Philosophical Thoughts on Education

6 Philosophical Thoughts on Education

JOHN LOCKE- THE EMPIRICIST

- Education is not an acquisition of knowledge contained in the Classics. It is learners interacting with concrete experience. The learner is an active not a passive agent of his/her own learning.
- From the social dimension, education citizens participate actively and intelligently in establishing their government and in choosing who will govern them from among themselves. They are of the thinking that no one person is destined to be a ruler forever. This is in keeping with the Anti-Political Dynasty Bill.

SPENCER- THE UTILITARIANIST

- To survive in a complex society, Spencer favors specialized education over general education.
- "The expert who concentrates on a limited field is useful, but if he loses sight of the interdependence of things he becomes a man who knows more and more about less and less. We must be warned of the early peril of over specialist. Of course, we do not prefer the other extreme, the superficial person who every day knows less and less about more and more.
- Who is fittest survives, Individual competitions lead to social progress.
- The competition in class is what advocates of whole child approach and Socio-emotional Learning (SEL) atmosphere approach and Socio-Emotional Learning (SEL) atmosphere and Socio-Emotional Learning (SEL) atmosphere negate. The whole-child approach, a powerful tool for SEL focused schools has tenets-" each student learns in an environment that is physically and emotionally safe for students and adults" and "each student has

Education and Philosophical Thought Kingsley Price, 1962      Philosophy of Education Nel Noddings, 2018-04-17 The first edition of Nel Noddings Philosophy of Education was acclaimed as the best overview in the field by the journal Teaching Philosophy and predicted to become the standard textbook in philosophy of education by Educational Theory This classic text originally designed to give the education student a comprehensive look at philosophical thought in relation to teaching learning research and educational policy has now been updated to reflect the most current thinking in the field A revised chapter on Logic and Critical Thinking makes the topic more accessible to students and examines how critical thinking plays a role in light of the new Common Core standards Philosophy of Education introduces students to the evolution of educational thought from the founding fathers to contemporary theorists with consideration of both analytic and continental traditions This is an essential text not only for teachers and future teachers but also for anyone needing a survey of contemporary trends in philosophy of education      Philosophy and the Study of Education Tom Feldges, 2019-03-26

Combining contributions from international academics and practitioners this new text develops students ability to philosophise as well as learn about philosophy and education It considers issues concerned with the interface between education and wider society but goes beyond this to explore education and philosophy at a micro level the teacher learner relationship It challenges and empowers students to use philosophy as a tool within education as a set of theories to understand education and as a potential means to develop solutions to problems as they occur within practice Assuming no pre existing philosophical background Philosophy and the Study of Education explores complex topics including encouraging young people to criticise and challenge all authority the limits of a religious based education the desire for alternative facts or truths the second class status of vocational pursuits the inherent struggle in the teacher student relationship the relationship between emotion morality and autonomy in teaching Including discussion questions and further recommended reading this thought providing book will support and inspire all those on Education Studies Childhood Studies and Youth Studies courses in developing a critical perspective and understanding the true value of philosophy within education

Education and Thinking in Continental Philosophy Itay Snir, 2020-09-28 This book draws on five philosophers from the continental tradition Theodor Adorno Hannah Arendt Gilles Deleuze Jacques Derrida and Jacques Rancière in order to think about thinking and offer new and surprising answers to the question How can we educate students to think creatively and critically Despite their differences all of these philosophers challenge the modern understanding of thinking and offer original radical perspectives on it In very different ways each rejects the modern approach to thinking as well as the reduction of proper thought to rationality situating thinking in sociohistorical reality and relating it to political action Thinking they argue is not a natural automatic activity and the need to think has become all the more important as political reality seems to exhibit less thinking or to even celebrate thoughtlessness Bringing these continental conceptions of thinking to bear on the urgent need to educate young people to think against the current this book makes a significant contribution to educational theory and political philosophy one that is particularly relevant in today's anti intellectual climate NEP2020

Philosophy: Indian Philosophical Thoughts and Contribution of Thinkers to the field of Education Dr. Muttu Vemula, 2024-12-28 Delves into the rich tapestry of Indian philosophical thought that underpins the National Education Policy 2020 NEP2020 This book explores the profound contributions of renowned Indian thinkers whose ideas have shaped the nation's educational landscape for centuries Discover how their philosophical insights have been incorporated into the NEP2020 fostering a holistic and inclusive approach to education From ancient wisdom to modern interpretations this book offers a comprehensive exploration of the philosophical foundations that guide India's educational journey CRITICAL REFLECTIONS OF NATURALISM AND PRAGMATISM SCHOOL OF THOUGHT ON PRESENT EDUCATION

