Bibliographie internationale sur le bilinguisme William Francis Mackey, Université Laval. Centre international de recherches sur le bilinguisme, 1982 Education et bilinguisme Miguel Siguán, William Francis Mackey, International Bureau of Education, 1986 Education et bilinguisme Miguel Siguán, William Francis Mackey, 1986 Multilingualism and Education Gail Prasad, Nathalie Auger, Emmanuelle Le Pichon Vorstman, 2022-06-09 For decades international researchers and educators have sought to understand how to address cultural and linguistic diversity in education This book offers the keys to doing so it brings together short biographies of thirty six scholars representing a wide range of universities and countries to allow them to reflect on their own personal life paths and how their individual life experiences have led to and informed their research This approach highlights how theories and concepts have evolved in different contexts while opening up pedagogical possibilities from diverse backgrounds and enriched by the life experiences of leading researchers in the field Beyond these questions the book also explores the dynamic relationships between languages power and identities as well as how these relationships raise broader societal issues that permeate both global and local language practices It is essential reading for students teacher educators and researchers interested in the impact of multilingualism on education

Multilingualism and Education in Africa Ruth W. Ndung'u, Martin C. Njoroge, Daniel O. Orwenjo, 2014-10-16 This book is a must read for every language teaching professional and researcher working in a multilingual context Multilingualism and Education in Africa The State of the State of the Art is an up to date exploration and wide ranging review of the symbiotic relationship between multilingualism and education in Africa The African continent is rich in languages Most of her inhabitants are multilingual and many of the nations have embraced multilingual education This book examines multilingualism in education from three broad perspectives multilingualism and language in education policy in Africa multilingualism as an educational resource in Africa and attitudes and challenges of multilingualism and education in Africa The book s nineteen chapters discuss these three perspectives from East West Central and South Africa All the contributors are leading authorities in multilingualism and education The chapters combine a wide range of viewpoints based on theoretical empirical and personal experiences The reader is left with a deeper understanding of the unique features of multilingualism and education in Africa that have seldom been addressed by those who experience them first hand The book demonstrates successful practices in multilingualism and education showing how African nations have determined what works for them without ignoring challenges such as policies on paper attitudes towards African languages and limited resources The benefits of multilingual education override the challenges The book s extensive coverage makes it an important resource for scholars and policy makers in the field of multilingualism and education Overall this book represents an important contribution to an important subject in education globally The editors have provided an introductory overview to the book and commentaries on the three sections L'Enfant Haitien Et Le Bilinguisme Maryse Noël

Roumain, 2013-11-11 In this book Maryse Nol Roumain compares the genesis of Creole languages to child language while warning us against simplification views and using the modern psycholinguistic theories of language acquisition She proceeds to explaining the acquisition of English by a child in situation of languages in contact She also studies school failure among Haitian children in North American schools des réflexions sur la didactique bi plurilingue et dans ce cadre sur la formation des enseignants sur la recherche et sur l'évaluation. Il présente des options innovantes en matière de construction curriculaire en deux langues. Les mises en resonance avec d'autres contextes européens ou nord américains apportent la dimension contrastive indispensable à l'examen renouvelé des questions liées aux constructions scolaires du plurilinguisme.

Critical Perspectives on Plurilingualism in Deaf Education Kristin Snoddon, Joanne C. Weber, 2021-07-12 This book is the first edited international volume focused on critical perspectives on plurilingualism in deaf education which encompasses education in and out of schools and across the lifespan. The book provides a critical overview and snapshot of the use of sign languages in education for deaf children today and explores contemporary issues in education for deaf children such as bimodal bilingualism, translanguaging, teacher education, sign language interpreting and parent sign language learning. The research presented in this book marks a significant development in understanding deaf children's language use and provides insights into the flexibility and pragmatism of young deaf people and their families' communicative practices. It incorporates the views of young deaf people and their parents regarding their language use that are rarely visible in the research to date.

Une révolution bilingue pour l'Afrique Fabrice Jaumont, Ayé Clarisse Hager-M'Boua, 2023-11-28T00:00:00Z Une révolution bilingue pour l'Afrique explore la promesse et le potentiel de l'éducation plurilingue sur le continent africain. Composés d'experts de l'éducation, de chercheurs et d'acteurs de terrain, les auteurs proposent, à travers une série d'essais pertinents et clairs, un examen précis de l'enseignement en deux langues en Afrique. Ces perspectives quant aux différentes formes d'éducation bilingue, les stratégies visant à promouvoir leur développement et leur mise en œuvre localement, sont sans pareilles. Ce livre présente une vision optimiste et avant-gardiste de l'éducation bilingue et de son avenir en Afrique, tout en dissipant activement les mythes et les idées fausses qui ont entravé la progression de cette approche comme vecteur d'inclusion, d'équité, de qualité de croissance économique et de développement du capital humain dans les sociétés richement plurilingues d'Afrique.

Sociolinguistics Today (RLE Linguistics C: Applied Linguistics) Kingsley Bolton, Helen Kwok, 2014-01-10 This collection of essays developed out of a conference held in Hong Kong in 1988. The aim was to provide a forum for an exchange of views between academics working within the field of sociolinguistics, in particular between those working in the West and those working in the East. Sociolinguistics Today has taken this aim a step further to produce an overview of contemporary research into sociolinguistics worldwide. The book contains articles by acknowledged leaders in the study of language and society and the presence of sociolinguists working in Asia provides a new and exciting challenge to the hitherto western dominated field. The comprehensive study of Asian sociolinguistics is unique and engages with the non-Asian contributions to great effect. The range of contributors reinforces the international emphasis of the book.
