Comprehensive survey of Grieg's 180 songs considering particularly questions and issues of performance. Edvard Grieg's 180 songs mirror his artistic and personal development more intimately than any of his other music yet are still the least known part of his output. This definitive appraisal, now revised and updated, discusses every song including those left only in manuscript and sketches at the composer's death, set against the background of his life and times. It also deals with the poetry, often chosen to reflect his current situation, and the poets, several of whom, including great figures of the day such as Ibsen and Bjørnson, were his friends and colleagues. Grieg frequently bemoaned poor translations and indifferent performances, and the various editions and translations from first publication to the present day are also discussed together with his own ideas for interpretation. Musical examples and analysis are included to give a closer understanding of Grieg's word setting and harmonic development, although their performance is always kept paramount. BERYL FOSTER is a graduate of London University and studied singing in Colchester and at the Royal College of Music. As well as all the usual repertoire since 1980 she has made a particular study of the songs of Grieg and other Norwegian composers, giving recitals, lectures, and workshops in Britain, Norway, Germany, the Netherlands, Italy, and China. She is also a private teacher and festival adjudicator.
