Hughes, Gerald C. Ubben, 1978 Resources in Education ,1995 School Management by Wandering Around Larry Frase, Robert W. Hertz, 2003-01-21 Management by wandering around MBWA is the catalyst that brings teachers aides parents and administrators together in the pursuit of excellent schools MBWA is an active person to person process that relies on deeds involvement and participation to create better schools The leader who embraces MBWA does not just talk about his philosophy he lives it The MBWA leader possesses an honest awareness of self and how he affects others He creates and clarifies new visions He encourages and empowers others to join in the quest to capture visions and transform them into reality The MBWA leader is aware of the power worth and value of people He actively pursues the school's mission with people Principals in Action Van Cleve Morris, 1984 Jsl Vol 2-N3 JOURNAL OF SCHOOL LEADERSHIP, 1992-05-01 The Journal of School Leadership is broadening the conversation about schools and leadership and is currently accepting manuscripts We welcome manuscripts based on cutting edge research from a wide variety of theoretical perspectives and methodological orientations The editorial team is particularly interested in working with international authors authors from traditionally marginalized populations and in work that is relevant to practitioners around the world Growing numbers of educators and professors look to the six bimonthly issues to deal with problems directly related to contemporary school leadership practice teach courses on school leadership and policy use as a quality reference in writing articles about school leadership and improvement Practical Politics for School Administrators David K. Wiles, Jon Wiles, Joseph Bondi, 1981 A unique and practical guide on how to survive the political pressures of the 80s Jacket blurb Changing the School Learning Environment Jack Rimmel Frymier, Ronald Joekel, 2004 The No Child Left Behind Legislation by the federal government led to another round of emphasis on public schools resulting in a focus on school renewal or as often termed school reform The National Association of Secondary School Principals in the 1960s initiated a concept for school renewal called The Model Schools Project 1969 1974 The MSP was the culmination of much of the seminal thinking on school renewal of that era The project was directed by Dr J Lloyd Trump NASSP secretary for research and development and Dr William D Georgiades professor of Education at the University of Southern California After the MSP formally ended Georgiades continued to provide leadership for school renewal as president of a follow up consortium of schools and districts the Learning Environments Consortium International In Changing the School Learning Environment Jack Frymier and Ronald Joekel take a look at the key concepts of the Model Schools Project and what has transpired during the past 30 plus years Has it survived as initially conceived evolved into something meaningful for contemporary schools or failed as so many other innovations have done A survey of best educational practices stemming from the Model Schools Project that promote school renewal and how they are being utilized today are also presented and discussed Should appeal to educators and secondary school administrators Bureaucracy and Professionalism Jeffrey Glanz,1991 This work explains the rise and evolution of an occupational group in its efforts to professionalize and offers an interpretive analysis of the factors that have historically shaped and influenced public school supervision The Effective Principal Arthur Blumberg,William Greenfield,1986 School Leadership in Times of Urban Reform Marilyn Bizar,Rebecca Barr,2000-09 Examines schools in Chicago where the largest experiment in site based management accountability is being enacted An analysis allows insights relevant beyond this single site permits pursuit of an agenda concerned w educational leadership reform Current Issues in School Leadership Larry W. Hughes,2005-01-15 Current Issues in School Leadership examines controversies about and affecting school practices Focusing on two essential questions what is important to today s school leaders and what is interfering with schooling processes it includes chapters by a broad range of authors with expertise on their specific topic The text is organized in three sections Social and Political Issues Curriculum and Learning Issues and Organization and Management Issues The goal of this text designed for school leadership educational administration and foundations of education courses is to challenge readers to think carefully and critically about each of the issues presented leading to positive action and leadership Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1980 Bobbs-Merrill Educational Co,1980 The Principal Gerald C. Ubben,Larry W. Hughes,Cynthia J. Norris,2004 This text is organized around the ISLLC Standards and provides a bridge from the theory of school administration to the practical problem solving in which school principals and other leaders engage The Principal is organized into four parts centered on the six Interstate School Leaders Licensure Consortium ISLLC Standards developed specifically for school leaders Each of the four major parts of the book is framed with one or two of the Standards as its major theme Now in its Fifth Edition this text continues to be based on the research indicating linkages between educational leadership and productive schools especially in terms of outcomes for children It supports the understanding that formal leadership in schools is a complex multi faceted task that requires continual learning and that effective school leaders must be strong educators focused on the central issues of learning teaching and school improvement School leaders must also be moral agents and social advocates for the children and communities they serve while working with community stakeholders to create learning communities that value and care for others as individuals and as members of the educational community Principals and Vice-principals Marita Moll,Canadian Teachers' Federation,1983 This bibliography on principals and vice principals the fourth such bibliography published by the Canadian Teachers Federation lists materials on the topic published since August 1978 Unlike its predecessors this bibliography of 759 entries is annotated wherever possible and arranged by subject for easier access to specific kinds of information Identification numbers are provided for material in the ERIC system MLF Education
