Educational Travel on a Shoestring Judith Waite Allee, Melissa L. Morgan, 2002 A road map for family fun and learning across the country in around a hometown A helpful tool for homeschooling Includes ideas for memorable and inexpensive vacations and field trips how to find sources for travel money ways to build closer family ties with children and teenagers

Serving Homeschooled Teens and Their Parents Maureen T. Lerch, Janet Welch, 2004-05-30 Today more than a million students are being educated at home and that figure increases at a rate of 7 14% annually Homeschooling is a growing trend in our society and public librarians are being called upon with increasing frequency to serve the needs of homeschooled students So just what are the needs of the homeschooled teen and how can you and your library meet those needs A former young adult librarian and a homeschool parent have joined forces to create this insightful guide and answer that question After reviewing the developmental and social needs of teens the authors demonstrate how those needs may be met in the public library setting You ll find a wealth of ideas for adapting every facet of your library service for this growing population from developing a homeschool collection to expanding services and creating special programs You ll also find suggestions on how to market what your library has to offer to homeschoolers You may even discover some new ways to employ the talents and time of these students and their families Extensive resource lists conclude the volume they will help you better serve home educated teens and their parents

Home Schooling Frederick M. Lawrence, 2007 From left to right on the political spectrum there is at least one note of agreement the nation s school system has not delivered universal quality education Accordingly debate has raged over how to rectify this situation Should the government increase funding encourage privatisation some of both Another option though has emerged and is seemingly gaining popularity home schooling Citing both substandard education and displeasure with school environments and curricula many parents have decided to teach their own children Supporters say it is well within their rights to raise their children as they see fit and that at home learning is superior to the public system Detractors claim that home schooled children are deprived of social interaction and the broad based education provided by the system Neither side wants to cede ground making the issue of home schooling an integral part of a wider national debate on education In this book the specific topic of home schooling is presented from all relevant sides to give a complete picture of the present status of the issue and its potential for future resolution Following this overview is a thorough and carefully selected bibliography of literature about home schooling from all viewpoints Easy access to his important resource is then provided via author title and subject indexes
