Steinberg,2018-07-17 This unique book is divided into two sections The first section highlights specific international youth activists their biographies work and accomplishments The second section is a collection of work by youth who address their own activism goals identities and needs Commentaries by teachers community workers and facilitators compliment the entries creating a unique intergenerational and multi faceted volume The book will serve to fill a gap in teacher education highlighting and listening to youth themselves who the editor contends should be intimately involved in their own education and futures A new model for teacher education this book allows teachers to understand that youth must have and demand a voice in the determination of their lives and futures Previous work with youth tends to deal with them as a problem to be solved a group to be managed This book insists that youth are viable citizens and create a voice which is heard internationally Activists under 30 is the first book of its kind to be addressed to youth teachers parents and activists It reminds us that youth are our most valuable resource and insists we incorporate them invite them and listen to them      Wildlife Crime Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Environmental Audit Committee,2012-10-18 Wildlife legislation has become so complex that prosecutions fail and even specialist enforcement professionals struggle to implement it effectively Hundreds of birds of prey have been deliberately poisoned with substances such as carbofuran that have no legal use and the Government could easily make possession an offence The lack of sentencing guidelines on wildlife offences means that some offenders are being neither punished nor deterred in the courts The CPS is also failing to train its prosecutors to handle complex wildlife cases Furthermore the inflexible implementation in

UK law of international agreements covering the trafficking of endangered species squanders limited resources The Government has maintained funding for specialist wildlife crime investigation and enforcement but this is provided on an ad hoc basis reducing operational effectiveness Funding provided to monitor wildlife crime on the internet was too short term to attract a suitably qualified individual to fill the post In 2004 the Committee called for a new database to record all wildlife crime but this has still not been introduced Internationally this report also examines how the rhino tiger and elephant are being driven to extinction by growing demand for illegal wildlife products in south east Asia and China The Government needs to exert robust diplomatic pressure in favour of the development and enforcement of wildlife law at the next CITES meeting in March 2013 In particular the Government should focus attention on the damaging effect of one off sales of impounded ivory which has been found to actually fuel demand for ivory products and seek an unequivocal international ban on all forms of ivory trade Uncle John's Weird, Wonderful World Bathroom Reader Bathroom Readers'

Institute,2023-09-05 Uncle John is back with the 36th annual Bathroom Reader an all new collection of entertaining articles that explore the weird and wonderful world we live in In this 36th edition of Uncle John s Bathroom Reader longtime fans and new readers alike will be astounded by a treasure trove of wonderfully weird and true stories that explore the realms of pop culture history sports science and everyday folks including the always popular misadventures of dumb crooks Uncle John and his team at the Bathroom Readers Institute have reached into all corners of the world to bring you this all new collection of entertaining and informative articles that include short reads for a quick trip to the throne room as well as longer page turners for when you take an extended visit You ll also find a plethora of amusing lists odd factoids quotes and quizzes that will tickle every trivia enthusiast s fancy Together We March Leah Henderson,2021-01-19 March through history and discover twenty five groundbreaking protest movements that have shaped the way we fight for equality and justice today in this stunningly illustrated and sweeping book For generations marches have been an invaluable tool for bringing about social change People have used their voices the words on their signs and the strength in their numbers to combat inequality oppression and discrimination They march to call attention to these wrongs and demand change and action from a local to a global scale Whether demanding protective laws or advocating for equal access to things like voting rights public spaces and jobs the twenty five marches in this book show us that even when a fight seems impossible marching can be the push needed to tip the scales and create a movement This gorgeous collection celebrates this rich and diverse history the often overlooked stories and the courageous people who continue to teach us the importance of coming together to march today Elephant Tourism in Nepal Michelle Szydlowski,2024-02-01 A study of elephant tourism in Nepal from its origins in the 1960s to the present day this book examines the challenges faced by captive elephants Used as human conveyance on anti poaching patrol teams as rescue vehicles and in forestry service elephants have worked with and for humans for hundreds of years However the use of elephants in tourism is a fairly new development within Nepal Because the health and welfare of tourism elephants is vital to the conservation of wild individuals this book offers an assessment of captive elephant needs and an examination of their existing welfare statuses This book seeks to examine the motivations of these NGOs and INGOs and to consider their ethical approaches to elephant health and welfare Are the motivations of these organizations similar enough to work together towards a common goal or are their ethical norms so different that they get in one another's way Using an ordinary language and ethics framework this text aims to identify the norms of cultures and organisations and reframe them in ways which may allow for more successful interactions

