curricula that were not addressed in the first two volumes This volume Volume Four focuses solely on critical pedagogy both the lives and work of major critical pedagogues and the different strains of critical pedagogy the latter pursued e g critical theory in education critical feminism in education critical race theory Handbook of Research in the Social Foundations of Education Steven Tozer, Bernardo P. Gallegos, Annette Henry, Mary Bushnell Greiner, Paula Groves Price, 2011-07-05 Parts one and two of this volume present the theoretical lenses used to study the social contexts of education These include long established foundations disciplines such as sociology of education and philosophy of education as well as newer theoretical perspectives such as critical race theory feminist educational theory and cultural studies in education Parts three four and five demonstrate how these theoretical lenses are used to examine such phenomena as globalization media popular culture technology youth culture and schooling This groundbreaking volume helps readers understand the history evolution and significance of this wide ranging often misunderstood and increasingly important field of study This book is appropriate as a reference volume not only for scholars in the social foundations of education but also for scholars interested in the cultural contexts of teaching and learning formal and informal It is also appropriate as a textbook for graduate level courses in Social Foundations of Education School and Society Educational Policy Studies Cultural Studies in Education and Curriculum and Instruction Critical Education Against Global Capitalism Paula Allman, 2019-04-09 In today s vernacular Marx outed capitalism well over a century ago however his explanation has been both ignored and misinterpreted by not only his detractors but also by many socialists and even a considerable number of Marxists as well Today we are experiencing the full impact and suffering the repercussions of capitalism s inherent need to grow and become more than ever before a fully internationalized and integrated system of socioeconomic control and domination the global system that many commentators have suddenly remembered Marx and Engels 1848 presciently forecasted in the Communist Manifesto When the Berlin Wall fell in 1989 the victory of capitalism and liberal democracy was triumphantly proclaimed The Cold War was over and we were promised a lasting peace As we entered the third millennium the promise of peace was brutally dashed and humanity now appears to have entered a state of permanent war We have just witnessed the near total collapse of the global financial system and are continuing to experience as we will for years to come the collateral damage this crisis has caused Problems we were facing before the current crisis will be exacerbated escalating social and economic divisions jobless growth injustice and oppression together with an environment in varying stages of degradation Daily on television news we are bombarded by the schizoid media images of capitalism's extremes the ravaged faces and wasted bodies of some of the thousands suffering famine or the millions living in the world's slums followed within a blink of the eye by the gleaming yet vacuous smile and sumptuously adorned figure of some extravagant wealthy individual who is one of the select members of the global upper class Are we becoming conditioned to accept such contrasts and regard them as normal and inevitable at a time when we have the potential to eliminate scarcity and eradicate human deprivation The author argues that revolutionary critical education is needed to inform and form a social movement capable of challenging and then transforming capitalism She also offers an accessible account of Marx's dialectical critique and exposés of capitalism clearly demonstrating the real enemy that should be the focus of anti-capitalist and anti-globalization struggles This is an account that explains why our focus should not be on greedy individual capitalists Wall Street financial institutions particular multinational corporations national governments or even their handmaiden institutions such as the World Bank IMF WTO etc but instead the global network of capitalist socioeconomic relations and consequent habituated human practices in which we are all involved These together with the historically specific form of capitalist wealth are the real enemy the essence of capitalism that must be abolished in order for humanity to have any hope of social and economic justice in the future