SCENARIO Dr. Jugnu Khatter Bhatia, 2020-10-08 1 1 Introduction The modern world mainly dominated by rapid growth of science and technological innovations is no doubt moving towards material world Technological developments and innovations have made human life materialistic mechanical conditioned and controlled Therefore a constructivist and progressive approach with broaden horizon may be the only remedy to uplift mankind from its present situation Education is the only way and means to relate to the whole world to experience to understand and attempt to change the perceptions of the world Education works as the spinal cord for the development of a nation A nation can be a developed one only if it has strong comprehensive and diversified education system Change is the law of nature and life In the same way education system changes with the passage of time as it is a dynamic concept In different periods it goes on changing on the foundation of circumstances of the country i.e. on the basis of educational views of eminent personalities and educationists as well as the recommendations given by various education commissions and committees 1 1 Bhatnagar Suresh Saxena Anamika 2006 Development of Education in India Meerut R Lall Book Depot Philosophical Thought in Russia in the Second Half of the Twentieth Century Vladislav Lektorsky, Marina F. Bykova, 2019-01-10 Philosophical Thought in Russia in the Second Half of the 20th Century is the first book of its kind that offers a systematic overview of an often misrepresented period in Russia's philosophy Focusing on philosophical ideas produced during the late 1950s early 1990s it reconstructs the development of genuine philosophical thought in the Soviet period and introduces those non dogmatic Russian thinkers who saw in philosophy a means of reforming social and intellectual life Covering such areas of philosophical inquiry as philosophy of science philosophical anthropology the history of philosophy activity approach as well as communication and dialogue studies the volume presents and thoroughly discusses central topics and concepts developed by Soviet thinkers in that particular fields Written by a team of internationally recognized scholars from Russia and abroad it examines the work of well known Soviet philosophers such as Mikhail Bakhtin Evald Ilyenkov and Merab Mamardashvili as well as those important figures such as Vladimir Bibler Alexander Zinoviev Yury Lotman Georgy Shchedrovitsky Genrich Batishchev Sergey Rubinstein and others who have often been overlooked By introducing and examining original philosophical ideas that evolved in the Soviet period the book confirms that not all Soviet philosophy was dogmatic and tied to orthodox Marxism and the ideology of Marxism Leninism It shows Russian philosophical development of the Soviet period in a new light as a philosophy defined by a genuine discourse of exploration and intellectual progress rather than stagnation and dogmatism In addition to providing the historical and cultural background that explains the development of the 20th century Russian philosophy the book also puts the discussed ideas and theories in the context of contemporary philosophical discussions showing their relevance to nowadays debates in Western philosophy With short biographies of key thinkers an extensive current bibliography and a detailed chronology of Soviet philosophy this research resource provides a new understanding of the Soviet period and its intellectual legacy 100 years after the Russian Revolution

New Educational Philosophy Bhagirathi Sahu,2002 Philosophy of Education John Ryder,2022-09-16 A 2023 Choice Reviews Outstanding Academic Title Assuming no background knowledge of philosophy John Ryder s introductory text surveys canonical writings and contemporary applications to inform future teachers practice of systematic philosophy of education Exposing readers to the philosophies that built Western education the book welcomes the development of alternate approaches through systematic analysis of how theory informs practice The book systematically analyzes key contributions by the four most influential figures in the philosophy of Western education Plato Jean Jacques Rousseau John Dewey and Paolo Freire The book then builds on historical theories to help readers develop their own systematic philosophies of education After questions of why how by or for whom about what where and when education should be undertaken the book delves into metaphysical epistemological and socio political questions that may underlie educational principles Encouraging readers to practice a philosophy of education rather than follow a prescribed path the book presents a model of exploration that builds on ideas developed by philosophers such as Nel Noddings that can be applied across contemporary and emerging educational issues The analytic experience and conceptual background material of this book enables readers to think carefully and reflectively about educational principles policies and practices as they dedicate themselves to the profession of education

Educational Philosophy in the French Enlightenment Natasha Gill, 2016-04-29 Though Emile is still considered the central pedagogical text of the French Enlightenment a myriad of lesser known thinkers paved the way for Rousseau s masterpiece Natasha Gill traces the arc of these thinkers as they sought to reveal the correlation between early childhood experiences and the success or failure of social and political relations and set the terms for the modern debate about the influence of nature and nurture in individual growth and collective life Gill offers a comprehensive analysis of the rich cross fertilization between educational and philosophical thought in the French Enlightenment She begins by showing how in Some Thoughts Concerning Education John Locke set the stage for the French debate by transposing key themes from his philosophy into an educational context Her treatment of the abb Claude Fleury the rector of the University of Paris Charles Rollin and Swiss educator Jean Pierre de Crousaz illustrates the extent to which early Enlightenment theorists reevaluated childhood and learning methods on the basis of sensationist psychology Etienne Gabriel Morelly usually studied as a marginal thinker in the history of utopian thought is here revealed as the most important precursor to Rousseau and the first theorist to claim education as the vehicle through which individual liberation social harmony and political unity could be achieved Gill concludes with an analysis of the educational philosophical dispute between Helv tius and Rousseau and traces the influence of pedagogical theory on the political debate surrounding the expulsion of the Jesuits in 1762