Into the Illusive World Paul A. Moore, 2019-07-12 Have you ever thought about what a dog smells as it stops to sniff at a tree Or what a cat is watching as it stares intensely off into space What about animals in the wild What do they see hear smell and feel How do they perceive their surroundings This is the illusive world A world filled with fascinating stimuli that we are not equipped to detect This is particularly true because we tend to rely so heavily on our eyes or ears We are figuratively and literally blind to this part of the natural world This part which is full of stimuli we cannot perceive encompasses the daily lives of so many animals Beneath our feet are ants moles and spiders using vibrations to coordinate colonies and communicate danger In the oceans turtles fish and octopi are sensitive to magnetic and electric fields as well as tasty morsels at the tips of their tentacles In the skies owls and raptors can see deep into a lake or pierce the night with highly sensitive eyes This book brings together all these animals and their amazing sensory abilities in an exploration of how animals perceive their world Within these pages are wonderful and exciting stories of organisms using their senses to perform sophisticated communication with nestmates find hidden prey in the dark of night or murky depths and call to lovers both near and far This book will open the door to this illusive world and will take you on a journey into the illusive world and see how different the world is when perceived through another animal's senses

Plantation Worlds Maan Barua, 2024-07-26 In Plantation Worlds Maan Barua interrogates debates on planetary transformations through the histories and ecologies of plantations Drawing on long term research spanning fifteen years Barua presents a unique ethnography attentive to the lives of both people and elephants amid tea plantations in the Indian state of Assam In the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries nearly three million people were brought in to Assam's plantations to work under conditions of indenture Plantations dramatically altered the region's landscape plundered resources and created fraught worlds for elephants and people Their extractive logics and colonial legacies prevail as durations forging the ambit of infrastructures labor habitability and conservation in the present And yet as the perspectives of the Adivasi plantation worker community and lifeworlds of elephants show possibilities for enacting a decolonial imaginary of landscape remain present amid immiseration From the margins of the Global South Barua offers an alternative grammar for articulating environmental change In so doing he prompts a rethinking of multispecies ecologies and how they are structured by colonialism and race

The Routledge Handbook of Indigenous Environmental Knowledge Thomas F. Thornton, Shonil A. Bhagwat, 2020-11-29 This volume provides an overview of key themes in Indigenous Environmental Knowledge IEK and anchors them with brief but well grounded empirical case studies of relevance for each of these themes drawn from bioculturally diverse areas around the world It provides an incisive cutting edge overview of the conceptual and philosophical issues while providing constructive examples of how IEK studies have been implemented to beneficial effect in ecological restoration stewardship and governance schemes Collectively the chapters in the Routledge Handbook of Indigenous Environmental Knowledge cover Indigenous Knowledge not only in a wide range of cultures and livelihood contexts but also in a wide range of environments including drylands savannah grassland tropical forests mountain landscapes temperate and boreal forests Pacific and Indian Ocean islands and coastal environments The chapters discuss the complexities and nuances of Indigenous cosmologies and ethno metaphysics and the treatment and incorporation of IEK in local national and international environmental policies Taken together the chapters in this volume make a strong case for the potential of Indigenous Knowledge in addressing today's local and global environmental challenges especially when approached from a perspective of appreciative inquiry using cross cultural methods and ethical collaborative approaches which limit bias and inappropriate extraction of IEK The book is a guide for graduate and advanced undergraduate teaching and a key reference for academics in development studies environmental studies geography anthropology and beyond as well as anyone with an interest in Indigenous Environmental Knowledge Chapters 10 and 23 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

East Africa's Human Environment Interactions Rob Marchant, 2022-01-13 This book is an ambitious integration of ecological archaeological anthropological land use sciences drawing on human geography demography and economics of development across the East Africa region It focuses on understanding and unpicking the interactions that have taken place between the natural and unnatural history of the East African region and trace this interaction from the evolutionary foundations of our species c 200 000 years ago through the outwards and inwards human migrations often associated with the adoption of subsistence strategies new technologies and the arrival of new crops The book will explore the impact of technological developments such as transitions to tool making metallurgy and the arrival of crops also involved an international dimension and waves of human migrations in and out of East Africa Time will be presented with a widening focus that will frame the contemporary with a particular focus on the Anthropocene last 500 years to the present day Many of the current challenges have their foundations in precolonial and colonial history and as such there will be a focus on how these have evolved and the impact on environmental and human landscapes Moving into the Anthropocene era there was increasing exposure to the International drivers of change such as those associated with Ivory and slave trade These international trade routes were tied into the ensuing decimation of elephant populations through to the exploitation of natural mineral resources have been sought after through to the present day The book will provide a balanced perspective on the region the people and how the natural and unnatural histories have combined to create a dynamic region These historical perspectives will be galvanized to outline the future changes and the challenges they will bring around such issues as sustainable development space for wildlife and people and the position of East Africa within a globalized world and how this is potentially going to evolve over the coming decades
